

LEBANON TRIES TO KEEP ROTE OFF ELEVEN---MUCH INTEREST IN COMING GAMES

GETTYSBURG WILL MEET BUCKNELL

Rivals to Fight It Out at Island Park, Saturday, November 13

Gettysburg, Pa., Nov. 2.—The Gettysburg College football team has now arrived at that part of its schedule when it meets some of its greatest rivals. Coach O'Brien and his assistants will devote all their efforts from now on to perfect the "Battlefield" machine for the game with Bucknell University which will be played on the Island Park grounds, Harrisburg, Saturday, November 13. Then there will be brought together two great rivals who have been contending for several years with the advantage in favor of Bucknell.

But this year the Gettysburg collegians, because of their remarkable showing, give promise that the Bucknell warriors will have to go their limit if they hope to retain their perfect record. Coach O'Brien's protégés by a score of 13 to 0, compelled Cornell to use its full strength in defeating them. Football critics were again surprised when several weeks later, Penn State was given quite a scare. In this game the veteran aggregation of Coach Harlow was held to the score of 27 to 12, the team being the same which defeated Penn but a few weeks before.

It is the determination of both the coaches and the players to avenge the defeats at the hands of Bucknell during the past years. From now on it will be "On to Harrisburg and Bucknell" which means that all plans are being laid with this game in view and that the team will be given a rigorous training. Even though Johns Hopkins will be met at Baltimore next Saturday, still all the preparations during the coming week will be made to perfect the details for the Bucknell game. Furthermore, the shortness of the time within which the team must be put in best form demands that the squad be driven hard.

On the "Soldiers" team, there are several veterans, who are still the main stand-bys, and upon whom Coach O'Brien places his chances of success. At the quarterback position is "Topsy" Hoar, the former Academy star; at tackle is last year's captain, "Bearcat" Scheffer, who was formerly a Technical High player; Captain McCollough is again at center and is playing his usual brilliant game, while "Emanuel" is holding down one of the end positions in a manner which is most gratifying to the coaches.

Indianapolis Boy Wins Hard Fight

JACK DILLON

Special to The Telegraph New York, Nov. 2.—Although Jack Dillon, of Indianapolis, was out-weighted fourteen pounds, he defeated Charley Weinert, of Newark, N. J., in a ten-round boxing contest here last night. With his longer reach and height, Weinert was able to stand off Dillon during the first three rounds. After that Dillon got inside Weinert's guard and administered severe punishment with straight rights and right crosses to the head and body, especially during the eighth, ninth and tenth rounds. Dillon weighed 171 pounds and Weinert 185. In a previous contest Dillon knocked out Weinert.

Trinity Refuses Request to Withdraw Brickley; New York Cancels Game

New York, Nov. 2.—New York University last night cancelled its football game scheduled with Trinity for today because the faculty committee of the former school held that George Brickley, a Trinity player, was a professional. Brickley, who is a brother of the famous Harvard punter, Charles Brickley, once tried out with the Philadelphia Athletics, and thus, the New York University Faculty Committee held, he lost his amateur standing. Trinity authorities admitted frankly when the eligibility of Brickley rose that he had tried out with the Athletics but maintained that he was a student in good standing and therefore eligible. If New York University did not care to play against him, the authorities added, it was at liberty to cancel the game. The Bucknell College team will play New York University today.

GERMANY SEEKS AID FOR 20,000,000 POLES Washington, Nov. 2.—Germany has asked the American Commission for Relief in Belgium to undertake in Poland relief measures similar to those taken in Belgium. Officials of the State Department have been informed that the commission has been told that 20,000,000 people in that part of Poland occupied by German troops, are destitute and in dire need. To adequately care for them would mean, it was said, an expenditure of approximately $20,000,000 a month. Substantial negotiations are said to be proceeding, despite great difficulties.

GOTHIC THE NEW ARROW 2 for 25c COLLAR IT FITS THE CRavat

Western Penna. Waits For Game Between Pitt and W. & J. Saturday Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 2.—All Western Pennsylvania is agog over the football game here Saturday between University of Pittsburgh and Washington & Jefferson College and the largest crowd that ever witnessed a game in the State is looked for. It will be played at Forbes field, the home of the Pittsburgh National League baseball club, which has a capacity of about 20,000 and the management of the local team is making arrangements to place the crowd in every available nook and corner of the park. Last year 25,000 saw the annual game and the interest seems to be even greater this year. The game will start at 2:30 p. m. It would seem impossible to have more ideal conditions for the annual battle between the two rivals. Both will enter the game undefeated and with wonderful records for the year. The winner will be able to claim honors among the first three teams of the East and might even go further and claim top notch honors. Pitt has won from University of Pennsylvania the Annapolis Middles and Carlisle Indians while W. & J. has won from Yale by a decisive score and from Lafayette college.

