

WOMEN AND THEIR INTERESTS

Absentee Wives

By DOROTHY DIX

"Well," said the Bookkeeper, "the good old summer time is here at last. The summer widower has broomed out in all his dazzling beauty on the roof gardens, and that's an unflattering sign that there is going to be a hot time in the old town."

"Yes," assented the Stenographer. "I saw a bunch of 'em last night looking like schoolboys playing hooky and frisking about like two-year-olds. Funny, isn't it, how the loss of his wife always chirks a man up."

"The procession of hump-shouldered, listless, grouchy men going down to the Grand Central to see their wives off for the summer, and the same line of dead-game sports, with their hats set at a wicked angle, who fox-trot away from the station after wife's car pulls out, always makes me think of the beetles and 'after' taking pictures of the patent medicine advertisements, while a six months' real widower always goes about looking as if he had got money from home."

"I don't see where the women who have nothing to do but to keep house butt into this vacation business, any way," objected the Bookkeeper. "Surely, I call it, for the wife, who doesn't need it, to get a hike around to all the glad spots, while the poor husband, who needs a rest, has to stay in town and noit down his job."

"Oh, it's a double-action blessing!" exclaimed the Stenographer. "The wife is traveling for her husband's health."

Machine Gunmen to Be Taken Into Guard

Pittsburgh, Oct. 27.—Colonel James H. Barger, Eighteenth Regiment, National Guard of Pennsylvania, to-day ordered the recruiting of fifty men for a machine gun company, which the War Department at Washington notified him, through Adjutant General Stewart, at Harrisburg, it will equip with guns. It is specified that all recruits, in addition to the regular qualifications, must have had mechanical training. The company will be commanded by Captain Robert Pollock, regimental quartermaster, and will be supplied with one-half the annual ammunition allowance for target practice. It is expected that men for the command will be taken from the different companies of the regiment.

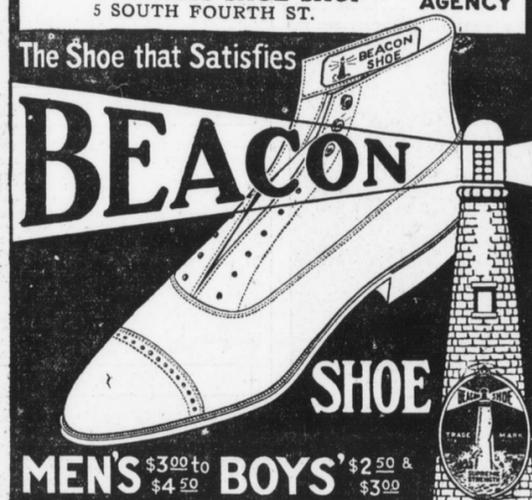

It is expected that machine gun companies will be organized to act with the infantry regiments of the National Guard as a result of the offer of the War Department to furnish equipment to this State. Adjutant General Thomas J. Stewart said to-day that he had written to the colonels commanding each regiment asking whether they could raise the companies to handle the guns, but thus far few had replied, although preliminary steps to recruit had been undertaken in some cities. A demonstration of machine gun work was given at the encampment of the Second Brigade at Indiana last summer and considerable interest stirred among the soldiers. Thus far the machine gun detachments of militia regiments have not been fully organized, but were formed were under direction of commissary department officers as a tentative proposition.

TWO REPORTED KIDNAPED

El Paso, Texas, Oct. 27.—Ernest F. Ayton, a wealthy English mining man, and the priest of the Guadalupe district of Chihuahua were kidnaped on October 19 by an armed force. Representations have been made to the State Department.

THE other day a man said to us, "Great Scott, everybody in Harrisburg must read your Want Ad Page. About a week ago, I had some furniture in the house for which I had no further use and put a Want Ad in the TELEGRAPH to see if I couldn't sell some of it. Well, sir, I could have sold a carload of furniture from that one little Want Ad."

