See Another Pig Iron Buying Movement

In its weekly review of the steel trade, the iron Age to-day says: "Prominent features of the week have been advances in prices of many products and the apparent beginning of another buying movement in pig from. The heavy demand for steel pro-ducts continues, but this is now get-ting to be an old story. The pig iron market has responded rather slowly to the great activity and strength of steel products, but it now seems that the slack is to be taken up. Birming-ham advices are that the sales of Bouthern from the past week have con-stored to include contracting by pipe makers.""Ballroads having the south the sale

With the suburban trains under electric operation there will be a re-duction in running time of one minute on local trains eastbound from Paol to Broad Street Station and of five minutes on the westbound run. Of the eastbound week-day trains thirty-eight will be locals, making all Paol, as compared with thirty-three under the old schedule. Westbound there will be thirty-size as at pre-sent. Trains will run every half hour from 7.15 a .m. to 9.45 p. m.

Beginning Monday morning, Charles M. Williams will take over the man-agership of the Union Station barber shop as a successor to Ross R. Potts, who has resigned to go into business on his own account. The new manager has been in the employ of Harvey Wolfe, proprietor of the shop, for the last several years and in that time he has divided his services between the Commonwealth and the station shops. He is a well-known Elk and has a wide circle of triends. The announcement of Mr. Potts' intended departure was received with regret by scores of railroad and businessmen, with whom he is very popular.
