America's Premier Dancer Endorses

NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE

Scientists discover the cause of bleeding gums and loose teeth

The old idea that bleeding gums and loose teeth (symptoms of pyorrhea) are due to little pieces of tartar or bone under the gums, has been exploded. Scientists have made the astounding discovery that this disease is caused by a germ which is found in every human mouth.

This germ is the most active and destructive enemy of your teeth. Are you protecting them against it? You can ward off its constant attack and escape the dread results of the disease by using the proper corrective and preventive treatment in your daily toilet.

To meet the need for this treatment and to enable everyone to take the necessary precautions against this disease, a prominent dentist has put his own prescription before the public in the convenient form Sample size of Senreco Tooth Paste. Senreco contains the best corrective and preventive for pyorrhea known to dental science. Used daily it will successfully protect your teeth from this disease. Senreco also contains the best harmless agent for keeping the teeth clean and white. It has a refreshing flavor and leaves a ant taste in the mouth. Start the Senreco treatment tonight—full details in the folder wholesomely clean, cool and pleas-wrapped around every tube. Symptoms described. A 25c two oz. tube is sufficient for six or eight weeks of the pyorrhea treatment. Get Senreco at your druggists today, or send 4c in stamps or coin for sample tube and folder. Address The Sentanel Remedies Co., 506 Union Central Bldg., Cincinnati, Ohio.

To-night — "The Law of the Land," with Adelaide French, Wednesday, evening only, November 10 — David Bispham and Company in Music and Drama.
Thursday, matinee and night, November 11—"The Tango Queens."

"THE LAW OF THE LAND"

"THE LAW OF THE LAND"
"The Law of the Land," which comes of the Orpheum this evening is a relodrama in four acts, by George broadhurst. The interest is gripping rom the initial to the final curtain, he situations are plausible, the moves reasonable and soundly presented. There is no dull moment and no also situations; the emotional appeal size situations; the emotional appeals struct, the issues so powerful, that ramatic, the issues so powerful, that ramatic, the issues so powerful, that stands are considered to the unionst from the beginning to the unionst from the beginning to each of the unionst from a beginning to the unionst from and we can eadly see why "The land we can eadly see why "The the corty-eighth Street Theater, New York divertisement."

The Honey Girls at the Majestic heater have made a hit and indicaons point to the biggest Saturday the 'alnut street playhouse has had, Next eek the feature unusual will be the iggest spectacle ever staged for a audeville act, it is entitled "A Mile Minute." The following is what the ew York Sun said of this act in part;
The stirringly effective scene in the first act, where one sees the headlights of a motor car and the railway locomotive streaking along the mountain country in the dark distance, and growing larger and brighter every moment, until their full glare is on the stage, together with the huge engine, snort-storring car "pipping" and palpitating, is the greatest thing in stage mechanics ever seen in this country, and it stirred last night's audience into a vertiable tempest of enthusiasm."—Advertisement.

"MARRYING MONEY" AT THE COLONIAL

Owing to the immense popularity of the recent showing of Clara Kimball Young in her spiendid triumph, "Marrying Money," this attraction will be returned to Harrisburg to-day by special request and will be exhibited at the Colonial Theater. This delightful player, who was declared by Lillian Russell to be the most beautiful weman of the silent stage, is said to be seen in one of her finest roles in this particular play. Owing to the fact that "The Raven," the Essanay drama that the thin the colonial for the week of pear at the Colonial for the week of pear at the Colonial for the week of pear at the Colonial for the week. On Monday and Saturday for next week. On Monday and Tuesday the attraction will be "The Flash of an Emerald," a World Film starring Roberr Warwick.—Advertisement.

SCHOOL LOAN CARRIES

Lewistown, Pa., Nov. 6.—On Tues day the proposition to increase the bonded indebtedness $100,000 for the

CHOIR LEADER STATES HE TOOK FATHER JOHN'S MEDICINE UPON ADVICE OF FR. JOHN HIMSELF

W. B. Tyrell, formerly of Lowell, who was choir director in St. Patrick's Church forty years ago under Father John O'Brien (from whom Father John's Medicine got its name) first took the medicine upon the advice of the paston himself. Mr. Tyrell says he "is continually chanting the praises of this old prescription." prescription.

