How to Have the Best Cough Remedy and Save $2 by Making it at Home

Cough medicines, as a rule contain a large quantity of plain syrup. A pint of granulated sugar with 1/2 pint of warm water, stirred for 2 minutes, gives you as good syrup as money can buy.

Then get from your druggist 2 1/2 ounces Pinex (50 cents worth), pour into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with sugar syrup. This gives you, at a cost of only 54 cents, a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready made for $2.50—a clear saving of nearly $2. Full directions with Pinex. It keeps perfectly and tastes good.

It takes hold of the usual cough or chest cold at once and conquers it in 24 hours. Splendid for whooping cough, bronchitis and winter coughs.

RAILROAD NEWS

BRIDGE RUMORS STIR UP SUNBURY

Railroad Officials Believe 4-Track Structure Is Near Future Certainty

Sunbury, Pa., Nov. 9.—The mysterious presence of railroad engineers, who have been busy making surveys at the bridges between Northumberland, Packer's Island and Sunbury; rumors that the State Water Commission wants bridges built stronger, and the strengthening of the piers and the building of concrete ice-breakers has led railroad men here to believe that a four-track bridge is to replace the present two-track steel structure from Sunbury to Northumberland.

The railroad bridges here, since the revival of traffic, have been taxed to their capacity handling the Susquehanna, Shamokin and Sunbury division traffic to and from the yards. Heavier rolling stock, as in the case of the Reading, makes an exceedingly strong bridge necessary, and four, instead of two tracks, have been required for many months. Prominent railroad men said that they were not in a position to give out facts now, but they had the opinion that they would not be surprised to see such a bridge here within a short time.

Promotion For Firemen Result of Heavy Traffic

Altoona, Pa., Nov. 9.—To handle the great volume of traffic, the Pennsylvania Railroad has been obliged to promote yard and road firemen to engineers, it was announced yesterday.

national Brewing Company's plant to enter the "Bear Pit" they heard a fusillade of shots. A few minutes later an excited foreigner dashed up to them and begged the squire to "Come up to Franklin street, where a man was shot."

Immediately the two officers started up Main street on a run. At Franklin street they were met by a crowd of a hundred excited men, who told them that a "bad man" had cut loose with a revolver on Ralph Miller, but had not injured him. Miller was too excited to tell where the gunman had gone.

The crowd, however, had watched the squire sprang at the man, who did not attempt to check him. The crowd pointed out the gunman to the squire, who set out in pursuit. At Main and Francis streets Squire Gardner saw the gunman and called to him to stop.

The gunman fled. Although unarmed, the squire pursued. In Main street, a short distance from the fireman's home, at the upper end of the Reading railroad and barricaded himself beneath a car. The crowd scurried to points of safety as the gunman fired the second shot.

Halting a passing auto truck, driven by a son of Patrolman James Pearson, Squire Gardner went to the patrolman's home, at the upper end of the West Side, and obtained a weapon. Then he returned.

As Gardner approached the gunman crawled beneath the car. Gardner mounted the opposite end of the car and cautiously worked his way forward. When above the gunman Gardner called to him to surrender. But again the man fled. Through the narrow alleys and streets he ran, closely followed by Gardner, with the crowd at a safe distance in the rear, until the small Pennsylvania canal was reached.

Still at a run, the gunman leaped across a low fence and sprang into the canal in an attempt to reach the other side. Rapidly Gardner drew nearer him. As the gunman waded into the center of the stream the deep mud entangled his feet and Gardner pursued to the edge of the stream. The Pointblank shot at his pursuer. This time Gardner returned the fire. Here the two men stood facing each other, guns in hand.

"Drop your gun and surrender," called the squire. "Drop your gun or I'll fire," threatened the squire. The revolver was dropped and Gardner sprang into the water and took the man into custody.

The gunman was lodged in the borough lockup, where he declines to give his name. He is a Southerner, about 24 years of age, weighs about 130 pounds. He was in the penitentiary three times, he told the officers.

Squire Gardner's clothes were torn to tatters and he suffered many bruises in the chase. None of the bullets fired at him had any serious effect, although they cut his clothes.

NEWSPAPERMEN ARE ENTERTAINED

Press Representatives Dined by Mayor Inouye, of Kioto, Japan

Kioto, Japan, Nov. 9, 11.30 a. m.—Many diplomats and special envoys who have arrived here to attend the coronation ceremonies are quartered at the Kioto Hotel which has been refurbished from cellar to roof. Every article used was manufactured under the direction of the Imperial household, constituting one of the items in the $5,000,000 budget provided to pay the expenses of the coronation.

