I am very glad to have others know of its very beneficial application to such cases as E. JENNIE DAY, 44 Brook treet, Corry, Pa.

Non-believers in the Bible and in what are called miracles deny the possibility of spiritual power over material things because they do not understand spiritual law, the Principle and rule involved. Some good people believe that the spiritual healing of the early church was a mere phenomenal exhibition of divine or superhuman power, and therefore make no effort to relate spiritual power to present human needs. Could they but realize that there is a Frinciple underlying all existence, which operates according to law, and quite regardless to time and place, they would see that the physical changes accompanying Christian healing at the service of the serv

Asserts So-Called Mind Which Includes Belief in Evil and Disease Is False

Professor Herman S. Hering, of Concord, N. H., lectured on Christian Science last evening in the Orpheum Theater under the auspices of the was introduced by Roy E. Bignall and for an hour and a quarter held the undivided attention of his large audience. The lecture in full follows:

Christ Jesus, the great physician, the divine healer, has for all time set the standard of perfect healing before humanity, and that many do not yet believe in his gospel results from a lack of understanding of the true mature and philosophy of the so-called miracles which he performed. His ethical teachings are very generally accepted even by agnostics; although the spiritual records of the healing work as a part of his divine mission, meet with dissent from many of the cultured people of to-day.

The gospels record many instances of the healing of physical disease by Christ Jesus and his disciples; he restored a withered hand, he healed an impotent man and a man born blind; he healed paralysis, dropsy, hemorrhage, leprosy, epilepsy and violent insanity, and he raised the dead.

In St. Matthew we read:

It is evident that Christian disciples ship, for he said, "He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also," which means that he who is a Christian shall be able to heal spiritual records of the true and philosophy of the so-called miracles which he performed.
