One Need in Tuberculosis

is careful attention to hygienic living and proper diet. Science is agreed that fresh air, rest and avoidance of food excesses constitute the most effective non-medical treatment in this widespread disease.
 Often, however, these measures need supplementing by proper medication. The system lacks sufficient resistance to overcome the attack, and something must be done to assist in up-building the patient's strength.
 In many cases of this sort Eckman's Alternative has been used with marked success. Its efficacy in this disease has borne fruit in a record of numerous apparent recoveries, and where a tonic is indicated it has produced most beneficial results.
 Since it contains no opiates, narcotics or habit-forming drugs, it is safe to try. At your druggist's or direct from Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia.

"The Law of the Land," with Adelaide French.

Wednesday evening only, Nov. 10—David Bispham and Company in Music and Drama.

"THE NEWLYWEDS AND THEIR BABY"
 "The Newlyweds and Their Baby" that funny musical cartoon play from the cartoons of George McManus with Lovey, Dovey and Snookums, the Nurse, the Doctor, the Professor, the Eccentric German Waiter, the Big Black Bear, the Young Lovers and the big beauty chorus is the attraction at the Orpheum this afternoon and tonight.—Adv.

MARY IRWIN
 May Irwin, America's greatest comedienne, will be seen at the Orpheum Friday evening in her latest New York success, the new comedy, "33 Washington Square." Never has this much-beloved actress been more popular among the people of this country than at present. Miss Irwin will bring the original New York production and cast. The play is said to be easily the best she has ever had. It is a dramatization of the novel by Leroy Scott. The stage direction of the piece was in the hands of William Collier who was once an associate of Miss Irwin with the late Augustin Daly.—Adv.

MAY IRWIN
 Famous American comedienne who will be seen on Friday evening at the Orpheum in "33 Washington Square." Miss Irwin will sing four new songs here.—Adv.

"THE LAW OF THE LAND"
 Straight from a successful season's run at the Forty-eighth Street Theater, New York, and with a complete New York cast and production, George Broadhurst's powerful drama of modern life, "The Law of the Land" will be the attraction at the Orpheum Saturday matinee and night.
 Miss Adelaide French, who will be remembered for the powerful presentation of "Madame X," will play the leading part and a specially selected cast has been engaged to support her. The football teams of the Steatton High and the Central High will occupy the boxes at the evening performance as the guests of the management.—Adv.

KATHLEEN COMAN TO SUPPORT BISPHAM

Supporting David Bispham in the eminent baritone's tour as Beethoven in the one act play "Adelaide," which comes to the Orpheum next Wednesday evening and who will also appear in the "The Rehearsal," with which Mr. Bispham and his company will precede the presentation of "Adelaide," will be Miss Kathleen Coman, pianist. Miss Coman is an Australian who early started her career. At the age of fourteen she won a scholarship against one thousand Austrian competitors, entitling her to three years tuition at the Royal Academy of Music, London, and she is now a gold medalist of that institution. Following her three years at the Academy as a student, the Board of Directors, in recognition of her attainments, gave her an extra year as an exhibitor.—Adv.

MAJESTIC VAUDEVILLE

To-day confronts local vaudeville enthusiasts with their last opportunity to see "The Dream Pirates," the clever little musical comedy that is scoring a triumph at the Majestic during the first half of the week. When new things vaudeville are unfolded at the Majestic to-morrow, Harrisburg will have a second opportunity to see "The Honey Girls," the splendid musical comedy playlet that appeared at the Orpheum. The "Honey Girls" were presented on a splendid holiday bill, and their turn was the bright particular headliner. The same settings and same players will be seen at the Majestic that cavorted about the Orpheum stage at the time Young Harrisburg will be afforded a special treat in this bill in the un-equaled animal attraction known as "The Seal." Fun aplenty will be added to the entertainment by McCloud and Carp, singing comedians; Marcou, the comedy shadowgraph artist; and one or two others of merit.—Adv.

"THE FAMILY STAIN" AT THE COLONIAL

It would seem as though every moving picture admirer who saw Frederick Perry in "Dr. Rameau," would want to see this same player in "The Family Stain," which Mr. Fox will present at the Colonial to-day and to-morrow. Frederick Perry's efforts as a very pleasing and remarkably virile actor need no description to those who have seen him. He will have the support of a distinguished cast of Fox artists in this play, which is founded on Emile Gaboriau's celebrated detective story "The Widow LeRouge." No one will want to miss this thrilling and wonderful story, which is so splendidly portrayed, and which in its unravelling will tell who killed the Widow LeRouge. Aside from the star himself, no player figures quite so important as Miss Carey Lee, who after much painstaking study was selected for the part of the fascinating widow.—Adv.