Father John's Medicine Was So Named By The People

Father John's Medicine is a physician's prescription.

Prescribed for the Rev. Father John O'Brien of Lowell, Mass., by an eminent specialist in 1855.

Father John recommended this prescription to his parishioners and friends and in this way it became known as Father John's Medicine.

Father John's Medicine is recommended for coughs, colds and throat and lung troubles and to make flesh and strength. It is not a patent medicine, and does not contain alcohol or poisonous drugs. It has been in use over 50 years.

Buy GOOD Coal & LESS Coal The better the coal you buy—the less you have to buy—and the less you have to buy, the lower becomes your aggregate coal expendi-

Since all coal—good, better and best—costs the same per to think it the part of wisdom to get the best for your mosep the total expenditure down? Buy Montgomery Coal-its quality has been known for years-there is none better.

J. B. MONTGOMERY

Both Phones

Third and Chestnut Streets

MR. BUSINESS MAN! BOOT YOUR BUSINESS By Advertising With

CALENDARS

We Can Supply You. Call at Our Office or Phone Bell 1577R MYERS MANUFACTURING CO.

1125 North Third Street HARRISBURG, PA.

MOMEN AND INTERESTS

Why Woman Lie---When They Do

ach day.

Almost every businessman is obliged to be courteous and polite to callers who bore him unutterably and take up his precious time. When they say, "I fear I am trespassing on your patience" the poor slave of business is obliged to say, "Not at all," while in his heart he is wishing himself upon a desert island a thousand leagues from bores.

Again he finds himself oblited

a desert island a thousand leagues from bores.

Again, he finds himself obliged from social consideration to accept a dinner invitation, either at the home of an acquaintance, or at the club, yet he does not enjoy the occasion, but is forced to say that he has had a charming time on taking leave of his host.

In large financial transactions, the man who is absolutely truthful to-day would bring a salary in any museum.

man who is absolutely truthful to-day would bring a salary in any museum. The little lie in such situations is called "business acumen" and "shrewdness," and "cunning." and "quick wit"—any name, indeed, save its own ugly one.

In the hours devoted to gallantry and love-making, man prides himself upon his ability to tell sweet lies which women believe. As for woman's untruthfulness, it is a wonder she knows how to speak the truth

By ELIA WHEELER WILCOX

(Copyright, 1915, by Star Company.)

A seemingly intelligent man asks me the following question:
Is there a woman in America that will not wilfully lie and deceive? A businessman in Cleveland, O., made the remark to me one day that he had been in business twenty-eight years, and in that time he had never met a woman who would not lie for money or social effect; and I say, is it possible. Respectfully.

When we come down to the real basis of things, it is pretty hard to find a man or woman who is not guilty of some small prevarication each day.

Almost every businessman is obliged to be courteause small signal to the courteause and the such unreasonable demands of her, that she has never dared to be absolutely honest and frank with him, or even with herself.

I often wonder just when he began to impress upon her mind that she was a being so utterly unlike himself in her natural passions, her aims, her rights, her obligations. Surely in the control of the courteause of the conditions, and made her with false conditions, and made turn reasonable demands of her, that she has never dared to be absolutely honest and frank with him, or even with herself.

I often wonder just when he began to impress upon her mind that she has never dared to be conditions, and made turn reasonable demands of her, that she has never dared to be absolutely honest and frank with him, or even with easy a passion.

that she has never dared to be absolutely honest and frank with him, or even with herself.

I often wonder just when he began to impress upon her mind that she was a being so utterly unlike himself in her natural passions, her aims, her rights, her obligations. Surely in the early, primitive races woman was not forced to such deception as the civilized world has made necessary.

Man now makes it obligatory upon woman to declare herself as emotionless as a disembodied spirit, else he distrusts her purity. I once knew a wife who was unwise enough to tell her husband that some years before she met him a man had put his arm about her waist during a promenade. She had rebuked him and never saw the man afterward, yet the husband became morbid and jealous and unkind after this incident was related to him, and insulted his wife with suspicions of her respectability, declaring that she must have caused him to act as he did by her indiscretions.

So long as men demand much more of women than they give, women must be forced to lie and deceive. Only when he is as willing to overlook her errors and follies as he expects her to be in considering his will she become truthful.

