LONG PRACTICE BY INDEPENDENTS

Role May Not Be Able to Play in Game Against Shamokin

The Independents held a long practice at Chestnut Street Auditorium yesterday afternoon in preparation for their opening game with Shamokin Saturday night.

The new men were given a thorough workout. It is probable one of them may get a chance in Saturday's game in Rote's place.

Dancing this season will continue until 11.30 p. m. Many of last year's patrons felt that 11 o'clock was too early to stop dancing and for that reason the time has been lengthened.

Froehlich's orchestra (formerly Loeser's) will play for the dances.

Mr. Froehlich, the new leader, recently returned to Harrisburg after two years in New York city.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 18.—Tom Shevlin put the Yale football team through the final practice of the season in the Bowl yesterday.

There was some hard work this week, but none of the men have suffered hurts as a result.

Labor Shortage In Coal Regions

The labor shortage in some districts is becoming acute. Recent statements were to the effect that sailing of emigrants in recent months was very heavy.

Reports from one coal producing district shows that it contains 3,000 Greeks who are subject to a call to arms and who may leave at any time.

Recent sailing of Italians have been heavy. The result is a shortage of labor at the mines for which reason the productive capacity has been much decreased.

There is no telling what kind of coal you are apt to get when winter begins in earnest.

We are advising all our customers to put in a full supply. Are your bins full?

ENWRIGHT QUITS HARVARD RANKS

Star Ineligible According to Ruling; Even Money That Crimson Team Wins

Special to The Telegraph

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 18.—A few hours after Coach Houghton, of the Harvard football team, had learned that Tom Enwright would not be available for the game with Yale because of scholastic difficulties he told a mass meeting of students last night that next Saturday's game was an even-money proposition.

"These 2 to 1 bets are all bunk," he said. "I want to tell you that the facts do not warrant such odds. It is an even-money proposition. Yale has had a poor team this season, but the Bulldog has come back with a rush, and they are all right now, be sure. I have a wholesome respect for Tom Shevlin and his works."

Captain Mahan told the undergraduates that credit for Harvard's football success during the past eight years was due to Coach Houghton alone.

"Yale gets most of the preparatory school start, but Houghton has developed nearly all of Harvard's by his system," said Mahan.

TECH AT NEW BLOOMFIELD

Tech eleven yesterday journeyed to New Bloomfield for a scrimmage practice with the Academy eleven of that place.

For two hours both teams worked hard. The local eleven was given five new formations in preparation for the Allentown game on Saturday. New Bloomfield Academy offered strong opposition. It is probable that Coach Whitney will have to use several substitutes in Saturday's game.

Harris is out with an injured eye.
