PART OF FOOT AMPUTATED

Special to The Telegraph
Carlisle, Pa., Oct. 22.—As the result of an accident sustained on the opening day of the hunting season when his gun was accidentally discharged and the charge lodged in his foot, an operation was performed on Paul Hough, a son of William Hough, of Green Spring, this county, and portion of the member removed to prevent further complications.

DEATH OF MRS. J. C. FLEMING
Waynesboro, Pa., Oct. 22.—Mrs. Marie Fleming, wife of J. C. Fleming, for many years owner and editor of the Shippensburg News, died Wednesday night at their cottage at Pen-Mar Park, aged 55 years. She had not been in good health for sometime, but her death was not expected. Mrs. Fleming was an active member of the Methodist Church, and of the Rebekah order I. O. O. F. She had attained the highest rank in the State organization of the Rebekahs. She is survived by her husband and two children.

Waynesboro, Pa., Oct. 22.—August Fleagle, Welty's Mill, near Waynesboro, caught a turtle weighing 17 1/2 pounds in the Antietam creek, near Welty's bridge, yesterday.
