WILL CELEBRATE THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING

MR. AND MRS. AMOS R. STONER

INVITATIONS OUT FOR CELEBRATION

Mr. and Mrs. Stoner of Penbrook Reached Fiftieth Milestone in Marriage Journey

Special to The Telegraph
Penbrook, Pa., Nov. 13.—Amos R. Stoner and Mrs. Harriet A. Stoner, both residents of this town for the past twelve years, will mark their golden wedding celebration with an old-fashioned house warming Tuesday, starting at 10 o'clock in the morning and continuing until 10 in the evening. More than a hundred invitations have been sent to relatives and friends of the surrounding country, and to make the occasion more interesting to the aged couple the Penbrook band will give a concert Tuesday evening at their home at Twenty-seventh and Canby streets.

Previous to their residence in this town they resided at the Stoner farm, near West Hanover township, which has since been purchased by an educational association. Despite his old age Mr. Stoner still reads newspapers and is active, his boast being that he will meet all comers despite differences in age in croquet. He is 78 years old and his wife is 80.

Mr. Stoner met his wife during the civil war, when he served for four years and a half with the Ninth Pennsylvania Volunteer Cavalry. During most of the time he was with General Sherman and marched on the famous march from "Atlanta to the sea." While in camp with the rank of corporal he was sent with a party for supplies and, applying at the home of Charles Chitty, a Union sympathizer, met his wife. After the war he returned and the couple were married. "During much of the time he was fighting against her brother, Solomon Chitty, of Winston, S. C., who will be present at the celebration.

That the marriage was not looked upon with favor is certain from the inscription in the records of the Methodist Church at Freeburg, N. C.: "Sister Harriet Chitty married a Yankee of Sherman's army, Nov. 16, 1865."

Despite their age both are in good health, although the wife is crippled and not able to walk. Six children, John, of Lingiestown; Albert and William, this town; Mrs. Anne G. Paxton, of Enola; Mrs. Elizabeth Denton, of this town; and Mrs. Elizabeth Denton, of this town, were born to the couple, and there are fifteen grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Plans are being made to make this celebration the greatest one of its kind ever held in this town. Many local people will attend the celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter P. Whipple, of Pittsburgh, and small son, Leonard Whipple, have gone home after visiting relatives in this city for ten days.

Miss Ada Forry, of Columbia, is spending the week-end with Mrs. Charles Nelson Fry at the Commercial Apartments.

Mrs. Henry Stewart Fry, of Philadelphia, went home this morning after spending ten days with her sister, Mrs. William Penn Nelson, in this city.

ANOTHER

DOLLAR HAT DAY

Bigger and Better Than Last Week

Actual Values $2.50 to $4.00

One Thousand Hats at One Dollar

Hundreds of the Newest Winter Shapes

When we announced our Great Dollar Hat Sale for last Monday we advertised that this would be the only Dollar Hat Sale this season—we meant what we said at the time, but—

We Changed Our Mind

A thousand hats came our way during the week—they were offered to us so low that we could not resist the temptation to buy—and the many hundreds of our customers who could not be waited on last Monday, and the many who were unable to attend the sale last Monday will gladly welcome this opportunity. An entire new stock of silk velvet and Hatter's plush hats valued at $2.50, $3.00, $3.50, and $4.00, will be put on sale again this Monday—beginning at 9.30.

AGAIN WE SAY

We will not try to describe to you what kind of hats will be sold for a dollar, but as on last Monday we will offer to you your unrestricted choice of any hat displayed on any of the seventeen large millinery tables in our untripped hat section.

FOR ONE DOLLAR

You Will Find Any Kind of a Hat You Want at This Price

We ask your kind indulgence if we do not give you the attention we would like to at this sale. We had twenty-five salesgirls on the floor last Monday—all we could muster up—but they were unable to handle the trade—but we'll do the best we can—so kindly help us along and make this a great big rousing and cheerful day for you and our girls.

Every hat in this sale is clean, new and perfect, of highest quality, and the shapes are the very latest for midwinter wear. The most complete assortment of hats ever shown by any store in this country. Large, small and medium shapes—a wonderful variety to select from.

