How To Make the Quickest, Simplest Cough Remedy

Much Better than the Ready-Made Kind and You Save $2. Fully Guaranteed

This home-made cough syrup is now used in more homes than any other cough remedy. Its promptness, ease and certainty in conquering distressing coughs, chest and throat colds, is really remarkable. You can actually feel it take hold. A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough—relieves even whooping cough quickly. Splendid, too, for bronchitis, spasmodic croup, bronchial asthma and winter coughs.

Get from any druggist 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth), pour it in a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. This gives you—at a cost of only 64 cents—a full pint of better cough syrup than you could buy for $2.50. Takes but a few minutes to prepare. Full directions with Pinex. Tastes good and never spoils.

You will be pleasantly surprised how quickly it loosens dry, hoarse or tight coughs, and heals the inflamed membranes in a painful cough. It also stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the persistent loose cough.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, rich in guaiaecol, which is so healing to the membranes.

To avoid disappointment, be sure and ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces Pinex," and don't accept anything else.

A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Best Way Known to Darken Gray Hair

Specialist has proved that the safest, most effective treatment for restoring color to gray hair is the good Old Sage Tea and Sulfur mixture. Use it freely, mixed by adding for a 5c bottle of Sulpho-Sage. A few applications of this fine toilet preparation will bring back the rich color, dark natural shade to gray, streaked or faded hair. Works so gradually and evenly that no one knows you are using it. Removes dandruff; beautifies hair. Druggist returns perfect hair. Clifton Chemical Co., Newark, N. J.

Quite Noticeable Is the Growing Interest Throughout the Department of Women's Outer Apparel

THE season has advanced to a period when styles have become materially fixed, and just so, have fashion-minds centered upon certain Courts of Fashion for correctness of style. They look to the few for the new, just now, for the many pleasing variations that style will bring forth from time to time.

Each forthcoming day will find these sections alive and interesting with all that's new and to be, and frequent visits may be looked forward to with anticipation of pleasing assortments and latest creations.

What a Profusion of Color In New Persian Blouses

True to the Orient these new blouses possess colors that combine in a way decidedly different, and while of mostly the brilliant tones, no prettier waists will be found to wear with dark suits.

Quiet tones are included as well, and in one model there's a novelty stripe that's really new in Persian designs. Chiffon sleeves of black, navy and plum.

Prices are $6.50, $7.95, $8.50, $8.95.

Georgette Crepe Blouses, in new suit shades, hand embroidered designs are a feature; convertible collars; priced at $5.50.

The Showing of Smart Dresses Is Replete With Newest Creations

Has Baby Been Here This Week?
 Every Baby Should Attend Baby Week, You Know!

A kindly man, when visiting Babyland last Saturday remarked in a joking way that he never imagined there were "that many babies in Harrisburg."

Well, it did make a big gap in our supply of balloons.

But the more the merrier, and Baby should pay Babyland a visit this week.

Have the Baby weighed.
 Have his picture taken (free with a purchase of Infants' Wear).
 Have him receive a big balloon
 —To-morrow!

At this busy time there is much to tell about the array of dresses in general—speaking as it were, of the great numbers of models, and of the superb style that is so plainly marked in the entirety.

Countless variations of the favored combination way in which fabrics are made up and contrasted.

To speak of these individually would mean a description of almost every dress, as few, very few bear resemblance.

The assortments afford a choice selection in better grade as well as inexpensive models, and from $12.50 to $35 a more pleasing diversion of styles could hardly be desired. As low as $5.98, good style is exhibited.

We would call your attention to the pretty dance frocks, also, which come in the smartest of models.

Newest Creations include—

- Navy Taffeta—A full flare model, belted in with loose girde. This model strongly resembles the popular suit styles, especially with the collar, cuffs and bottom of "coat" edged with Moufflon. Gold buttons and ornaments—$35.00.
- Black Chiffon Velvet—Georgette crepe sleeves and loose braid girde; trimmed with opossum—$37.50.
- Navy Taffeta—in a fancy, basket-weave design, with belt and deep cuffs of velvet,
- also a wide band of velvet around bottom of skirt. Moufflon buttons are an added feature—$35.00.
- Chiffon and Charmeuse Combination—of the Russian type, featuring side flares, and a wide all-over-braid band in place of a girde—$25.00.
- Striped Taffeta—blue and black stripe in combination with navy chiffon velvet. Trimmed with opossum—$25.00.

BOWMAN'S—Fourth Floor.

The Variety of Suit Models Affords An Excellent Choice

All that is new and accepted in suits for the present season—and it's generally agreed upon the individuality of Bowman Styles.