And this man is well known in Harrisburg—his name is withheld on request.

Hundreds of others are taking advantage of these little money-savers. Is your attic or basement overloaded with a lot of useless furniture, an old stove, or perhaps a carpet or two? Turn 'em into cash, the Want Ad way. Just call 4100 and let us help you word your ad. It'll cost but a penny a word. What this other man has done, you can do, with a TELEGRAPH Want Ad.

EARNEST SEES VICTORY AHEAD

Tells Big Hummelstown Meeting Republicans Will Carry That District

Despite one of the worst nights of the campaign large audiences greeted the Republican campaigners in Waltonville, Ruthertford and Hummelstown, where more than 200 voters heard the issues discussed at the Star theater. William H. Earnest, the well-known attorney of the town, who presided, said that he had never known a time when the people of that district were so well satisfied with the Republican ticket and that Hummelstown will give a rousing majority next Tuesday.

CAMPAIGN NOTES

The Republican candidates will be guests of the Harrisburg Republican club at a reception this evening.

Oscar G. Wickersham, county recorder, was a speaker at Shellsville the other evening and urged the election of the Republican ticket as "the best ever nominated by the party in this county."

The limit of newspaper nerve was displayed the other night when a representative of a morning mouthpiece for the Democratic gang went so far as to attempt to dictate to F. B. Snavely over the telephone what he might and might not say about Roy G. Danner. Mr. Snavely replied that he had never misrepresented Mr. Danner and sympathized with him, but if the "sympathy racket" was to be worked in behalf of any candidate he thought that William H. Foster, father of 13 children and whose wife is an invalid, might come in for a little.

To-morrow evening the Republican campaigners will be in Steelton and Oberlin.

Cost Witness Money Every Time He Opened His Mouth, Tells Court

When a Steelton foreigner, a witness subpoenaed by Jacob David Gebhart to testify as to the character of the house maintained by his wife, Pearl Gebhart, the witness flatly declined to talk in October divorce court to-day.

Marital infidelity was the charge preferred against Mrs. Gebhart in the husband's suit for legal separation, but the best efforts of the quizzing attorneys couldn't elicit a single admission of any description from the man in the witness box.

"Didn't you see people of questionable character going into her house?" the witness was asked. "Now tell."

"We tell nozing," flatly retorted the witness. "We tell not a ting. Ev'ry time we open mou't about her, it cost a-me money. New-air again."

The Gebhart case practically finished October term court to-day.

PLANNERS DISCUSS 'CROSS RIVER FARM DEVELOPMENT

The City Planning Commission last evening considered the "cross-river development scheme suggested in connection with the proposed traffic congestion problem. Among the members the planners considered the laying out of the lower Walton farm south of Le Moyne, although the Commission will view the farm before passing finally on the layout.

The Commissioners also approved the William S. Harris tract bounded by Pierce, Twenty-sixth, Derry and Greenwood streets, and the councilmanic measures authorizing the opening and grading of Summit street and the closing of Brown street.

MRS. SARAH J. SMITH

Mrs. Sarah J. Smith, aged 78, widow of the late Wm. Smith, died this morning at her home on 5th and 1st streets. She is survived by four sons, George F., Harry C., John W., Benjamin S. Smith all of this city, and three daughters. She has been a resident of this city for the last sixteen years. Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at her late home the Rev. Henry W. A. Hanson, pastor of Messiah Lutheran church officiating. Burial will be made at East Harrisburg cemetery.

MRS. SAMUEL M. EMRICH DIES

Special to The Telegraph

Swatara Station, Pa., Oct. 27.—Mrs. Amanda S. Emrich, wife of Samuel M. Emrich, a well-known carpenter and contractor, died at her home here this morning at 6 o'clock, after an illness of only two days from a paralytic stroke. Funeral services will be held on Friday morning at 9 o'clock at the house, with burial at Fishburn's Church at 10 o'clock.