WHITE RIBBONERS ARE ENTERTAINED

Mrs. S. O. Goho Gives Dinner of Thirty Covers at the Commonwealth Today

Mrs. S. O. Goho, president of the Harrisburg W. C. T. U., invited the executives of the city union and a few personal friends to attend a dinner of thirty covers to-day at the Commonwealth hotel.

The event was held in a private dining room with appointments of white and green, three artistic baskets of chrysanthemums gracing the table. Mrs. M. M. Stees, superintendent of the Dauphin county W. C. T. U. received the guests with Mrs. Goho.

After dinner talks were given by Mrs. Frank L. Holsapple on "The W. C. T. U. Work in Relation to Other Temperance Organizations"; by Mrs. M. M. Stees on "Temperance Progress"; by Miss Cora Lee Snyder on "The Press in Relation to Temperance"; by Mrs. Henry W. A. Hanson on "Temperance in Church Work"; and by Mrs. John De Gray on "What Next." Mrs. Goho was toastmistress and several of the ladies cleverly responded to her.

The guests included Mrs. Samuel Gardner, Mrs. J. H. Kase, Mrs. S. A. D. Barr, Mrs. Harry Leonard, Mrs. Henry W. A. Hanson, Miss Snyder, Mrs. M. M. Stees, Mrs. Holsapple, Mrs. H. B. Hartzler, Mrs. Margaret Ellenberger, Mrs. E. A. Reigle, Mrs. J. M. Rebeck, Mrs. John DeGray, Mrs. S. A. Fishburn, Mrs. William E. Houston, Mrs. C. E. King, Mrs. William H. Cooper, Mrs. Ola Mursten, Mrs. C. M. Spahr, Mrs. Laura St. Clair and Miss Emma C. Mower.

Mr. and Mrs. Kurzenkabe Have Long Wedded Life

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kurzenkabe, of Camp Hill, who are celebrating the fifty-sixth anniversary of their marriage to-day, are among the best known people of this vicinity. For over forty years Professor Kurzenkabe conducted a music house in North Third street and his reputation as a musician, composer and singer is more than state-wide.

Ten of the fifteen children born to them are living. They are: John Kurzenkabe and George Kurzenkabe, of Chicago; Francis, of Louisville, Ky.; Norman, Harry and Paul, of this city; Mrs. Sue Mueller, of Albany; Mrs. Lillie Andjubar, of Porto Rico; Mrs. George Shaffer, of Champlain, Ill., and Miss Flora Kurzenkabe, of Camp Hill.

Miss Mabel Carroll and Miss Lucy Carroll, of Jersey City, are guests of their cousin, Miss Nelle Richards, of State street.

Mrs. Robert McKelvey and daughter, Margaret Lee McKelvey, have returned to Titusville after visiting Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Orth, of State street.

Mrs. Bertram Wilson and daughter, Miss Lisle Wilson, of Johnstown, are visiting their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Hobart White, of State street, for the week-end.

HUNTERS SHOOT BULL

Waynesboro, Pa., Nov. 13.—A fine Guernsey bull belonging to Harvey Byers, living near Annville, was found in the barnyard suffering from the effects of gunshot wounds and shortly afterward the animal died. The bull had been shot by some reckless hunters after rabbits in the field where the animal was grazing.

Mr. Edison's Gift to Music Lovers

After four years of continuous labor, Thomas A. Edison, the world's greatest inventor, has given to the world a phonograph that can truly be called perfect—a real musical instrument. Music lovers, particularly, recognize Mr. Edison's triumph. They recognize in the New Edison Diamond Disc Phonograph that absolute fidelity to the original, that human, life-like tone that they have always hoped for but, until now, never had heard.

New Edison Diamond Disc Phonograph

The wonderful diamond stylus is the secret which gives to the New Edison its superior tone. It brings out those delicate overtones and fine shades of sound, preserved in the New Edison records, which give purity and richness. It has opened a new era in music.

Real Music at Last

The New Edison is a revelation to all who hear it. You cannot really appreciate it until you have heard it. Come in—we will be glad to play any record you choose without obligation. You will not be asked to purchase.
