TROOPER WALTERS DIES IN CHAIR

Henry A. Walters, Poor Director and Ex-Indian Fighter Yields to Heart Failure

The flanking trooper of the little detachment of anxious-eyed United States cavalrymen that raced across the level reaches of the Little Big Horn on a memorable day "way back in '76, listened intently with his hand to his ear for a moment and then turned to the man that rode at his side.

"Don't that sound like firin', Harry?" he asked.

The detachment was the relief expedition under Major Reno hurrying with all the speed the sweating, panting horses could make, to save General Custer from the famous massacre in the Little Big Horn valley.

For nearly six years Poor Director Walters served in the United States army. He was with Reno when that officer hastened in vain to the rescue of Custer.

His Political Career

Mr. Walters was employed by the Pennsylvania Railroad soon after he left the cavalry service.

For many years he took an active part in Democratic politics and in 1911 he was chosen county auditor.

He resigned that office in 1912 to become director of the poor.

He died at his home in Harrisburg, Pa., at 8:15 o'clock last evening. He was 62 years old.

SOCIAL SURGERY ON THE TWELVE

In the reclamation of man from a life of sin, and in the building up of character, the one most essential thing, next to the grace of God itself, is self-respect.

A Boverly mission convert is therefore very quickly introduced to the Free Labor Bureau, where every effort is made to secure him a position.

The men will be expected to work steadily, but there will be no unduly long hours.

DEAD MAN'S IDENTITY FIXED

That Dominic Tarantino and Joseph Bellini, the Italian who was found murdered more than a week ago in an empty powder plant in Beacon, N. Y., is one and the same man, is the opinion expressed in a letter to Detective Joseph Ibach from Joseph B. Kelly, superintendent of the prison department of New York State.

Eat a Square Meal and Not Fear Indigestion

There are hundreds of people in Harrisburg who were not the least bit surprised when they read in a newspaper that a guarantee to refund the money in case it did not relieve.

There is hardly a druggist but can tell you of many well-known people in this city who this remedy has restored to health, often after they have tried many other methods of treatment with little or no benefit.

The best kind of advertising is the praise of a pleased customer, and there are hundreds to-day praising Mi-o-na because it has done for them what it is advertised to do.

3000 Greek Coal Miners

are employed in one coal mining district and are now awaiting a call to arms.

The present supply of labor at the collieries is inadequate. If more men leave to go home to fight conditions certainly will be serious.

To prepare coal properly experienced labor is required. It takes time to teach men to do the work so that the coal you get does not contain lots of slate bone and other impurities.

You can get high grade coal now—no one can tell what will be shipped when the weather gets very cold.
