

Parents Should Know This Splendid Remedy

Simple Laxative Compound Helps to Correct Constipation in Children.

With all children there are times when the bowels fail to act naturally and it becomes necessary for the parents to administer a remedy. Cathartics and purgatives should never be used as these agents afford only temporary relief while their violent action shocks the system unduly. Mrs. Eva F. Gaff, 517 10th St., Washington, D. C., says that her little girl, Marie, had been subject to constipation, and that she found Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin the best remedy because of its mildness, and now always keeps a bottle of it in the house.

VARIED COSTUMES WORN AT PARTY

Bible Class Makes Merry at Masquerade Halloween Celebration

The Mrs. A. L. Groff Bible Class of the Olivet Presbyterian Sunday School held a Halloween party at the home of the Misses Huber, 224 Hummel street, last night which was attended by fifty-six people. The costumes were varied and many of a costly nature. There were Indian chiefs and their squaws, officers and enlisted men of the army, fire laddies, clowns, Yama-Yamas, gypsies, darky men and women, nurses, Spanish madis, Puritan maids, Colonial maids, 1860 girls, a Sunbomber Sue, Dutch girls, goddess, old ladies, young ladies, up-to-date, out-of-date, any date, in fact almost anything that the most vivid imagination could imagine. The refreshments were very appropriate to the season. The house had been lavishly decorated from the attic to the cellar. Pumpkins, black cats, cornstalks, large wicker baskets filled with autumn foliage and decorated beautifully with yellow ribbons and perky bows on their tall handles, skulls holding lighted candles and ghosts. About a dozen prizes were awarded to the following: Mrs. Armstrong, for the most beautiful costume; Mrs. Goodheart, for the funniest costume. In the contests were Mrs. Bowman, Miss Shoemaker, Miss Heagy, Miss Beck and others.

COUGHED CONTINUALLY
Day and Night—Man Says Nothing Helped But Vinol.

That statement does not surprise us. We have told the people of Harrisburg many times during the last ten years that Vinol is the greatest remedy for chronic coughs and colds that we ever sold. Mr. Dunning says:—

"I took a heavy cold which settled into a chronic cough and bronchitis, which removed the cause and stops the cough, and the recovery of Mr. Dunning was due to the healing medicinal extractives of fresh cods' livers without oil, aided by the strengthening revitalizing effect of tonic iron and beef peptone which are contained in Vinol.

Are They Good Enough for You?

These are anxious days.

The world is shaken with wars and rumors of wars.

Peace treaties are failing those who depended entirely upon them for protection.

International law is not the absolute guarantee of safety it was supposed to be.

A single year of world history has shown that armed ambition respects nothing except a show of force equal to or greater than its own.

If the United States is going forward to the great destiny its fathers saw in their vision it must gird its loins and keep its powder dry.

In the readjustment of the balance of world power there will be no place for the weakling, even though he pleads peaceable intent and righteousness of cause.

The day of the stalwart is at hand, and it remains for you, Mr. Citizen, to say whether Uncle Sam shall stand before the conqueror, a helpless old squire whose pockets bulge invitingly with wealth, or whether he shall be buckled in his armor for protection against aggression.

Whatever your ideas of national defense may be, you ought to read the two great patriotic books, "The American Government" and "The Panama Canal," by Frederic J. Haskin.

They will show you how big and important your country really is, and will make you more anxious for its security than you have ever been before.