POE WAS MEMBER OF BLACK WATCH

Letter From Dead Football Star Tells of Army Life in Northern France

A recent issue of the Princeton Alumni Weekly publishes an interesting letter from John Prentiss Poe, Jr., '95, the once noted football player, whose death in the fighting in France on September 22 was reported from Paris. Poe was a private in the famous Black Watch regiment with the British army in northern France, which was practically annihilated in the recent allied drive against the Germans. His commencement reunion last June the members of his class gave him a "postal shower." At the suggestion of Andrew C. Imbrie, the class secretary, all the members sent Princeton picture postcards to Poe with an individual message from each sender. The class secretary received a reply from Poe, sent from "Northern France," which follows: "I want to write thanking you in the name of the class for the postals the fellows sent me. "So far about 130 have arrived, and as I read the sincere wishes of the fellows many an incident unrecalled for years at least comes back at seeing the well remembered names. "I have transferred from the heavy artillery to the infantry—the famous Black Watch—than whom there is none such, who over one hundred and fifty years have showed the British flag in many quarters of the globe and kept it there, until now, as Kipling said: Never a sea so distant, never an isle so lone But over the sand and the palm trees the British flag has flown. "I am beginning to feel more at home in a kilt; and while they are cool, the legs get dirty for quite a way above the knee. "You all must have had a great reunion, and I often thought of you, during the four days in June, and wished I could drop in on some of you. "Am glad Net was there to tell the fellows where I was. I should have dearly liked to have seen the enlarged kodaks taken years ago. "There is no use in my telling you about the war, as you doubtless know much more than I do, and besides, our letters are censored. "Of course, we are going to win; but the "Limburgers" are putting up a great fight. What business have the "square heads" to start on the downward course the empire which weathered the Spanish Armada, the Dutch under De Witt, and the French under the "Grand Monarch" and Napoleon? "Aren't you sorry I am such a shark on history? "The Black Watch carried a German trench on May 9 after several regiments had tried and failed. It was taken with the piper playing the "Highland Laddie." "The heavy artillery does most of its firing from five to eight or nine thousand yards and one never sees the enemy. "There is no use in writing why I transferred or I would only be misunderstood—or else suspected of "bumming my chat" (praising myself). "I hope you will thank all the fellows you see who took the trouble to write (and it was truly a good one). I had no right to expect them to do so. I trust that I shall be on hand at the next roundup to tell you "how the play came up," or in other words how me and K. and K. made the "sautekraut" hash that had never been invented. "And now, in the stately language of the rancher and miner, "looks toward you all, and also bows. I hope I caught your eye. "As ever, while water runs and grass grows. J. E. POE. "Thus speaking, and illustrating the hardships in France, Private Poe took a long breath. "My address is A Company, third platoon, First Black Watch, British Expeditionary Force, care of War Office, London, England."

STUDENTS CHEER CENTRAL ELEVEN Celebrate Lebanon Victory During Chapel Period; Hard Work For Wilkes-Barre Elated over the victory of the Blue and Gray at Lebanon on Saturday, the students of Central held a celebration in the chapel to-day. Each member of the team was cheered and the school songs of victory were sung lustily. Professor Howard G. Dibble complimented the team and the spirit of the school, but warned the team not to become overconfident, as the hardest games are yet to come, and that nothing would beat a team as easily as overconfidence. Somewhat stiff and sore from Saturday's game with Lebanon, the Central High football squad reported for practice yesterday afternoon to Coaches Smith and Harris. Owing to the poor line work on the part of the Blue and Gray team, Monday was not held as a rest day as usual, but the men were put hard at work. It is rumored that some changes will be made in the line-up before Saturday's game on the Island when Central meets Wilkes-Barre. An Important Contest This will be one of the most important games of the season. The Blue and Gray are anxious to avenge their defeat suffered last year at the hands of the up-Staters, and with this end in view extra long practice will be held. Mass meetings are being held daily in the chapel and the student body is drilled in the new songs and yells. All are jubilant over the victory last Saturday at Lebanon. A large turnout is expected for the Wilkes-Barre game. Plans are under way to provide for the transportation of many of Central's loyal supporters when the team goes to Reading on November 13. Already many have expressed their intention of accompanying the team to the "Pretzel" town and special rates will be arranged.