Almost everything that woman is, man made her. She is often extravasant because he continually pays at tention to the fashionably attired women, even while he scoffs at fashion. She frequently neglects the domestic virtues to more showy accomplishments because man passes the domestic woman by with polite indifference.

ference.
It would be well for man to ask himself what he has done toward making higher standards for woman before he criticizes her too severely.

MAY IRWIN SEEN By Frederic J. Haskin IN BEST COMEDY

33 Washington Square a Rollicking Farce With Excellent Cast

cellent Cast

Orpheum goers last evening were given a splendid performance of rollicking comedy in "33 Washington Square," which showed May Irwin famous comedienne, at her best. In this day and generation, when the theatrical managers, in the hallucination that they are meeting a demand, when in reality they are actually creating it, produce plays calculated to stir the stronger emotions of the theater-going public; in this day and generation. I repeat, it is a relief to find oneself on solid footing and settled down to an enjoyable evening of unharried enjoyment. It was a clean, wholesome performance and provided a perfect setting for the bubbling good nature and unlimited capabilities of May Irwin, who kept the audience in a constant state of chuckling and outbursts of merriment. Her company carried out very satisfactorily the parts assigned to them, which of necessity, (ipso facto), were subordinated to Miss Irwin. It is respectable that a larger audience did not take advantage of the opportunity offered, so that more plays of like nature night find their way to Harrisburg from time to time.

The story of the complications attendant upon a society leader's pitiful attempts to maintain her social position ahead of her closest rival, without having the necessary financial foundation, and her faithful maid's (Miss Irwin) zealous efforts to care for her welfare and at the same time manage her own love affair with William, the buttler, afforded the audience much quiet enjoyment. May Irwin's rendition in the first act of "Dan McGraw," who became famous for floating down the old Green River, and "Araby," and several other attractive songs which, when sung by her, seemed particularly apropos, had much to do with putting the audience in the best of humor for the entire evening. To mention each member of the cast were impossible, but Leonard Hollister, as Tom Preston, alias Dr. Pyecroft, a notorious forger, deserves special mention. Mr. Hollister acted in an extremely creditable fashion the quickly shifting dual perso

First Agricultural Show at Musser Public School

At Wilsser Fublic School, Cafip Hill, Pa., Nov. 6.—Through the efforts of Miss Martha Zimmerman, of Mechanicsburg, teacher of the school, and its patrons, the first annual agricultural exhibit was given in the Musser public school building in Church street, Just outside the borough line, Thursday evening. The speakers included Professor J. K. Green, superintendent of public schools of Cumberland county; Professor Rice, assistant superintendent of Cumberland county schools; Professor Stonebraker, district superintendent. e, assistant superintendent of Cun-land county schools; Professor nebraker, district superintendent; Rev. E. D. Weigle, pastor of Trin-Lutheran Church; the Rev. H. W. tsock, pastor of the Methodist irch, and others. Prizes were given best products. or best products.

MARGUERITE CLARK, IN "HELENE OF THE NORTH," AT THE RE-

OF THE NORTH," AT THE REGENT

Marguerite Clark, the dainty star, in "Helene of the North," on the Paramount program, will be repeated to-day at the Regent.

Monday and Tuesday — Charlotte
Walker, the celebrated theatrical star, makes her second appearance in a Paramount picture, before the photodisconding the second appearance of the control of the trilling drama of lost dentity, "Out of Darkness." by Hector Turnbull.

In "Out of Darkness." Miss Walker is seen as "Helen Scott," wealthy young heress and owner of the famous Scott Canneries, Helen, however, is so interested in society that she leaves the handling of the business affairs to the canneries' various branches of her hard-fisted uncle.

The cast consists of Charlotte Walkre, Thomas Melghan, Margery Daw and Tom Forman—Advertisement.

THE PATRIOT

A Belgian cripple stumped about Brussels declaring, "We gave those Germans a rare hiding before they got to Brussels." He was handed up before a stony-faced circle of German officers, who decreed, "You will be shot—unless you become a German." The cripple thought it over and was sworn in as German there and then. The chief German officer took him by the hand, saying, "You are a German now."

ow."

