TWO CONTESTANTS IN D. A. R. ESSAY CONTEST

MARJORIE HAUSE

JEANETTE CLASTER

The annual D. A. R. essay contest for the Senior girls of Central High School was concluded late this afternoon when Marjorie Hause, Jeanette Claster and Ethel Fisher delivered orations on "Old Harrisburg." These girls were selected from a group of more than a score at the preliminary contest several weeks ago and have been awarded prizes.

The program this afternoon follows: March, High School orchestra; prayer, the Rev. L. S. Mudge, pastor of Pine Street Presbyterian; reading of third prize winning essay by Miss Ethel Fisher; chorus by school choir; second prize winning essay by Miss Jeanette Claster; selection by the orchestra; reading of first prize winning essay by Miss Marjorie Hause; music by Senior Girls' Glee Club; presentation of prizes by Miss Helen Bruce Wallace; hymn; benediction and march by orchestra.

BUSINESS GIRLS CAST CARE ASIDE

Enjoy Themselves at Y. W. C. A. Masquerade Forty Join Class

A delightful masquerade party was given in the Y. W. C. A. building last evening by the Business Girls' Gymnasium Class, all of whom are members of the Y. W. C. A. The committee in charge of arrangements had the hall tastefully and effectively decorated with hollyhocks, pumpkin lanterns, witches and cat-o'-the-hat.

The fun was started with the initiation of the forty new members of the class, who were dressed in pretty green Yama Yama suits. A delightful program followed, featuring Miss Pollack in a Spanish dance, Misses Edwards and Mudge in a duet in con dialect, and closing with the singing of the class songs, with Miss Ella Yost accompanying on the piano. Refreshments consisting of ginger cookies and cider were served and prizes were given to the new girls in fun making contests.

Among the many fine costumes, the following were conspicuous for their cleverness: Miss Marjorie Bolles, Physical Instructor, as a merry widow; Misses Kit Morgan and Margaret Turner as monkey and accordion player; Miss Elizabeth Killinger in a black and white clown suit; Miss Margaret Pollack as a Spanish dancer; Miss Pearl Yohn as an Indian maid; Miss Marjorie Wahl as the Queen of Hearts; Miss Maud as a night; Miss Clara Wolf as a colonial dame; Miss Esther Smith as a Minstrel Man; Miss Mabel Edwards as a black face tramp; Miss Mabel Thorn as a Turkish girl; Miss Bertha Turner as President; Lord Fauntleroy; Miss Anna Breneman as a demure country Miss; Miss Ella Yost as an artist and Miss Bertha Motter as an Indian girl.

William Riddle of the State Health department left this morning for South America. He will be gone several months.

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Bingham, of Chesapeake Farms, along the eastern shore of Maryland, stopped off here with friends for several days on their way home from Chicago, Regina street, is at the Polyclinic Hospital suffering from appendicitis.

The members of the P. O. of A. lodge will hold a masquerade party Monday evening. The members will meet at the home of Mrs. Mary Ross, 2016 North Seventh street, to be taken by auto trucks to New Kingston, where they will hold the masquerade party. Tuesday they will enjoy an outing at the farm of Mrs. Ross' mother, returning to Harrisburg Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Annie Davis, of 2122 North Seventh street, has left for Mapleton, Pa., where she will visit at the home of her son, Harry Davis.

Mrs. A. J. Jones and children have returned to their home, 1522 Perry street, after visiting Mrs. Jones' parents at Jackson, Pa.

Mrs. Carrie Machamer and Mrs. Mary Bryson, of Harrisburg, have returned home after a brief visit to Philadelphia.

The Silver Star Council, Daughters of Liberty, entertained their members with a unique masquerade picnic social, in Kennard's Hall, Third and Broad streets, last evening. Refreshments were served to ninety-seven of their members, who were masked in all sorts of quaint costumes.

Mrs. E. T. Steel, of Mechanicsburg, has returned from Washington, where she spent some time at the Paul Institute.

Mrs. Raymond Cook and daughter Martha, of 1410 Thompson street, are visiting relatives at Enola and Halifax.

Mrs. A. P. Antrim and daughter, Miss Margaret, and son, Bob, of Parkersburg, have returned home after visiting relatives in Harrisburg.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the Market Square Presbyterian Church has planned a masquerade social, to be held this evening. The social committee promises that it will be a jolly Halloween event for those members who attend and of course it is hoped that all the members will come and have a part in the fun. The masqueraders will leave the church promptly at 7 o'clock and will be conducted by the "ghosts of the past" to a "weird and spooky" place of merry-making.

Mrs. Mary Burns, of Dillsburg, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Grace Watson, 418 Herr street.

MUST HAVE IT UP THEIR SLEEVE

Members of Committee Refuse to Divulge Particulars of C. E. Society Party

Members of the Christian Endeavor of Pine Street Presbyterian church are completely up in the air about a "stunt" which will take place to-night, according to rumors.

Last Sunday evening they were given instructions to prepare for a Halloween party this evening, to be held somewhere. But no more would the committee tell.

The instructions were brief, indeed. "Report at the Market street bridge at five minutes of seven." Surprises of all sorts including the usual ghostly scares have probably been arranged for the crowd, but the committee members only smile when they are asked for particulars. At least fifty members and friends of the society are expected to be present.

REV. C. E. BOUGHTER IS TENDERED RECEPTION

The Rev. C. E. Boughter, for five years pastor of Neldig Memorial at Oberlin, who was appointed to the First United Brethren Church, was given a reception last night in the social rooms of the church.

Upwards of 200 of the members of the congregation were present. C. R. Engle, 2156 Penn street, was master of ceremonies. Speakers were Henry Burn, 313 South Front street, for the congregation; Alonza Lehman, 218 Green street, for the Sunday school; Mrs. Lizzie Quigley, for the Ladies' Aid Society, and Mrs. Dewitt A. Fry for the Woman's Missionary Association. The pastor responded. Mrs. Boughter was presented with a large bouquet, after which every member present was introduced to the pastor and wife and daughter, Miss Dorothy. Ice cream, cake and coffee was served.

J. H. Frantz and family, 1701 North Third street, have returned to this city for the winter, after spending several months at their cottage near Dauphin.

Mrs. William Hackman, of Elkhart, Ind., is visiting Mrs. Elizabeth Lose, 806 Green street.

The Misses Frances and Emily Bailey are home after a visit with Miss Sarah Hastings at Bellefonte.