SCHOOLGIRL KIDNAPED

Stranger Gets Child Away by Saying Her Mother is Ill Lancaster, Pa., Nov. 2.—Nine-year-old Viola Fager, of Eden, was kidnaped yesterday at school. During the morning session a stranger appeared at the schoolhouse and informed the teacher, Oscar Funk, that the girl's mother, Mrs. Ralph Garver, was ill and he had been sent for Viola. The teacher excused the girl and she left with the stranger and that was the last seen of them.

CRESCENTS WANT GAMES

The Crescent Juniors football team would like to arrange a game with a team averaging 100 pounds for Thanksgiving day, either at home or away. Elsworth Ditzel, 214 Crescent street, is manager. The Crescents will play the New Cumberland Juniors November 20.

LYKENS ELEVEN WINS CLOSE GAME

Scores One Touchdown in Game With Tower City; Victors Have Good Record

Special to The Telegraph Lykens, Pa., Nov. 2.—Although greatly outweighed, the Lykens High School football team yesterday defeated the Tower City team in a hard-fought game by a score of 6 to 0. The game was made very interesting by the brilliant plays of Reese and Hoffman, of Lykens, and N. Wagner, of Tower City. There were many successful forward passes by Lykens. The Lykens team has played four games and won them all. They have only had seven points against them and scored seventy-seven on their opponents. Lykens plays Pottsville High to-day and Minersville on Saturday. The line-up and summary: Tower City: H. Hoff, c. Travis, c. Joe Hoff, r. g. Schamper, r. g. George Cooper, l. g. Holden, l. g. W. Fennell, r. t. Rhoades, r. t. J. Rettinger, l. t. Miller, l. t. L. Cooper, r. e. R. Wagner, r. e. W. Hoffman, l. e. Bowman, l. e. Jim Hoff, l. h. b. Uhler, r. h. b. F. Barrett, l. h. b. Griffith, l. h. b. J. Hosier, l. b. Bailly, l. b. Touchdown, Reese. Time, 3, 10, 16 8 minute quarters. Br'er Rabbit Has Some Day on the Opening An eventful day it was yesterday for Br'er Rabbit and his family in this State. From early morning, when the mid hung heavy in the valleys and the scent of the fleeing quarry was easily trailed, until late in the afternoon, when the nimrods gave up the chase on account of fatigue, the fleet-footed cottontails were chased over hill and dale, the quarry for countless eager dogs and the target for innumerable guns. Nowhere was there any safety for the timid hare and when the day was done the rabbit family in Pennsylvania had suffered more losses than the Belgian army. From the standpoint of the hunter the day was far from ideal. It was warm and dry and the rabbits were not at their best. A week or so of frosty weather is needed to "ripen" them, as it were. But it was a glorious time to tramp the hills and fields of the countryside. It was an ideal Fall day and those who were unfortunate enough not to get their limit—10 in a day—of rabbits had the pleasure of a day in the great out-doors when it is at its best.

"Speedy" Rush, the Princeton coach, has a couple of plays on tap which he will use against Harvard on November 6, and these same plays are built around Eddie Shea, the speediest halfback seen on the Tiger field in several years. Shea has astonished even the coaches by his wonderful running in practice. He is particularly fast in starting, carries the ball well, and is the best dodger that Princeton has.

HOFFMAN GETS VERDICT AGAINST CHICAGO CUBS

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 2.—A verdict of $2,924 obtained by Arthur Hoffman against the Chicago National League Club was confirmed in the appellate court. Hoffman was with the Cubs under contract of February 23, 1911, which provided for a salary of $5,000 a year. On May 29, 1912, he was notified by a telegram he had been transferred to Pittsburgh and that the Pittsburgh club would be responsible for the salary. The evidence showed that during the remainder of the season Hoffman received $697 from the Pittsburgh club and that he did not enter into any contract with it, relying on the agreement with the Chicago club.
