A FASHION NOTE FROM PEKING A FASHION NOTE FROM PEKING The dress of both civil and military officials is to be changed. When the new republic was established, the an-cient order of official robes, with dis-tinguished headgear, was done away with, and many of the new officials who had been educated abroad re-tained their European costume. Now, however, the government is considering adopting a special form of dress for the different grades of officials which will be more in keeping with ancient form.—The Christian Herald.

BEADQUARTERS FOR SHI SIDES & SIDES

Special to The Telegraph Special to The Telegraph York, Pa., Oct. 16.—Mervin Smith, 20 years old, of Bittersville, is the first victim of the gunning season in this county. Smith was accidentally shot by an older brother while the two were hunting squirrels. The entire load entered his left thigh, inflicting an ugly wound. The older brother had noticed the leaves being stirred some distance away in the woods, and, be-lieving it was a squirrel, fired.

The New 1916 Indian Motor shows its Real Stuff in Endurance Trials

In the Harrisburg to Pittsburgh Reliability Run, Oct. 2nd and 3rd, there were 19 machines of various makes entered. Only seven machines finished; two INDIANS entered, and two IN-DIANS finished with perfect scores.

In the Dayton, O., to New York City Endurance Run, Oct. 9, 10, 11 and 12-814 miles, there were six INDIANS entered and six machines finished, five of which were INDIANS.

POWERPLUS will develop 5 to 60 miles in 30 seconds and will maintain a speed of 70 miles an hour.

A close study of the POWERPLUS mechanical details brings out many points of design and construction which compel at-tention for their skillful thought and fine execution.

Only the person who has ridden a Cradle Spring Model INDIAN has a true conception of the ease of riding which it affords. NO RIGID FRAME could have survived such punish-ment in these Endurance Runs over rough roads.