As he left, the cripple muttered,
"Those Belgians gave us a rare hiding before we got to Brussels."—Tit-

CARING FOR THE BLIND

[Continued from Editorial Page.]

ceived his long sentence blindness came upon him. The prison physicians certified that it had been developing for months, that the disease which produced was responsible for his falling back in his work, and for the irritability which caused the fatal quarrel.

ing back in his work, and for the irritability which caused the fatal quarrel.

Having thoroughly studied the work being done for the blind in the leading institutions of Europe, Mrs. Ryder went to Japan this summer and studied the different methods in use there. Under the old form of family government which prevailed in Japan for centuries, all massage work had been reserved entirely for the blind. No seeing person was permitted to engage in it. Recently, however, the profession has been invaded by seeing persons, and as a compensation the blind students in the schools are being taught an operation which for centuries has been known in Japan as a marvelous means of relieving pain from rheumatism, neuralgia or other suffering due to diseased or irritated nerves.

Acu-Puncture

Acu-Puncture

Acu-Puncture

This operation is known as Hari or Acu-puncture, and is performed with a silver instrument of hair-like fine-ness. The operator first massages the painful part until the surface is displayed, and many orders are sessificitly benumbed, and then begins to insert the needle. He gently pushes it deep into the flesh until it reaches and punctures the diseased nerve. Relief is instantaneous. On account of the pliability of the needle, and the dexterity of the blind operator, this operation is accomplished without the slightest pain to the patient. The sture of each sit quite worth the price asked for it, as dents in the school gain dexterity by practicing upon each other and upon the poor patients who come in for fire treatment after the custom of cilicles in this country.

The Library for the Blind not only distributes books, but aids the afflicted presentation

FRANK R. ROBERSON WORLD'S GREATEST TRAVELER

In a Picturesque and Pertinent Picture-Tour-

TO-NIGHT Chestnut St. Auditorium YOU WILL VISIT Madeira, Spain, Southern France, the shore lines of Italy, Palestine, Egypt and the Dardanelles-the narrow strip of water in front of Constantinople where Turk and Christian are engaged in one of the mightiest of world-battles.

MOTION PICTURES: Champagne making in France; Mount Vesuvius in eruption; a trip about the pyramids of old Egypt and street scenes in Turkish cities.

Monday The Land of The Midnight Sun

A Travelogue of rare charm and beauty—Imposing Fjords — Plunging Waterfalls — Magnificent Mountain Scenery—Quaint People.

Musical Program-

Each Evening, 7.30 to 8.15. MISS SARA LEMER, Violin. CHARLES MACKEY, Piano.

COMING-

LAST WEEK
Tuesday Evening—"California and the Exposition."
Wednesday Evening—"Germany."
Friday Evening—"Italy."
Saturday Evening—"London and Paris." School Matinee, Monday—"Germany and the War."

ADMISSION - with coupon on first page 10c of the Telegraph. SEAT IN RESERVE SECTION—25¢

SHE WRITES AS FOLLOW TO THE HERPICIDE CO.

For the past two years I have been a constant user of Herpicide. It has done wonders for my hair. Herpicide shall always be in a prominent place in my home and in the theater. I can assure you it is a pleasure for me to say a good word for Herpicide and without any solicitation. Sincerely yours,

Joan Sawyer.

It certainly is significant that Miss Sawyer, "The High Priestess of Terpsichore," enjoying as she does exceptional opportunities to know the best, should select Newbro's Herpicide to preserve the beauty of her hair.

To Miss Sawyer in her professional career personal attractiveness and appearance is of prime importance.

Hence her choice of Newbro's Herpicide may be accepted by beautiful women everywhere as conclusive proof of the exceeding merit of this well known scalp prophylactic and hair dress-

For the eradication of dandruff and to prevent loss of hair Herpicide is recognized as being in a class distinctly and singularly its own. It is a delightful and refreshing hair dressing.

Stops itching due to dandruff almost instantly.

Sold and Guaranteed at all toilet goods counters. Send 10 cents for booklet and sample bottle to the HER-PICIDE CO., Dept. 129 B, DETROIT, MICH.

See window display at Kennedy's Medicine Store, 321 Market St.

Special Agents.