REPUBLICAN SWEEP IN DAUPHIN COUNTY; CONTROL COUNCIL

Elect Whole County Ticket by Big Majorities Except Houser, Who Was Defeated by Danner, on Personal Issues; Council Is Made Up of Bowman, Lynch, Gross, Gorgas and Meals, Mayor; Suffrage Beaten by Small whole Republican tacket has been selected with the exception of William N. Houser, for register of wills, who was defeated by R. C. Danner, who was returned to office on purely personal issues.

William H. Lynch, Harry F. Bownan ard W. L. Gorgas have been relected to city council. M. Harvey Taylor and Mayor Royal have been defeated and the new member of council will be ex-Mayor E. Z. Gross, a one-time Republican, now lined up with the Democrats. Of course Mayor Meals was elected, as was a certainty, his being the only name on the ticket as a result of his having received more than 50 per cent. of the vote cast at the primaries.

A. Carson Stamm, Dr. C. E. L. Keene and Robert A. Enders, the Republican candidates for the school board, were elected by large majorities, Mr. Stamm having no opposition because of his mayor the summer of this mayor than 50 per cent. The sympathy campaign played by place on the ticket in which the Democraties, Mr. Stamm having no opposition bloard, were elected by large majorities, Mr. Stamm having no opposition leaves of his mythous the strength that the primary of the more and the strength of the proposition leaves of his mythous the strength of the fusion state for Dauphin county, having put to tuter rout the carefully laid plans of the fusionists to elect E. place.

Woman suffrage was defeated in both city and county, but by a much closer vote than anticipated.

The Walnut street bridge loan of $300,000, with three precincts to hear from, was carried by a close vote.

The loan of $60,000 to motorize the fire department was carried by an overwhelming majority in all parts of the city.

All of the constitutional amendants aside from suffrage were cardents aside from suffrage were cardents.

City and County Results

The vote cast yesterday in Harris-sure Republican control of the poor board.

Dr. Henry M. Stine, Harrisburg, and Charles C. Cumbler, Highspire, were swept into the county commissionerships. Dr. Stine having over 11,000 tots and Cumbler over 10,000. Harry C. Wells, the sheriff, trounced County Commissioner John H. Eby for the minority place on the board. The hight between Eby and Wells was one of the features of the campaign, Eby being the choice of the McCormick wing of the Democratic party. Wells yietory is regarded in the light of personal popularity and there were also the C. Wells, N. H. Eby, K.

SUFFRAGE GOES DOWN IN STATE BY OVER 35,000 VOTES

Majority Cast Against the Amendment Will Be Much Less Than Expected

ADVOCATES ARE JUBILANT

The woman suffrage amendment to the constitution of Pennsylvania has apparently been defeated by from 35,000 to 45,000 in the State according to returns and estimates available at 2 P. M. to-day.

The city of Harrisburg and county of Dauphin with a few districts to hear from show majorities against the amendment. Cumberland and Perry counties and a number of others in this section voted against it.

The suffragists are confident that they will go to Philadelphia with a majority, but it is feared that the Quaker city will overcome it.

Amendments Defeated in Cumberland; Loyd Is District Attorney

Carlisie, Pa., Nov. 3.—Ail constitutional amendments lost in this county by about three to one. Returns from all but a few precincts show Head, Orlady and Williams lead big in Superior Court race.

Sylvester E. Saddier polled large compilmentary vote for judge and is elected with small scattered opposition. The county results give both parties officers. George E. Lloyd, Mechanicsburg, was out for district attorney over his Republican opponent, J. H. Line, Carlisie. Other elections are: W. Frank Hartzeil, Mount Holly, Republican clerk of the courts; Joseph J. Totten, Carlisie. Democrat, register of wills; Robert W. Peffer, Bolling Springs, Democrat, treasurer; David G. Bishop, Penn, and A. E. #### Finding of Skeleton Brings Up Stories of "Wild Man"

Lewistown, Pa., Nov. 3.—Discovery of a human skeleton in the woods a few miles west of McVeytown on Monday evening by a hunter is thought to solve the mystery of a "wild man" who roamed the mountains in this section about ten or twelve years ago. The find was made by John Youtzy, of near this place.

