SCHOOL CHILDREN PRESENT PROGRAM

Annual Hallowe'en Entertainment Held in Paxtang School Last Evening

Paxtang, Pa., Oct. 30.—Children of the Paxtang schools last evening entertained patrons and friends at the annual Hallowe'en frolic in the school building. All day yesterday the youngsters, whose ages range from six to thirteen years, were busy decorating the school rooms and the exterior of the building and the place never presented a prettier appearance. Spooky-looking Jack o' lanterns were everywhere and corners were piled high with stalks of corn. On the walls, too, were funny little ghosts and things in keeping with the Hallowe'en season. Many of the young students were dressed in fantastic costumes and they passed among the visitors telling fortunes. Paper folders cut out in the shape of ears of corn were presented to each visitor and when opened the fortune would be revealed. The little "stars" offered the crowd much amusement.

The program arranged by the teachers, Miss Hattie Weidenhammer and Miss Eva Kunkle, was presented by the children and was one of the most enjoyable affairs of the season. The program, as carried out follows:

Hunting songs, schools; Hallowe'en, Haines Davis; Little Homes, Freda Clausen; Two Jacks, Frederick Holmes; organ selection, Mary Esther Deihl; Chalk talks, Robert Myers; Things to See, Louise Clausen; Jack Maloney; Daniel Ricker, Thomas Atticks; Charles Atticks; Martha Rutherford; Jens Clausen; October, Thomas Conrad; Song, A Freckled Frog, Norman Sheesley; Howard Birchall, McClain King; Allison Mayhew, William Sourber; Toshi Ashidate, John Shell; Frederick Holmes; A Full Dinner Pail, Michael Mattes; Hallowe'en Failure, Clyde Garman; One Night, schools; play, Hallowe'en Drama. At the conclusion of the program short addresses were made by the Rev. F. Y. Weidenhammer, Josh E. Rutherford and Ralph I. Deihl.

PARTY FOR COMPANIONS

Luther Mentor Landis, 1620 Green street entertained many of his friends at a Hallowe'en party last evening.
