Mechanicsburg, Pa., Nov. 6. — A fatal accident occurred here last night when Sanford B. Robinson fell down a flight of stairs at his home at 402 East Main street, and was almost instantly killed. Mr. Robinson, after supper last evening, took his usual smoke and then said he was going to the attic for some article. RESOLUTIONS

RESOLUTIONS of Condolence and Respect Passed by the Employes of Maclay Street Shop upon the death of Ellwood Lee Baker.
WHEREAS, It has pleased God in His providence to call home to Himself, Ellwood Lee Baker, only son of our beloved Foreman, George T. Baker; be it resolved,
FIRST: That we hereby testify to the Christian character and sterling manhood of Ellwood Lee Baker. Though young in years, his life had already commended the faith which he confessed and the Master whom he loved and served.
SECOND: That we extend to you, his father and mother, our deepest sympathies and assure you that at this time we sorrow with you and pray for you at the Throne of Grace. God's ways are past finding out, but we know that He who gave His only Son for us, can understand the grief of a father and mother who gave up to Him their only son, and to that Heavenly Father we pray that He may give you consolation and peace.
THIRD: That these Resolutions be sent to the parents and a copy furnished to the daily papers.

DECLINES ARE FOUND IN MARKET

By Associated Press

New York, Nov. 6. — Yesterday's declining tendency was continued at today's opening though in more moderate degree. Canadian Pacific fell almost two points to 183½, Erie, first Pfd., was a point lower at 56¾ and other railway shares, Reading excepted, were disposed to recede. Coppers, which were the strongest features of recent sessions, were irregular, and specialties like Studebaker, Baldwin Locomotive, Goodrich, American Can and American Woolen were one to two points down. United States Steel was offered in round amounts as low as 85⅞, one-quarter under. Pacific Mail was 1⅛ higher at 33¼. Secondary prices showed greater irregularity.
