In the readjustment of the balance of world power there will be no place for the weakling, even though he pleads peaceable intent and righteousness of cause.

The day of the stalwart is at hand, and it remains for you, Mr. Citizen, to say whether Uncle Sam shall stand before the conqueror, a helpless old squire whose pockets bulge invitingly with wealth, or whether he shall be buckled in his armor for protection against aggression.

Whatever your ideas of national defense may be, you ought to read the two great patriotic books, "The American Government" and "The Panama Canal," by Frederic J. Haskin.

Reports from German sources reseived in London indicate that a campaign against Montenegro by Austro-German forces is contemplated. Twenty thousand infantrymen, together with an artillery force, have been sent form Galicia to Bosnia in preparation for an advance in to Montenegro, it is declared.

Latest reports from the Near East indicate that Serbia is in deadly danger of being overwhelmed by the armies of her neighbor. No less than eight Bulgarian forces have crossed into Serbian territory.

Serbia's desperately resisting forces continue to be forced back by the relentless pressure of the Austro-German invaders.

To-day's official statement from Berlin records the enforced retreat of the Serbians south of Lucina and Bozavac, the latter place being about twelve miles southeast of Pozarevac and some twenty miles southeast of Pozarevac and some twenty miles southed to five Danube.

"THE LITTLE GYPSY" AT THE COLOMINAL.

The newest Fox feature, caled "The Little Gypsy," featuring Dorothy Bernard, which appears at the Colonial today and to-morrow, is declared by critics to be a decided triumph. In some subtle way, the spectator is invited to join with the company, and the joys and wees of Lady Babble and the Little Minister are made public property. This is the first of Oscar Apfel's productions for the Fox company; and taking his measure from the handlay of this ground in the first place, however, Mr. Apfel has a high grade of material to work with. Dorothy Bernard is a charming and altogether capable Babble. As the petted daughter of an English nobleman, she is dignified and well poised, and there is nothing incongruous in her barfoot gypsy dances through the midnight glades. Her naive mannerlsms are especialty enticing in crompt the midnight glades. Her naive mannerlsms are especialty enticing in the cases with the minister and with the constant.
