

TO REVISE 1916 CITY ASSESSMENT UPWARD IS PLAN

Valuation as Fixed by Assessors Is Too Low Councilmen Say

INCREASE ONLY $1,505,845 OR 57 YEARS OLD

Decrease in First, Third and Fourth Wards Total Over $100,000

Revision 'upward' of the 1916 city triennial assessment as completed by the city assessors, will probably be made by City Council before it finishes sitting as a board of tax revision and appeals.

The net increase in city valuations as levied by the assessors totals only $1,505,845. Councilmen generally declare that these figures as compared to last year's assessment is much too small, that decreases were made where the values should have been the same, if not increased.

Council, it is understood, is determined to exert every effort to keep the city mill rate for 1916 at nine mills if possible, certainly not more than nine and a half. To keep the mill rate down will be impossible under the figures as submitted by the assessors, it is contended. This means that either the tax rate will have to be raised or the assessment revised 'upward' considerably.

The city assessment as compiled by the assessors shows a total valuation of $1,842,599 as against $60,336,754 for 1915. This means an increase of $1,806,552. However from this must be deducted a total of $160,688, which represents the decreases in the first, third and fourth wards.

Where There are Decreases In the fourth ward, councilmen contend, there should be an increase rather than a decrease in property valuations. The decrease amounts to $72,365. In the third ward the decrease is $35,793. This is brought about, it is said, by the clearing away of the Mulberry and Fourth street 'fire district.' However, councilmen hold that the clearing away of the buildings should not be counted as a total loss in valuation in view of the fact that the district will be built up in the near future. Furthermore it is pointed out, the owners of the destroyed properties reaped considerable benefit from the insurance. The first ward decrease totals $22,530. This is due in part to the inactivity of the old 'Lochlin mills' of the Pennsylvania Steel company and to the inactive

Mrs. Simon P. Griffith, aged 32, 1322 Herr street, who died suddenly while talking to Mrs. Michael Shaffer, with whom she lived, committed suicide by taking a slow-acting poison, according to coroner Eckinger.

At the time her husband was being sought by the police, charged with stealing an automobile, and was arrested a short time after. She is survived by her husband and a baby, Simon P., Jr. Funeral services will be held at the funeral chapel of C. H. Mauk, undertaker, Sixth and Kelker streets, the Rev. E. A. Pyles officiating. Mighty Mean Thing For Her to Do, Wasn't It?

Miss Romaine Boyer, a pretty Central high school lass, and Mark Phillips, the gallant Tech youth who took her to the Bucknell-Gettysburg game Saturday, only saw the first half of the gridiron battle. As a certain well-known cereal manufacturer says, "There's a reason," and here it is: Right in the midst of the most exciting forward pass a big, burly, brass-battened, blue-coated policeman came up, got into the auto in which Mark and Romaine were, and—think it or not!—arrested Mark! Said he had stolen the car, and made him drive to the police station.

At the police station? Why, there sat Mrs. P. J. Phillips, of 1833 Market street, talking to Captain Thompson, acting chief of police.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 15.—President Wilson to-day instructed Postmaster General Burleson to reinstate George Burkitt, removed as assistant postmaster at Winnetka, Ill., because he criticized the President for his engagement to be married. The President qualified his instructions by telling the Postmaster General that Burkitt should be restored to his position if there were no other charges against him.

Announcement of this action was made to-day by Secretary Tumulty after a brief conference with President Wilson. It was said unofficially that the President entirely disapproved of discharging Burkitt for making the remarks attributed to him.

Should Not Be Dropped In published correspondence between Burkitt and Postmaster Kloepper, of Winnetka, it was stated that Burkitt had been given demerits for other things than the remarks about the President's engagement. That Burkitt denied. The President did not go into that feature in his instructions to Postmaster General Burleson, but made it clear that Burkitt should not

WANT TO START MARRIED LIFE RIGHT? GET WEDDED AT PAXTANG

Burgess Smallwood Will Perform Ceremony Free, Pay For License and Give First Couple $5 in Gold

Burgess Thomas W. Smallwood, of Paxtang, retires from his office on January 1. Since the borough's incorporation the 'mayor' has had various duties to perform, such as signing new ordinances and issuing orders for the welfare of the community. In fact he has done all that the burgess of a small borough is empowered to do with the exception of performing a marriage ceremony. And this is just what he wants to do.

He explained to-day that in addition to having the honor of being the town's first burgess, he wanted to have the distinction of being the first burgess to perform a wedding in the town. His desire is not without its inducements.

SCHOOL PAYMENT IS FALLING SHORT

State Funds Will Not Permit of Rapid Sending Out of Checks to Districts

Unless there is a pronounced spurt in the revenues of the State before the close of the Commonwealth's year on November 30 the official year may end without the whole of the school appropriation being paid. Under the school code the school appropriations were payable in July, but it is doubtful if $3,000,000 has been paid out. Payments have been made as the money was in hand and several times the issuance of checks has been suspended because of the low state of the general fund.

Mustn't Harass "Thy Tired Husband"—Poor Dear!; and No Whist Prizes!

A unique set of laws governing women were given by the Rev. Dr. Clayton Albert Smucker, pastor of Stevens Memorial Episcopal Church, last evening in the first of his series of one man joint debates.

Speaking on "Perils and Rules of Conduct for Mothers," Dr. Smucker laid down the following "ten commandments":

I—Thou shalt have no man except thy husband.

II—Thou shalt place no club, social circle, pleasure organization or missionary society before thy home.

III—Thou shalt not waste thy husband's substance on gay raiment and vain show.

IV—Thou shalt not let the petty vexations of the household disrupt the family harmony and harass thy tired husband.

V—Thou shalt not feed thy family with idle gossip and neighborhood scandal.

VI—Thou shalt not fret thyself because thy neighbor's house is greater than thine, neither shalt thou declare to thy guests nor put up prizes at thy whist parties, lest thy moral advice to thy sons and daughters become a mockery.

VII—Thou shalt not pronounce thyself delighted to see an unwelcome caller, neither shalt thou declare to the conductor that thy 13-year-old child is of half fare age, lest thy heart become hollow and thy soul utterly false.

VIII—Thou shalt not wear showy dresses over shoddy underwear, nor shine with imitation jewelry, lest thy children be given to sham and false pretense.

IX—Thou shalt not allow thy Bible to gather dust, and thy attendance upon divine worship to be governed by caprice or the state of the weather, lest the altar fires of thy heart go out and thy children become Godless.

X—Thou shalt not allow thy Bible to gather dust, and thy attendance upon divine worship to be governed by caprice or the state of the weather, lest the altar fires of thy heart go out and thy children become Godless.