The skeleton was found among some bushes and near by were found faded shreds of clothing hanging to undergrowth. The bones of the skeleton were bleached, but were all there, and were those of a good-sized man. David Miller, a resident of Olivertownship, living near where the find was made, says that the bones are likely those of a man who made his appearance in the neighborhood about a decade ago. He was called a "wild man."

aldermanic contests in city and county. Republicans made a clean sweep in a Republicans made a clean sweep in the Seventh, Ninth and Tenth wards in the city. In the county the close contests were in Steelton, Middletown and Upper Paxton township.

In the Ninth ward ward Walter F. Shoemaker, a local contractor, candidate on the Republican ticket, won over George W. McWilliams, Democrat, by 10 votes.

McWilliams succeeded the late Al. P. Rogers as a Republican appointment. In this election he ran on the Democratic ticket and was defeated.

Hoverter Wins in Ninth George A. Hoverter, present alderman of the Ninth ward, was re-elected by a large majority, defeating Clarence O. Backenstoss, the Mayor's secretary. In the First ward John B. Nicholas was re-elected by a big margin. His opponent was George B. Fields.

Alderman S. Brady Caveny, of the Second ward, had no opposition for re-election. It was also plain sailing for A. M.Landis, alderman of the Sixth ward, and Charles P. Walter, of the Eighth ward. These candidates appeared on all tickets, receiving a large total vote. the Seventh, Ninth and Tenth wards

Will Meet on Friday

Dr. C. R. Phillips, chairman of the Red Cross Christmas seal campaign committee, has called another meeting of the body for 8.30 o'clock Friday evening at the home of Mrs. William Henderson. 25 North Front street.

Dr. Phillips is anxious to have a full attendance of the committee, as further plans for the advancing of the 1915 crusade will be discussed.

THREE MORE WARRANTS FOR ALLEGED ILLEGAL VOTING

Three more warrants for alleged iolations of the election laws at the september primaries were issued yeserday by Alderman A. M. Landis, Sixth terday by Alderman A. M. Landis, Sixth ward, upon information sworn out by John P. Guyer, secretary of the Dauphin Law and Order League. They are W. R. Scott, second precinct of the Twelfth ward; John Speelman, first precinct. Third ward and R. L. Schmidt, first precinct, Third ward. Up until an early hour this afternoon the arrests had not been made, according to Alderman Landis. The hearings in these cases will likely be held Friday or early next week, probably Monday or Tuesday.

Garlisle, Pa., Nov. 3.—Mountain fires believed to have been caused by a burning gun wad have devastated several hundrd acres of timber land in the South Mountain below Mount Holly Springs. Yesterday the fire was still spreading in spite of the efforts of several score of men to stop its advance, Land belonging to S. M. Kitzmiller, of Shippensburg: George Donnelly, Manuel Marks, W. H. Church and others has been burned over.

HARRINGTON IS NEW GOVERNOR

Maryland Elects Democrat to Succeed Goldsborough, Republican

Baltimore, Nov. 3.—State Comptroller Emerson C. Harrington, the Democratic candidate for governor was elected yesterday to succeed Governor P. L. Goldsborough, Republican. At 8 o'clock this morning his plurality over L. E. Weller, Republican, was estimated at 3:500. Albert C. Ritchie, Democratic candidate for attorney general, ran ahead of Harrington considerably, and Hugh A. McMullen, candidate for comptroller, ran about evenly with the gubernatorial candidate.

The Democrats will retain control of the Senate, through holdover members and probably will have a reduced majority in the House of Delegates. Opposition in thickly settled sections of Baltimore county, to a plank in the Democratic platform favoring an extension of Baltimore civity limits is regarded as one of the principal reasons for the turnover in the county vote. vote.

Morris R. Soper, Republican, was elected chief judge of the Supreme bench of Baltimore City and William F. Broening, Republican, was reelected States' attorney for Baltimore.
