

The ADPAGE FAMILY ANTHOLOGY No. 1

JOHN ADPAGE, SR.

For twenty-five years I have lived On and by the Harrisburg Telegraph. It has helped build up my business, It has helped educate me and my family. I might say that it gave me my start in life, And introduced me to Mrs. Adpage. So you see I have a romantic as well as a practical Interest in the Telegraph. I have eaten it, worn it and read it For a quarter of a century.

When I came to the city from downstate Twenty-five years ago, A gawky country boy seeking a fortune, I had nothing but willingness and strength And ambition to recommend me. I had no influential friends and Mighty little money. It was when I was "broke" and almost in despair, That a Telegraph Want Ad brought me a job— And I have prospered ever since.

But it is queer how a fellow's mind Sometimes overlooks the simple and obvious; That fellow Poe said something about things Being "Concealed in the Obvious," And now I see what he meant. Six weeks ago I lost my mill superintendent, Who went into business for himself. I thought I should never be able to replace him, And for awhile it looked as though I could not— Competent men all seemed to be engaged— Then I thought, "Why not try the Telegraph?" And I did—and got my man! For the Telegraph put the "class" in "Classified." And high class people read it!

find "yours"

Get all the smoke-pleasure you pay for. Find the right cigarette—a SENSIBLE one that fits your own likes and dislikes.

It may or may not be Fatima

—but this will help you find it.

Tastes differ—in fashions, foods and pretty girls. Also in cigarettes. A cigarette that started out to please every man's taste would end up by pleasing none. Most of us like our cigarette smoke deliciously cool and refreshing. The Mexican likes his hot and dry, with a nice little peppery sting in it. Some men like a cigarette wholesomely, fragrantly mild. Others of us hunt for a cigarette almost as heavy as a black cigar. Most of us want an "easy" cigarette—a SENSIBLE one, so that no matter how steadily or how many we smoke, we'll feel as fit as a fiddle. Other men, though, don't care about that. They smoke only a few—so they want a kick like a mule's in each puff. All of us want our smoke "full-bodied"—it must satisfy that smoke-hunger. But the cigarette that just fills the bill for you may not do at all for your next-door neighbor.

flavor. But if you smoke quite often—if you would like to smoke whenever you feel like it and without any effect on the tongue or throat or any fear of a heavy or "heady" feeling afterwards—then you should choose some cigarette such as Fatima, a cigarette composed of all-pure tobaccos of considerable aroma, mellowed by being aged and carefully blended to produce a fragrant and wholesomely mild, yet "full-bodied," smoke. And the smoke must be noticeably COOL. For otherwise your tongue or your throat will soon signal you to stop smoking so often.

If you will ask any Fatima smoker, he will tell you that Fatimas never make him "feel mean"—no matter how many he smokes. That is why Fatimas are considered the most sensible cigarette by such a large majority of smokers. And that is probably the main reason why hardly any Fatima smokers ever switch! They like a sensible cigarette—and one with a good, pure taste to it.

But the Taste is up to You

All cigarettes are pure, but when it comes to the taste, nobody can help you choose. You simply have to decide for yourself.

Of course, Fatima's taste may not appeal to you. But most men who try Fatimas like the taste so well that they seek no further—otherwise Fatimas could never have won and held their enormous and growing leadership amounting to over one and a half BILLION cigarettes a year.

Somewhere—among all the brands on the market—is the one just-right cigarette for YOU! Maybe it's the very one you have now in your pocket—but are you SURE? Maybe it's some entirely "different" cigarette—it may or may not be Fatima. But "find it!" Until you do, you're cheating yourself out of a whole lot of smoke-pleasure. Also you're wasting some money.

How to Find "yours"

To avoid blindly trying too many different cigarettes, ask yourself, first of all, this question: "Just what do I like in a cigarette?" If you smoke only a few every day, you may prefer a cigarette which is rather rich or heavy and "oily." Or you may like one which has a rather strong "oriental" taste with a pungency almost like perfume. Or you may want a cigarette with that noticeably "sweetish" Egyptian

The one purpose of this advertisement is to ask you in a fair and square way to give Fatimas (20 for 15c) a good trial. If they don't happen to suit your taste, you'll quit smoking them of course. But if you like Fatimas as well as MOST men do, you'll be mighty glad you read this advertisement—and ACTED ON IT!

Below are two simple tests which you can easily make and which may help you find your sensible cigarette. It may or may not be Fatima. But be fair to yourself and find "yours."

TWO TESTS FOR ANY CIGARETTE. The taste of the cigarette—according to a leading tobacco journal—is up to the smoker. But there are other qualities that you should look for in a cigarette that may help the average smoker to choose more wisely between different kinds of cigarettes. The first test is for coolness, which means more comfort to the throat and tongue. Light any cigarette. Draw in a cloud of smoke—a small, ordinary puff in your mouth for a few seconds. Let it "float" around against your tongue and throat. Now blow out a high grade cigarette. If the cigarette contains a high grade of mild tobacco leaves, combined in just the right proportion, it will always feel cool and smooth both to your throat and to your tongue. On the other hand, if the proportions are not right and if the cigarette contains inferior grades of tobacco or hidden strands of rank, oily leaf, you will feel a snipping sting at the tip of your tongue or that "sandpaper tickle" in your throat. Test number two—How do you feel after smoking all day? If the tobaccos in the cigarette include a correct proportion of mild grades—and if they have been properly mellowed by age—and if they have been so blended as to bring out the best qualities in each of the different types of tobaccos, you will be able to smoke practically whenever you feel like it through the day without feeling any effect from it. But with another cigarette in which the blend is less skillful, even though the tobaccos are of the highest grade, you will find along towards the end of the day that you are likely to have that feeling of having "smoked too much."

UNCOVER OLD MINE PILE. Believed Honey Brook Blase Was Extinguished 25 Years Ago. Special to The Telegraph.

Hazleton, Nov. 9. — The Lehigh and Wilkes-Barre Coal Company is fighting a fire at Honey Brook Colliery No. 1, believed to have been extinguished twenty-five years ago. Stripping operations at the west end of the basin of anthracite uncovered the flames that were eating up measures flooded in the eighties. Two thousand feet of water-line was laid yesterday to carry slush, water and ashes to another fire.

In 1906, when the water was tapped from Honey Brook, nine men were choked to death by white damp found in the workings as a residue from the mine fire twenty years previous. No further trace of the blase was encountered, and it is believed it raged in rock crevices out off by falls of rock from the body of coal that was being worked.

Recall of Dr. Dumba Formally Announced. Special to The Telegraph.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 9. — Baron Zwiadnek, charge d'affaires of the Austro-Hungarian embassy, delivered to Secretary Lansing yesterday formal notification of the recall of Dr. Constantine T. Dumba, whose withdrawal as Austro-Hungarian Ambassador was requested by the United States on account of his plan for fomenting strikes in American munitions plants.

Informal notice of the recall of Dr. Dumba, who returned home more than a month ago, was given on September 28.