Noteworthy are striking models, in most stylish effects and fabrics; for instance:

- Black Panne Velvet—fashionable straight-line effect with military fastenings, and fur trimmings. Reversed cuffs show a white facing—$62.50.
- Bolling Green Velvet—plain in design with a neat cord forming waist line of coat; rich fur on flare collar; large novelty buttons—$57.50.
- Brown Velour Broadcloth—a long coat which buttons the entire length, finished with loose girde. Cuffs and large collar of chiffon velvet edged with fur—$55.00.
- Black Kitten'sear—coat hangs full from the collar in front, and semi-fitted back; collar and cuffs of skunk; pleated skirt—$49.50.
- Brown Broadcloth—semi-tailored model with box belted back; African shade; beautiful collar and cuffs of fitch—$37.50.
- Brown Gardine—sides and back belted with narrow braiding giving added dignity to the semi-flared skirt. Collar of opossum—$32.50.

Very pretty costumes were worn by Miss Adaline Burris, milk maid; Chalmer Moore, Indian; Miss Blanche Martin, milk maid; Fred Moody, clown; Miss Gladys Buckwalter, Yama-Yama; Harold Helf, clown; Miss Katherine Holbert, society belle; Sidney Beshore, clown; Miss Mary Ammon, pink pajama girl; James Holahan, clown; Miss Anna Guy, Dutch girl; Paul Wallace, scout; Catherine Cless, Yama-Yama; George Grey, negro; Miss Margaret Zeigler, dancing girl; Gordon Holland, clown; Miss Frances Forney, jester; James Wallace, clown; Miss Betty Brown, luna moth; Robert Kunk, cowboy; Miss Florence Shade, milk maid; Miss Mildred Wells, Yama-Yama girl; Miss Emily Brown, Miss Ethel Metzler, Miles Brown, Harold Brown, Marjorie and Audrey Brown and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Brown.

ADS MADE MORE PLEASING

Printing of Pictures in Real Estate Columns Attractive (Philadelphia Record.)

Perhaps you haven't noticed it, but it is true that a change has taken place in the manner of advertising real estate for sale or rent. Formerly the agent or builder was content to use small type setting forth the advantage of his offering and the price. Now, however, he wants the largest type a newspaper will permit him to use in classified advertising, and, what is more important, he likes to print a picture of his houses, or perhaps a floor plan.

This is not only of decided advantage to him, but of still greater advantage to the prospective buyer or tenant. Instead of a few words telling him that such and such a property on such and such a street is for sale, the reader now has before him an actual photograph of the place advertised. It is instructive and it is interesting. Besides it saves him many steps. Instead of wasting time trudging from door to door, he can see in the paper just what he wants.

Authors Club to Meet With Mrs. J. E. Garner

The next regular meeting of the Authors Club will be held at the home of Mrs. J. E. Garner, 215 Foster streets, this evening.

Scandinavian drama and dramatists will be the study of the club at this meeting and the following arranged program will be interpreted: "Life of Ibsen," Mrs. J. Kalbfus; outline of "Peer Gynt," Mrs. J. T. Balsley; music of "Peer Gynt," Mrs. H. R. Omwake, Mrs. J. E. Garner and Miss Orta; synopsis and reading, "The Doll House," Mrs. L. M. Neiffer.

The Rev. William B. Cooke and Miss Mary Cooke, of 2019 Green street, have returned to their home after an extended trip to Baltimore, Poughkeepsie and Lake Mohonk, where they attended the Mohonk Conference. While in Poughkeepsie Mr. and Miss Cooke visited Miss Katherine Margaret Middleton, of Camp Hill, at Vassar college, who is a sophomore.

C. Landis Rudy, of West Philadelphia, arrived here Sunday, accompanied by his little granddaughter, Marguerite Brittan Kent. They will be guests of Mrs. S. M. Gilman, of No. 141 North Thirteenth street, for several days.

Hazel Campbell and Russell Campbell, of Tamaqua, Pa., spent the week-end with their aunt, Mrs. G. W. Fry, 336 South Sixteenth street.

Miss Helen Moyer who lives with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Moyer, of Middleburg, Pa., is spending several weeks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Moyer, 302 South Sixteenth street.

CIVIC CLUB TO SEND CLOTHING TO TUBERCULARS

An appeal has been issued to its members and their friends by the Civic Club for clothing, blankets and money for the patients at Mt. Alto and Ham burg sanatorium. The annual donations will be sent the latter part of this week. Persons wishing to contribute should send their packages to Mrs. W. E. Bailey, 401 North Front street.

CHICKEN AND WAFFLES

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Christian Church of Lemoynne have planned a chicken and waffle dinner to be served in the basement of the church on Saturday from 11:00 a. m. to 10:00 p. m.

THE REV. AND MRS. HAWES ENTERTAIN WITH "AT HOME"

Members and friends of the congregation of Market Square Presbyterian church were guests of the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. George Hawes at an "At Home," yesterday afternoon and evening.
