AMUSE MENTS

Eugene Walter's play known both as "The Plain Woman" and 'The Bet-ter Way" will be revived soon with Josephine Victor in the principal role.

Charles Dillingham has augmented the cast of "Stop, Look and Listen," by adding Misses Tempest and Sun-shine.

The Shuberts have in preparation "The Girl From Brazil." In this play will be seen Frances Demarest and Claude Fleming.

MOTION PICTURES

Commencing Friday, November 5, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew will release through V. L. S. E., one of their comedies every week for a month. Included will be "Beautiful Thoughts," "Romantic Reggie" and "Diplomatic Henry."

Contrary to rumors to the reverse, Blanche Sweet will continue to ap-pear in Lasky productions on the Par-amount Program.

The Lubin company has signed a contract with Nance O'Neil. She will soon be seen in a series of features to be released through V. L. S. E.

V. L. S. E. will furnish 5 war plays, two of which are already released— "The Battle Cry of Peace," "The Na-tion's Peril."

Constance Collier, the noted English actress, has been signed by the Oliver Morosco Photo Play Company, which releases on the Paramount picture program.

"THE LAW OF THE LAND"
"The Law of the Land," a drama by George Broadhurst that recently ended a long run at the Forty-eighth Street Theater, New York City, is the attraction at the Orpheum to-morrow, matinee and night. The play is described as frank melodrama with not one punch, but a veritable fusilade of them. It is further said that Mr. Broadhurst has taken the principal emotions of love, jealousy, hatred, revenge, and with them worked out a problem that keeps the audience guessing what the answer will be.—Advertisement.

DAVID BISPHAM

and the enthusiasm of a large audience pronounced it entirely successful.

Mr. Bispham's offering is in two parts. He first introduces himself and nis company in an original musical entertainment called "The Rehearsal," in which several solos and a concerted number from Wagner's "Meistersinger' are supported by a mild foundation of plot and dialogue in a setting of a

This section of the program is chiefly interesting because of the sound philosophy of Mr. Bispham's remarks on the artistic life. It also serves to introduce a promising young soprano,
Idelle Patterson, who sings some oreratic selections very creditably.—Advertisement.

MISCHA ELMAN NEXT THURSDAY
When Mischa Elman, the great Russian violinist, comes to Harrisburg on concert to conjunction with the New York Symphony Orchestra, Walter
Damrosch, conductor, in Chestnut Street Auditorium, he will bring with him two very precious violins. Both here Strads and in perfect condition.
One of the violins is valued at $10,000 and the other at $6,500. Elman will appear in only sixteen cities with the famous New York Symphony Orchestra and Harrisburg has been selected as one of them. The orchestra is booked for a series of very important symphony concerts in New York and is just taking the road after very successful appearances in that city.—Advertisement.

MARGUERITE CLARK IN "HELENE OF THE NORTH," AT THE REGENT TODAY AND TOMORROW

To-day and to-morrow Daniel Frohman presents the dainty star, Marguerite Clark, in a very unusual romance, "Helene of the North," on the Paramount program at the Regent.

The story opens in the drawingroom of a wealthy English society woman. For the amusement of her guests she suggests a faggot party, in which each person present shall place a faggot in the fire and tell a story during the time it burns. When it comes to Helene's turn, she tells a story, thrilling, indeed, of her former life is the Canadian woods, of the man she met and loved, of her former life is the Canadian woods, of the man she met and loved of her former life is the Canadian woods, of the man she met and loved of her former life is the Canadian woods, of the man she met and loved of her former life is the Canadian woods, of the man she met and loved of her former life is the Canadian woods, of the man she met and loved of her former life is the Canadian woods, of the man she met and loved, of her former life is the Canadian woods, of the man she met and loved, of her former life is the Canadian woods, of the man she met and loved, of her former life is the Canadian woods, of the man she met and loved, of her life is the Canadian woods, of the man she met and loved, of her former life is the Canadian woods, of the man she met and loved, her her the canadian woods, of the man she met and loved, her he curst, which we have life in the Canadian woods, of the man she met and loved, her her woods, of the Canadian woods, of the man she met and loved, her her woods, of the Canadian woods, of the man she was being married to him. # THEDA BARA IN "THE DEVIL'S DAUGHTER," WILL BE SHOWN AT THE COLONIAL TODAY ONLY "The Devil's Daughter," picturized

"The Devil's Daughter," pleturized for William Fox. from Gabriele D'Annunzio's most exotic and famous work, the world-known "Lt Gioconda." Miss Bara's work in parts of this type has become world famous arom such William Fox productions as "The Clemenceau Case," "A Fool There Was," etc., ne each of which the French leading woman in the part of a fascinating woman in the part of a fascinating woman in the part of a fascinating diabolical temptress has won international fame. If D'Annunzio had had Mile. Bara in mind when he penned Gloconda he could not have written a drama that more subtly suits this great actress' methods and temperament.

To-morrow the favorite screen star, Clara Kimball Young, will be seen in the well known play, "Marrying Money," Miss Young needs no introduction to movie fans.—Advertisement.
