Appendicitis Claims Player at Bucknell

Special to The Telegraph

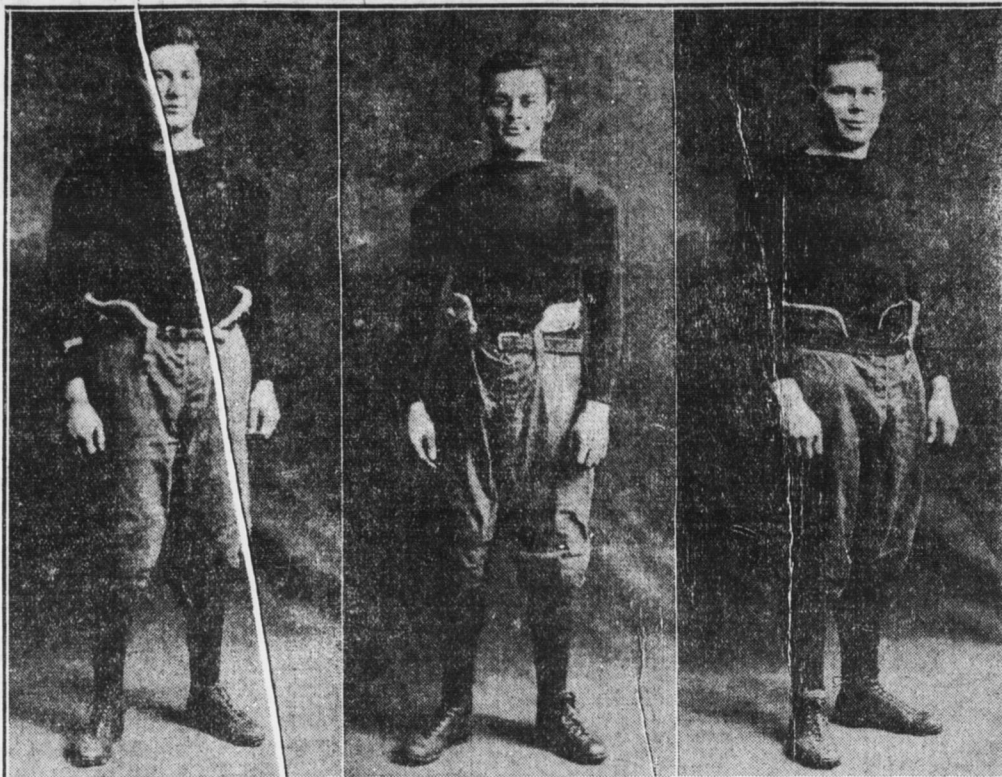

Lewisburg, Pa., Nov. 12.—There was little life to the Bucknell team yesterday on account of the general sorrow caused by the announcement of the death of Elmer E. Pettit, a Junior in college, who has played substitute end on the Varsity this season. Pettit was one of the most popular young men in college. His home is at Woodstown, N. J. He entered Bucknell from the High school at that place. Pettit was injured internally and a victim of an attack of appendicitis in the New York University game on election day.

Football is in no way blamed for his death, as this player has not been in scrimmage work for nearly two weeks. The boy's father reached his bedside a few hours before he died. Pettit was a member of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity.

SENATORS LAND VICTORY

The Senators won over the Orpheans last night in the Casino League series; scores, 2601 to 2505. Barnes made 215 and 581 for high scores. The next game will be played Monday night between the Jolly Five and the Senators.

GETTYSBURG WARRIORS LOOK STRONG FOR BUCKNELL GAME

When Gettysburg lines up against Bucknell at Island Park to-morrow afternoon, the battlefield boys will not depend upon any one man, but boast of an aggregation of stars. Captain McCullough whose picture appears on the left of the top group is a great leader; Weigle in the center has won many laurels, by good work on the end; and Scheffer, the Harburg boy, on the right has always been a big factor in victories. At the bottom, on the left is Buehler, another star doing end work; and next to him is "Topsy" Hoar who may not get into the game because of injuries. Emanuel, a former Tech tackle is also on the Gettysburg team. The battle to-morrow afternoon starts at 2:30 o'clock. The Bucknell team will reach Harrisburg to-night and the rosters with the varsity band are scheduled to arrive at noon to-morrow. The Gettysburg contingent will arrive over the Reading railroad at 11 o'clock. The seat sale at J. H. Messersmith's store, 212 Market street, indicates a record attendance.

Central Principal Is For Student Council

Howard G. Dibble, principal of the Central high school, proposed a plan to the students of the school to-day by which a student council should be elected by the student body to act as a mediator between the students and the principal. According to Mr. Dibble's plan, he would have two members of each class represented on this council, a boy and a girl. The nominations will take place next week and the elections will likely follow immediately.

"Its harsh and unsympathetic tone will not make us relax in the slightest degree the grip on the throat of Germany which our sea power gives us. We shall answer the note politely and in a much more human spirit than that which inspires its words, but we shall answer it firmly. That we must do whatever the consequences, but there will be no consequences."

TO MAKE "EXTRA LIST" OF VOTERS?

Perplexing Question Brought to Attention of County Commissioners
How can a willing would-be voter, who has paid no tax nor has not even been assessed within two years, register to vote at the May primary? That new registration problem cropped up in the county commissioners' office today when several representatives of a lot of Philadelphia and Reading railroad men called to inquire how their fellow workmen could get upon the registration books under the circumstances, in order to vote in the Spring. One day 'tis true, has been set aside for registration but the assessment books for 1916 will not be issued until July 1. This precludes their chances of being assessed and paying taxes for 1916, in time to cast a vote at the May primaries.
Squire J. H. Stock, the election sharp of the commissioners' office, suggested that the men attend promptly to the duty of having themselves assessed for 1915 and that they pay their taxes before the tax collectors turn in their duplicates. This would give the voters a chance to register for the May primaries. The additional names can be reported on an "extra list." Col. F. M. Ott, county solicitor thinks this might be legally done although he will give the commissioners an opinion on the subject.
First Completed Tax Duplicate In.—A record for early returns of 1915 tax duplicate was established this morning when Frank A. Boyer, of Uniontown, turned in his books to the county authorities.
Realty Transfers.—Catherine D. Hartman's trustees to Alice M. Henninger, Berresburg, $2600; C. A. Kunkel et al to Martha Swartz, Kensington street, near Home alley, $1,600; Abram Dubin to State, 508 Pihbert street, $2475; Shearer Realty Company to Byrum C. Behney, 244-54 North Fourth, $12; B. S. Kaufman to Ella F. Kaufman, Highspir $1000.

DIFFENBACH BACK ON CENTRAL TEAM

Had Light Practice Yesterday; New Plays Against Reading Tomorrow
The football squad of Central High school held a secret practice this afternoon in order that new plays might be practiced in preparation for the game to-morrow at Reading. The Berks county aggregation is fast and formidable and will likely be the strongest team to meet Central this season. Rote did not play yesterday, but Diffenbach was in a suit for the first time since he sustained an injured knee at Pottsville. He will likely play against Reading. It is probable he may be put on the line instead of resuming his old position on the back field.
Coaches Are Anxious
Coaches Smith and Harris are making every effort to get the team into the best of form as they want to win in "Peetzeltown."
One hundred students for Central will make the trip to Reading and are preparing to cheer the team to victory. Mass meetings are being held daily in preparation for the Steelton and Tech games. The probable line-up to-morrow will be:
