NEWS OF THE RAILROADS RAPID PROGRESS ON RIVER BRIDGE

Only When Wintry Blasts Interfere Will Present Activity Cease; Near East Shore

Only when wintry blasts interfere ley Railroad bridge stop. This is the announcement made by the Robert Grayce Construction Company, in harge of the concrete construction. On the west side of the island the concrete piers and arches are nearly completed. East of the island the workmen have reached the third pier from the Harrisburg shore with the trestle work and temporary arches. Three weeks more, with favorable weather, and the men working on the concrete foundations will have reached Front street. The filling in will follow. The contractors are much pleased with the progress on the lower half of the bridge.

Fewer Idle Shop Cars on Pennsylvania System

All of the equipment of the Penn ivania Railroad system is gradual sing placed in service. The total shours idle on October 23, this being the cars idle on October 23, this being the only class of equipment that is idle, totaled 19,721 cars, the lowest figure this year. This compares with 22,848 on October 16, showing a reduction at the rate of 521 cars on each of the intervening working days.

On September 17, 1914, the total idle cars on the Pennsylvania system was 47,854, as against the present figure of 19,721. Of the shop cars 9,188 are on the lines east and 10,533 on the lines west.

More men tried to attend the recep tion of the Harrisburg Club to party's candidates last evening than the big three-story clubhouse in North Second street could hold. It was the the big three-story clubhouse in North Second street could hold. It was the largest and most enthusiastic gathering in the history of the club. More than 500 were in attendance.

President E. M. Housholder introduced former Representative Daniel L. Kiester, a former president, who acted as chairman.

All of the candidates made addresses, but there were a number of high points, the keynotes being struck by Henry W. Gough, candidate for controller; Michael E. Stroup, for district attorney; Charles E. Pass and Senator Beidleman.

"I have been from one end of this county to the other," said Mr. Gough, "and I come here to-night to tell you that, although I have been through many campaigns, I have never known a time when the Republican party was so well reunited, the candidates so well received or the party workers so confident of victory as right now. As for the candidates, I have traveled with them for weeks and I have known them for years. They are good men, clean men and will give you good service if elected." Mr. Gough, whose splendid record as city controller is well known and who has made the new office of county controller to which he seeks election, pay its own way by savings and investments made at his recommendation,

Stroup Comes Back Strong

Michael E. Stroup riddled the arguments of his opponent, Paul A. Kunkel, who has been telling the voters that through failure to count "double crossed ballots" four years ago he was counted out as district attorney.

Mr. Stroup refuted the arguments at every turn, going into the subject at length. "The recount was made in the presence of Kunkel or his attorneys," he said, "and after it was over and I was declared elected Kunkel is quoted by two newspapers as saying he was satisfied. Now, four years after he comes before you with the declaration that he was really elected. He and his attorneys, the court and all familiar with the recount know that he was not elected."

Mr. Stroup said that if he is reelected he will pursue the same vigorous policy in the future as he has in the past.

Pass Is Confident

Charles E. Pass, who has been making a series of vigorous speeches for the Republican ticket in all parts of the county, voiced the sentiments expressed by Mr. Gough and said that never before has the party been so solidly behind any set of candidates in this county as at present and he predicted a bigger majority this year than last.

in this county as at present and he predicted a bigger majority this year than last.

Senator Beidleman brought the speaking to a close, after which lunch was served. Senator Beidleman said that the election of the Republicans and ticket this year is all a matter of Republicans voting for Republicans. "If Republicans stand together not a single Democrat will be elected this year," he sold. The Senator said his remarks applied as well to the nonpartisan ticket. The candidates are Republicans and Democrat, he said, and all talk of true nonpartisanism in this election he pronouncer ridiculous.

Meals and the Police
Mayor-elect Meals in the course of a brief address, made those present sit up and take notice when he said:
"Mayor Reval and his police department have left a series of mysterious shooting affrays, hold-ups, murders and other crimes which they apparently do not mean to clear up. It begins to look very much as though I will have to take those matters up and sift them when I take office, and I assure you I will do so as I did in the past."

Other speakers were:
Candidate for county treasurer, Mark Mumma; for county treasurer, showing that an additional loan would be a burden on the taxpayers.

Candidate for county treasurer, apparatus was in service and to the sioners. H. M. Stine and C. C. Cumbler; for recorder, James Lentz; register of wills, William Houser; for sheriff, W. W. Caldwell; for directors of the poot. Fernando Loudermild and F. E. Snavely; W. H. Lynch, H. Bowman, M. H. Taylor and Chaptes Steiner, for council; A. D. Peace, for city controller; A. C. Stamm, Dr. C. E. L. Keene and E. L. Enders, for school directors, and Frank Wickersham.

Give the boy a chance

A man's food must contain the elements that repair the daily waste of brain, tissue and muscular energy. A boy's food must supply the elements that not only repair waste, but build new brain, muscle and bone. The food that meets both requirements is a man's food and a boy's food, rich in the proteids that repair waste tissue, that perfectly nourish a growing youngster.

Don't blame the boy for mental backwardness. Feed him right. Shredded Wheat contains all the body-building material in the whole wheat grain made digestible by steam-cooking, shredding and baking. Eat it for breakfast with milk or cream. Eat it for lunch with sliced bananas and cream. Eat it for supper with lucious ripe berries or other fresh fruits.
