County Inspector Boyer Makes Record Report to County Commissioners

More than 1100 scales, dry and liquid measures. liquid measures, automatic gauges, oil pumps and yardsticks, were examined and sealed in the county districts during September and October by Harry A. Boyer, county inspector of weights asures according to his monthly restricts to the county company to the county to the county company to the county to the c port yesterday to the county com missioners. The record is a new one for Mr. Boyer as he covered more miles, made more trips and inspected more receptacles and scales than during any other similar period since his appointment. In all Mr. Boyer made 1116 inspections, 65 condemnations and 16 adjustments. Ninety-six scales of all descriptions, 182 dry and 314 liquid measures, fifty-six automatic gauges, nineteen oil pumps, 259 avoirdupois weights and 140 miscellaneous measures and fifty yardsticks.

laneous measures and fifty yardsticks.

Must Make Pipe Connections.—

Owners of property which fronts on Cream alley from Sixteenth to Swatara and Snow alley from Cream alley to Swatara, have been notified by City Engineer M. B. Cowden to make necessary water, sewer, gas and heating pipe connections between their properties and the curb by January I preparatory to paving of these sections of highway.

properties and the curb by January 1 preparatory to paving of these sections of highway.

To Show He Isn't Dead. — Unless Albert E. Bush appears personally before the Dauphin county court by February 8, 1916, or produces satisfactory evidence to prove that he is still alive, he will be declared legally dead and the register of wills will be directed to issue letters of administration on his estate.

Open Grading Bids.—Bids for the grading of Reel and Lexington streets from Mahantongo to Division streets, will be opened by City Commissioner W. H. Lynch, superintendent of streets and public improvements, at noon Monday, November 8.

Will Sell Two Properties of Martha Adams.—Nos. 532 Peffer street and 1937 North Sixth street, properties of Martha Adams.—Nos. 532 Peffer street and 1937 North Sixth street, properties of Martha Adams, will be sold at public sale on the courthouse steps at 2 o'clock, Saturday, November 29, by Charles Myers, executor. The dead woman's name figured conspicuously in court proceedings recently when certain clauses of her will in which she bequeathed practically her whole property to Harrison Seifert, a so-called "spiritualist," was attacked by Mrs. Adams' relatives on the ground that Seifert used undue influence on Mrs. Adams to have the will written in his favor.

ENGINEERS TO SEE
INDUSTRIAL MOVIES
A series of three industrial motion picture films, illustrating the manufacture of National pipe, from ore to finished product, will be shown before the Engineers Society of Pennsylvania, 31 South Front street, Friday, November 12.
These pictures were taken under the direction of the National Tube Company, of Pittsburgh, and are considered highly educational.

Cured His RUPTURE

I was badly ruptured while lifting a trunk several years ago. Doctors said my only hope of cure was an operation. Trusses did me no good. Finally I got hold of something that quickly and completely cured me. Years have passed and the rupture has never returned, although I am doing hard work as a carpenter. There was no opera-

MARY PICKFORD, IN "ESMERALDA," TODAY AT THE REGENT

Mary Pickford, as "Esmeralda," pleased a large audience yesterday at the Regent and will be repeated today.

Of all the great dramatic successor of Frances Burnett, "Esmeralda" is the most tender and lovable characterization ever created by this gifted authoress. As "Esmeralda," Mary Pickford renders one of the most touching he shall have it by helping us ministeren impersonations of the year.

Fourth St. Church of God

Next Sunday will be the beginning of the sixth year of the pastorate of Dr. William N. Yates at the Fourth Street Church of God.

During the past five years the church and Sunday school has doubled in membership, and the attendance at the Wednesday evening service is four the church.

The pastor has written a personal letter to those who have united during the past year, asking them to meet Mrs. Yates and himself on Sunday, at 10 o'clock, in the lecture room, and while the congregation is singing the opening hymn, preceded by the church council, the pastor and wife, followed by the new members, will march into the pews.