DON'T SUFFER—LAUGH AT STOMACH MISERY

Your Own Druggist Will Return Your Money If Mi-o-na Does Not Relieve Dyspepsia

Among all the hundreds of remedies in every well stocked drug store, there are few that the druggist is able to sell on a guarantee to refund the money if they do not cure.

Mi-o-na, the famous dyspepsia remedy, however, has helped so many stomach sufferers that every druggist who sells it is able to say, "If this remedy does not relieve you, come back to the store and I will cheerfully return your money."

Anyone who has dyspepsia, indigestion, headache, dizzy feelings, or liver troubles, should take advantage of this chance to be made well without any risk of spending their money to no purpose. Mi-o-na will relieve you, will regulate the digestion, will enable you to eat what you want. If it does not do all this it will not cost you a cent.

Many druggists who have sold hundreds of boxes of Mi-o-na have yet to receive the first complaint from any customer. Such a record is simply marvellous and speaks volumes for the merit of the remedy.

It is easy enough to fill a column with the symptoms of those who have dyspepsia, but there is no need of describing their condition. What they want is relief, and they can almost certainly get it in Mi-o-na. Do not suffer a day longer with disordered digestion. If Mi-o-na relieves you, it costs you 50 cents a box, if it does not, the druggist will return your money. Sold by H. K. Kennedy and other leading dealers.—Advertisement.

ORPHEUM

To-morrow night—May Robson in "The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary," preceded by "John Henry."

Friday, matinee and night, October 29—"Uncle Tom's Cabin."

Monday evening, November 1—Free Christmas lecture.

Wednesday, matinee and night, November 3—"The Newlyweds and Their Baby."

MAY ROBSON

A wholesome comedy, played wholesomely, good-naturedly and well, is "The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary," to be presented by America's funniest comedienne, May Robson, and her splendid company at the Orpheum to-morrow evening. In addition to "Aunt Mary" Miss Robson will present a comedy playlet, "John Henry," based on Elizabeth Jordan's character sketches. The play isn't new and many local theatergoers have seen it before, but it is one of the modern plays that bear seeing a second time, or a third, as often as one has the opportunity and feels the need of a good laugh, and just a bit of a lesson to teach tolerance of others' views and acts.

Aunt Mary's antics, Miss Robson is a delightful spinster who is persuaded to tear herself away from her farm and her cats to visit New York and she is precipitated into the gay metropolitan life, which fascinates her to the extent that she would introduce roof gardens, cabarets and other night features of the Gay White Way into her New England home.—Adv.

"UNCLE TOM'S CABIN"

Earl Burgess will present that everlasting success, "Uncle Tom's Cabin," at the Orpheum for two performances on Friday afternoon and evening. For a play holding the stage over fifty years, within which period not a single season has elapsed during which it has been absent from the theater, "Uncle Tom's Cabin" still exhibits wonderful vitality. Thousands still laugh and weep over its various incidents nightly. Mr. Burgess promises a beautiful scenic production and a street parade will be given at 3:30. The seat sale opened this morning.—Adv.

CARTOON MUSICAL COMEDY COMING TO ORPHEUM

The big musical comedy, "The Newlyweds and Their Baby," built around George McManus' well-known cartoons of the same name, will be the attraction at the Orpheum next Wednesday, matinee and night, and promises, from the interest already displayed in the engagement, to be one of the largest attended events of the theatrical year.—Adv.

MAJESTIC VAUDEVILLE

To-day confronts local vaudeville devotees with their last opportunity to see the best of the famous and popular vaudeville bill that is being exhibited at the Majestic for the first half of the week. The program includes the quaint Hebrew comedy sketch called "Solomon's Bargain," featuring Hyman Adler and company; also the "Tany Family of Spanish dancers, musicians and gymnasts, and Fern and Mayne, young couple. A clever arrangement of good comedy songs, numerous less in importance are McRae and LaPorte, comedy thrillers, and Tom Mahoney, the popular Irish singer.

