Paris, Nov. 17.—William G. Sharp, the American ambassador, presided over a meeting of the American colony at the American Chamber of Commerce yesterday. The object of the meeting was the organizing of the union of neutral colonies in France, recently founded under the patronage of President Poincare to aid maimed and blinded soldiers.

CARTOONISTS AND SCHOOL-MA'AMS

"What sort of school experiences must the cartoonists have had," asks a writer in Cartoons Magazine, "that he remembers only the ugliness of his schooling? Did you ever know a cartoonist to represent a schoolroom as a pleasant place? Did you ever see a cartoon depicting a schoolma'am as an attractive woman? Perhaps it would not be a cartoon if it did, but the average schoolroom of to-day is certainly attractive, and the average American woman teacher is anything but the lady demon she is represented."

SEALS AGAIN PLENTIFUL

"Stop Winding Bobbins"

The Eldredge Slogan During a Three Days' Demonstration of

Eldredge Two-Spool Sewing Machines

"No Bobbins to Wind!" What a revelation to the busy woman whose sewing takes up her time, and which often times tries her patience, especially when she must waste time to wind bobbins.

Wasted time, it surely is, for in one season the time spent in winding bobbins is sufficient for the making of one to three dresses. And can you imagine what it means to dressmakers?

We Have an Expert Who Will Tell You All About This Wonderful Eldredge Two-Spool Sewing Machine, Thursday, Friday & Saturday

It sews direct from two spools, and has no bobbin at all—the only machine without a bobbin making a back stitch.

Useful Souvenir to Every Woman Who Visits the Fifth Floor

A Bias Binding Cutting Gauge which attaches to the scissors, enabling you to cut any size of bias banding, easily, quickly and absolutely straight. We request only that the receiver's name is given and the make of machine now in use.

Thursday we will start our Fall Sewing Machine Club Plan, through which any responsible person may join and enjoy the privilege of gradual payments on the purchase of a Sewing Machine. One dollar makes you a member of this Club and sends the Machine to your Home.