Press representatives were entertained at the hotel by Mayor Inouye at a historic Japanese dinner, ancient dances presented by Geisha Girls took the guests back a thousand years in the history of the empire.

The mayor paid tribute to the important role the press has played in promoting the progress of Japan and like the mayors of American cities he took advantage of the opportunity to point out the attractiveness of Kioto and the great industrial advance it has made.

Many of the Americans in the city attended the celebration of the fortieth anniversary of the Doshisha Christian college which is supported largely by the subscriptions of Americans and which was founded by Joseph Neesima, who ran away from Kioto and settled in Boston in 1853.

All the members of the cabinet are here and when they are not engaged in affairs for the coronation they are considering the Chinese question. They are said to believe that President Yuan Shi Kai is disposed to postpone his enthronement as emperor for a time even if he finds it "impossible" to check the monarchist movement. The impression gained here is that Japan regards the policies of the Chinese president as hostile to Japanese influence.

"Why their personal or political enemies, Mayor?" still probed the inquisitive Mr. Taylor. "O, political, I think. I don't suppose I've got any personal enemies in the city."

"Well," smiled Mr. Taylor, "I suppose we've all got political enemies in our department."

"Et Tu Gorgas?" "Why not this go over for a week?" inquired Mr. Lynch. "This is new to me. I'd like to know a little more about it."

"Why haven't you reported other acts to council, Mayor, if things have been going as you have said" went on Mr. Taylor. "Why do you just report this case to Council?"

"Suppose we let it go over for a week," again suggested Mr. Lynch. "Well, I don't see why it shouldn't be postponed for a week," agreed Mr. Gorgas. "It would be just as well to hold it over until we can familiarize ourselves with the matter. I'll second Mr. Lynch's motion."

President Wilson Sends Flowers to Dying Woman Washington, Oct. 9. — Roses from the White House conservatory cheered the last hours of Mrs. Mary Taliaferro Mear Thompson, a Daughter of the Confederacy who died at the Sibley Hospital yesterday, a few hours after the passage of the day that marked the fiftieth anniversary of her marriage. The flowers were sent to her by President Wilson, Mrs. Thompson clutched the roses in her hand when she died. By her bedside knelt her husband, Magnus Thompson, a librarian in the War Department and a veteran of the Confederate army. When President Wilson learned Sunday of Mrs. Thompson he sent a large bouquet to the dying woman. In brief intervals of consciousness before her death Mrs. Thompson saw the flowers and learned from whom they had come.

Fifty years ago Mr. Thompson, who was then a private in the Confederate army, was convalesced at Berryville, Va., from wounds received in battle. Among the young women who attended the wounded was Miss Miller. The wounded soldier fell in love with her and they were married when the war was over.

AN EASY WAY TO END CATARRH FOREVER

Simple Home Treatment Destroys Germs of This Dangerous Disease

The reason why so many people who suffer from Catarrh never seem able to get cured is that they are continually seeking the momentary relief of sprays, douching, greasy creams, ointments, etc. Such things do absorb in the swollen nostrils and clear the head temporarily, besides stopping for a while the disgusting blowing, lawking, sneezing and choking, but they never cure. To drive out Catarrh for good you have got to get down to the real cause, Catarrh is a germ disease. The air is always full of catarrh germs thrown off by one person and absorbed by another and when the system does fail to throw off such germs they find permanent lodgment in the nose, throat and head and multiply rapidly.

The germs of catarrh can be best destroyed by inhaling the medicated air of Hyomei (pronounced High-oh-mey). This splendid and powerful combination of oil of Eucalyptus with other healing agents has a wonderful germicidal action. You breathe its air into your nose, throat and lungs its air into your chest and it breaks up the germs of a small hard rubber inhaler which is sold in every drug store. The Hyomei supply with every treatment. This medicated air is so potent that it completely out of your system and when the germs are absorbed by the system with all its disagreeable symptoms will stop. Even two or three minutes' use will give refreshing relief, while if you will use it two or three times a day for a few weeks it will completely banish catarrh and every symptom of catarrh. As Hyomei is pleasant to breathe and is always sold by druggists everywhere with a positive guarantee of successful results or money back, surely no Catarrhal sufferer should go long before trying this simple home remedy.—Advertisement.
