AMUSEMENTS

ORPHEUM
To-morrow, matinee and night—"Me, Him and I"
Monday night, November 22—International Wrestling Matches.
Tuesday, night only, November 23—Jacob Adler in "War Victims" (Yish).
Wednesday, matinee and night, November 24—Jefferson De Angels in "Some Baby."
Thursday (Thanksgiving Day) and Friday, with daily matinees, November 25-26—The Electric Blue.
Saturday, matinee and night, November 27—"Have You Seen Stella?"

"ME, HIM AND I"
"Me, Him and I" is the title of the clever musical comedy concoction presented by Hurler and Seamon. Who in the past, through giving the public the best that they could procure, have gained for themselves a reputation equalled by none and this season they have secured a better show than ever before, headed by Ollie Mack, assisted by Meyer Harris and Frank De Mack, a trio of funnies that has never been so good as now. "Me, Him and I" is a musical comedy out of the ordinary, and written upon new lines and the music is so interesting a plot that is away from anything ever presented to the patrons of the Orpheum, which the company has never seen to-morrow, matinee, and night, and all who enjoy a first-class attraction should not miss seeing "Me, Him and I."—Advertisement.

INTERNATIONAL WRESTLING MATCHES
Sensational is the offer made by Mort Henderson, who meets Joe Rancone, the Italian champion, at the Orpheum Theater next Monday night in a wrestling match, the best out of three falls. This offer has all local sportdom talking. It is none other than an offer of $1 for each and every minute over five that the American can hold him. Prospective candidates for initiation into the iron grasp of Mort Henderson's clutches should address themselves to Mr. Burlingame at the theater.—Advertisement.

JACOB P. ADLER
On the 23d day of November the famous tragedian and well known celebrated actor, Jacob P. Adler, together with his all-star company will invade the Orpheum Theater to perform in the now raging success, "War Victims," by M. Richter, and "The Electric Blue." This play is a dramatic vision of the dreared war situations now prevailing in the eastern hemisphere and the climaxes of which have reached the United States financially, materially and socially.—Advertisement.

"SOME BABY" AT THE ORPHEUM
At the Orpheum, Wednesday, matinee and night, the comedy "Some Baby" a new three-act farce, revised and staged by Percival Knott and with the same brilliant company of funmakers that will be seen in it at the Hollis Theater, Boston, immediately after the matinee, "Some Baby" deals with the remarkable events that follow the supposed death of a young man. The plot is an ingenious complication that follows his application of the laws of physics and the known comedians on the stage.—Advertisement.

MAJESTIC VAUDEVILLE
Human comedians are plentiful, but an animal comedian like King is as rare as the blue bird. He does everything but human beings, too, only he does them better. In his performance, natural and humanlike in the performance of his various stunts, and then he injects his broadest sense of humor all through the act. Children of all ages owe it to themselves to see King during his brief engagement at the Majestic, for he is easily the most celebrated monk now appearing in vaudeville. Another attraction of the bill of much merit and good fun is the variety sketch called "Charley's Visit," which is admirably presented by Eddie and Ramsdell. The three supporting acts include Lawrence and Edwards, splendid comedians in a comedy called "The Pension Office," a Civil War sketch, the Silverton Sisters, European triplets, and the best known thews, the pleasing banjo artists.—Advertisement.

"A BUTTERFLY ON THE WHEEL" AT THE COLONIAL
Of importance to theatergoers is the splendid picture "A Butterfly on the Wheel," which will hold forth at the Colonial to-day and to-morrow. In conjunction with this remarkable achievement in fiction, the sidesplitting comedy called "A Night at the Show," featuring the world's greatest comedian, Charley Chaplin, will be presented as an added attraction. Of special importance regarding "A Butterfly on the Wheel" picture is the fact that Mr. Holbrook Blinn and Vivian Martin are cast for the leading parts. Blinn, known as the most virile and decisive actor in motion pictures and Vivian Martin as the daintiest star in "dramod," deals with numerous very funny incidents that happen when Charley Chaplin on a night of and goes to see a raving beauty show. It's one of the funniest pictures Mr. Chaplin has ever made and is good for one long, continuous laugh.—Advertisement.

Seeks Divorce From Man Who Wed Her on "Dare"
Special to The Telegraph
Reading, Pa., Nov. 19.—The story of a young wife's realization that her husband had married her on a "Dare" and never intended to live with her or acknowledge her as his wife, was told before a divorce master here yesterday by Mrs. Ida Michaelis, of this city, who is seeking a legal separation from Albert Michaelis, of Philadelphia.

According to the wife the wedding took place in Elkton, Md., December 12, 1914, but they never lived together. Her husband returned to his parents' home in Philadelphia, she said, and sent her back to Reading, promising to provide a home for her within a month. When she called on him to keep his promise the husband wrote that he never intended to live with her, that he had married her on a dare and that she would not be welcome should she come to Philadelphia. The master recommended a divorce.

PICKLED WHALE MEAT
Berlin, Nov. 19.—Pickled whale meat is being sold in a butcher shop in Burg, near Magdeburg. The meat can be stewed or roasted, and is becoming popular for its cheapness, costing but 65 pennings a pound, about half the price of the cheapest and poorest meat of any other sort.

Let us prove to you that we can furnish the best player for the least money.—Spangler, 2112 Sixth St.—Advertisement.
