Serbians Will Not Be Crushed, Officers Say. Saloniki, Greece, Oct. 20, via Paris, Oct. 22, 9.55 A. M.—Officers of the French and British expeditionary force in the Balkans who returned to-day to Saloniki from the Serbian front assert that, notwithstanding the odds against which they are fighting, the Serbians are not discouraged. "I would not advise you to bet ten cents that Serbia will be crushed," said one of these officers. "Last Thursday we were north of Ralja, in the section where the Austrians and Germans are making their principal attack. It took them nine days to gain eight miles on that front."

Germans Shoot Belgian Priest; Three Others Dead. Amsterdam, via London, Oct. 22.—The Echo de Belges states that the new German order for the immediate surrender of all enemy soldiers hidden in Belgium is being carried out with the utmost severity. A Belgian priest, Father Toulou, of Staden, Flanders, says the paper, while in his cellar with several inhabitants received a summons to deliver French soldiers who were alleged to have taken refuge there. Before the priest could reply, the article continues, Germans fired a volley, killing the priest and three others.
