WOMEN! HERE IS A MONEY SAVER

Use gasoline to dry clean family's clothes and save $5.

Dry cleaning at home is just as simple as laundering. Any woman can clean five dollars worth in fifteen minutes at little cost by getting from the drug store two ounces of solvite and put this in two gallons of gasoline, where it quickly dissolves. Then immerse articles to be cleaned; rub a little and in a few moments the gasoline evaporates and the articles look bright and fresh as new.

You can dry clean silk waists, dresses, coats, ribbons, kid gloves, satin shoes, evening slippers, shawls, belts, yokes, furs, boas, huffs, necktes, lawns, dimity and chiffon dresses, draperies fine laces, lace curtains, woolen garments, in fact, any and everything that would be ruined by yoap and water as dry cleaning doesn't fade, shrink or wrinkle, making pressing unnecessary.

Your grover or any garage will support the execution and surgery and water as dry cleaning doesn't fade, shrink or wrinkle, making pressing unnecessary.

Your grocer or any garage will supply the gasoline and you can obtain two ounces of solvite at the drug store, which is simply a gasoline soap. Then a wash boiler or large dishpan completes your dry cleaning outfit.

As gasoline is very inflammable, be sure to do your dry cleaning out of doors or in a room away from fire or flame, with the windows left open.—Advertisement.

COUNTRY CLUB GOLF

Golfers of the Country Club of Harrisburg played the game vesterday on the links at Lucknow while the smoke still rose from the coal piles which are burning in the ruins of their burned clubhouse and more were out today. Interest continues so high that the golf committee has arranged to have a golf event for Saturday afternoon. This will likely be a handicap tournament of some kind to which both men and women will be eligible.

It was also decided last night to retain the golf links, tennis courts and baseball grounds in use until April. 1917. The club's lease on the Greenawalt property, which includes the links, will not expire until that time. As the club's activities will for a time be restricted practically to outdoor amusements a committee was named to examine the remains of the locker rooms and bowling alley and see if they can be repaired so as to serve for use until the new clubhouse is built. Garments Today

At the large and enthusiastic annual meeting of the Harrisburg branch of the Needlework Guild of America held this morning in the Y. M. C. A of the Needlework Guild of America held this morning in the Y. M. C. A. hall, 4,608 new garments were brought in by the section presidents and distributed among the charitles of the city.

Mrs. John Fox Weiss, president of the organization, told of the guild's work in general and Mrs. John W. Reily spoke of the excellent work of the Fort Wayne Guild, a direct descendant of the Harrisburg Guild, fifteen years old.

This guild was asked to form a Harrisburg section of Queen Mary's Needlework Guild, an emergency work in which the English Queen is especially interested. She has given up the whole of St. Jame's palace to the use of the guild, where nothing is kept over twenty-four hours, but distributed where needed at once. The object of this guild is to "furnish direct, personal relief in the countries of the allies, to incapacitated soldiers, their families, refugees and other deserving persons suffering because of the present war."

The list of patronesses of the American Branch of Queen Mary's Guild included many distinguished women of the country. Anyone here wishing to Join it, may send their names to Mrs. Lyman D. Gilbert, 203 North Front street, secretary of the Harrisburg Needlework Guild.

Officers Are Elected
