

GOVERNOR URGES 3RD AMENDMENT

Issues Statement Pointing Out Its Importance to the People of State

Governor Brumbaugh last night called upon the people of the State to vote for the third constitutional amendment on the November ballot.

The Governor said in his statement: "A most important amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth will be submitted to the voters of the State at the November election."

It amends Section 23 of Article three so as to give to the Legislature the power to enact a compulsory Workmen's Compensation Act. This amendment is of vital importance to every employer and employee and should receive the support of every voter to uphold the purpose of Workmen's Compensation. This amendment reads as follows:

"The General Assembly may enact laws requiring by employers and employees jointly, or reasonable compensation for injuries to employees arising in the course of their employment, and for occupational diseases of employees, whether or not such injuries or diseases result in death, and regardless of fault of employer or employee, and fixing the basis of ascertainment of such compensation and the maximum and minimum limits thereof, and providing special or general remedies for the collection thereof; but in no other cases shall the General Assembly limit the amount to be recovered for injuries resulting in death, or from injuries to persons or property, and in case of death from such injuries, the right of action shall survive, and the General Assembly shall prescribe for whose benefit such actions shall be prosecuted. No act shall prescribe any limitations of time within which suits may be brought against corporations, or for other causes, different from those fixed by general laws regulating actions against natural persons, and such acts now existing are avoided."

"The purpose of Workmen's Compensation is to decrease the number of industrial accidents, to secure to the victims of such accidents when they do occur, the speedy payment of a definite part of their wages, so securing to them and their families a reasonable maintenance and a proper education for their children, and to promote good and friendly relations between employers and employees."

"Recognizing the vital importance to the Commonwealth of the lives, safety and economic welfare of its industrial workers, the education of their children and good feeling between Capital and Labor, the Legislature in joint session enacted a Workmen's Compensation Act which becomes operative on the first of January next. The provisions of the act are so fair that there is no likelihood that practically no employees will reject its beneficial provisions. But so long as any considerable number of employees are deprived of the protection which the act was intended to give them, the will of the State expressed by the Legislature is nullified, the public policy of the Commonwealth is disregarded. It is self-evident that the final decision upon the question of the common good should be decided by your vote at election. The State should have the right to require, not merely to suggest, that every person employed in this State should have the protection of its Workmen's Compensation Act."

AMUSEMENTS

ORPHEUM Thursday evening, October 28—May Robson in a farewell revival of "The Revue of Aunt Mary," preceded by a comedy playlet, "John Henry," based on Elizabeth Jordan's character sketches. Friday, matinee and night, October 29—"Uncle Tom's Cabin." Monday evening, November 1—Free Christian Science Lecture.

The most eminent comedienne in the full meaning of the term, now upon the stage, will be seen at the Orpheum Thursday evening. The playlet is none other than May Robson, and the play her greatest success, "The Revue of Aunt Mary," based on Elizabeth Jordan's character sketches. When a play has once been shelved and three or four times started on the rounds of the stock theater, and is then taken out and revived by its first sponsor, it shows lasting qualities way beyond what is usually expected in modern comedy. This is what happened to "The Revue of Aunt Mary," though in truth the popularity of Miss Robson in the role of "Aunt Mary" has all probably contributed most to the unusual success of the revival. It is a clean, wholesome entertainment full of witty lines and highly humorous situations and there are few who leave the theater without feeling for an evening spent with the sweet, generous, impulsive old lady of the play. Miss Robson's well known record for fitting surroundings as to cast and production had full sway in the present revival and something out of the ordinary may be expected.—Advertisement.

"UNCLE TOM'S CABIN" The Earl Burgess "Uncle Tom's Cabin" will appear at the Orpheum, Friday, matinee and night. No play ever written is better known in all parts of the United States to all classes of people than "Uncle Tom's Cabin," not even the plays of immortal Shakespeare. For the play of slavery has been given in every village and hamlet in this broad country, and it has been estimated that it is being played somewhere in this land of ours every day in the year.

Mr. Burgess has given it a handsome and expensive mounting and will play it by a Burgess company, the play being nothing to be desired, either in scenery or in the large company. The negroes are with the company and will be seen in plantation pastimes and festivities. The role of "Uncle Tom" is in the hands of Tom Atkins, the well-known minstrel star.—Advertisement.

MAJESTIC Music, mirth and thrills all have their fling at the new Keith show that went on view at the Majestic yesterday to remain for the first half of the week. Quaint humor is provided by the clever comedy sketch entitled "Solomon's Bargain," as it is presented by Hyman Adler and company. Mr. Adler is a capable character actor of the quaint Hebrew type and the action of his playlet discloses no end of peculiar and laughable business dealings. The action of the piece takes place in a stage setting representing the interior of Solomon's office and the fun takes place between a customer, a clerk and his daughter, Becky. Out of the ordinary also is the work of the Inas Family, comprising five men, four young women, who offer a clever and spirited conglomeration of song, dance and gymnastics. Fern and Mayne, young couple in a comedy skit with songs, is also a fetching contribution to the new offering. McKee and LaPorte and the thrills to the bill with laughable dancing and Tom Mahoney, the popular singing comedian, is back with new songs and new patter. Interesting comedy moving picture features are also included in the performance.—Advertisement.

COLONIAL Much favorable comment is going the rounds over the splendid moving picture feature entitled "The Family Cupboard," now appearing at the Colonial Theater, and which will be seen there for the last time to-day. Mr. Holbrook Blinn is the central figure, and it is doubtful if a more powerful player has Personal distinction in "The Eternal City" with Pauline Frederick. To-morrow and Thursday—Daniel Frohman presents the supreme favorite of the screen, Mary Pickford, in "Rags," on the Paramount program. In "Rags," the great story of a girl's rise from the lowest strata of life to a position of social importance, through which she finds it impossible to marry the man she loves, whom before she thought to far above her, Mary Pickford, for whom the story was especially written by the noted novelist, Edith Barnard Delano, finds a typical effective characterization.—Advertisement.

Pains Often Mean Uric Acid Poison Pay Attention to Pains—Most People Have Rheumatism and Don't Know It. Ouch! Does it hurt to move your arms, legs, bend your back or stretch your muscles? Be careful and take heed in time. Rheumatism is stealing on you and may cripple you if you don't stop uric acid from settling in your veins and muscles. Rheuma, a great specialist's prescription, chases this poison out of the system and gives relief from all forms of Rheumatism. It acts through the seat of the trouble, the kidneys, stops that formation of uric acid, then drives out through the bowels that which is in the blood. Genuine Rheuma (see that you get the trade-marked package) is sold by H. C. Kennedy and all druggists for 50 cents. Money back if not satisfied.—Advertisement.