In closing with the popular "The general Hallowe'en spirit" exhibiting the last half of the week, the management has succeeded in procuring Ben Rolfe's delightful musical playlet called "Ye Olde Time Hallowe'en" the leading act of the festive program. This act was presented as a special feature of the season and two ago and scored a sold house. Here are reasons to believe that Majestic patrons will take to it just as favorably.—Adv.

AT THE COLONIAL

Nothing that quite equals the novelty and lavish expensiveness of many of the scenes in "The Soul of Broadway," the latest success, starring Valeska Suratt, has been displayed through the medium of the motion-picture camera since the making of the first crude "flickers." This is an immense set, containing the earliest local showing at the Colonial Theater to-day and to-morrow, calls in daring and novelty in the very spirit of these days. The scene is set in the making of these scenes, had been arranged and the furniture and draperies correspond in their general key of Futuristic art. For instance, the scene showing the boudoir of La Valencia (Miss Suratt), where she receives her infatuated millionaire admirer, is a revelation in the modern use of black and white in decoration. This is an immense set, containing hundreds of pieces of furniture and properties, yet everything harmonizes, which is not surprising when it is considered that everything in the room was especially designed and constructed with this end in view. This immense expense attaching to the play, is not to be imagined; but Herbert Brennon, the director, had been given carte blanche by Mr. Fox to make "The Soul of Broadway" the most lavishly staged picture ever screened, and those who see it will admit that Mr. Brennon has done so. During the run of the picture Miss Suratt will don 150 gowns, of extreme and lavish design, the wardrobe representing a layout of $100,000.—Adv.

MARY PICKFORD IN "RAGS" SHOWING AT THE REGENT

Daniel Frohman presents Mary Pickford in overpowering and typical characterization, as "Rags" at the Regent to-day and to-morrow.

This five-part production of the Paramount program is a delightful combination of comedy and drama, both of which elements of the story are thoroughly human. After the perfect acting of Mary Pickford, the story deserves the greatest praise.

"Rags" is the daughter of a drunk-

BEN ROLFE TO PRESENT "YE OLDE TYME HALLOWE'EN" AS THE CROWNING FEATURE OF THE MAJESTIC'S CELEBRATIONS DURING LAST HALF OF WEEK

Hallowe'en festivities in Harrisburg will reach their height at the Majestic Theater, where, during the last half of the week a general observance of the occasion will hold sway. The theater itself looks beautiful decked out in its festive dress of pumpkins, corn stalks, lanterns, etc., arranged in artistic fashion.

To further augment these party days, management was successful in securing Ben Rolfe's delightful musical playlet called "Ye Olde Tyme Hallowe'en" which is a stage presentation of the occasion as it was observed by the better class in the days when grandmother was a girl. Pretty girls, clever players, and superb musicians and singers present this delightful playlet in telling fashion.—Adv.

Perry County Farmer Killed Under Automobile

New Bloomfield, Pa., Oct. 27.—Yesterday morning Levi Markel, of Elliottsburg, while at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Frank Long, in Center township, was caught under his automobile and killed. He had the car jacked up and one wheel off and while under the car it slipped off the jack and he was caught by one of the stay rods. His son-in-law, Frank Long, discovered him when he came in from the cornfield at noon and the body was taken to his late home at Elliottsburg, where he resided with his other daughter, Mrs. Lila Kell. Funeral services will be held on Saturday afternoon, at 1:30 o'clock, with burial in New Bloomfield Cemetery.

AUTOIST SENT TO JAIL FOR YEAR

Special to The Telegraph

York, Pa., Oct. 27.—Harry Landes was sentenced by Judge Wanner to-day to a year in the county jail and ordered to pay $200 for running down with an automobile and killing Bruce Ansbarger, 14 years old, on the Chancetown turnpike last summer. He was indicted for voluntary manslaughter, but was permitted to plead guilty to involuntary manslaughter.
