WISE WORDS

A Physician on Food.—A western physician has views about food. He says: "I have always believed that the duty of the physician does not cease with treating the sick, but that we owe it to humanity to teach them how to protect their health especially by hygienic and dietetic laws. "With such a feeling as to my duty I take great pleasure in saying, that, in my own experience and also from personal observation, I have found no food to equal Grape-Nuts and that I find there is almost no limit to the great benefit this food will bring when used in all cases of sickness and convalescence. "It is my experience that no physical condition forbids the use of Grape-Nuts. To persons in health there is nothing so nourishing and acceptable to the stomach especially at breakfast to start the machinery of the human system on the day's work. "In case of indigestion I know that a complete breakfast can be made of Grape-Nuts and cream; and I think it is necessary not to overload the stomach at the morning meal. I also know the great value of Grape-Nuts when the stomach is too weak to digest other food. "This is written after an experience of more than 20 years treating all manner of chronic and acute diseases, and the letter is voluntary on my part without any request for it." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.—Advertisement.

Now Comes a General Lowering of All Prices On Women's Fashionable Suits

This event to mark the beginning of the dismissal of a greater part of our Women's Suit Stock prior to holidays.

Prices have been reduced; actually lowered to a very profitable scale (to you); and at the present marking, it is altogether the amount of value that each price purchases that makes this event so interesting.

The stock is large; but it is normal—it is not "clogged" with mistaken styles or errors of the buyer; nor does it contain all-large or all-small sizes; nor is it anything that would force an undesirable sale.

Just a regular, normal reduction sale; because the time is here to lower the stock, and lowering of prices is the natural course, and to-morrow these prices take effect:

$13.50, $16.50, $19.50, $25, $29.50 & $35

We eliminated all mention of models; for it is stated above that there are only the most desirable styles. We know you'll want to see them, inspect them and convince yourself as to their super-worthiness. You'll also find the regular price tag attached.

A Host of Pretty, Non-Freakish Dresses Enter This General Price Reducing Sale

Savings are most extraordinary on the large stock of garments of extraordinary fashion.

Our own stock, to be sure—good, clean stock; free from the "stickers"—those styles that never gained any amount of popularity; no, and free from all of those little "excuses" that are so often misused to create a sale.

We'll show you as attractive assortment, and as charming variety of styles and models that ever entered a near-end-of-season, price-lowering sale.

To-morrow these prices likewise go into effect:

$3.98, $7.50, $8.50, $14.75, $19.50

—not to be the scale on which to judge the garments, however; for to judge their value on any but the scale of regular prices is to do them injustice.

We've left a lot unsaid, both in this clearing out of dresses and that most important sale of suits. We have done so purposely. For you to realize more than you anticipated, is a pleasure to us as well as yourself. (And besides it raises our standard of publicity.)

There is one lot of silk and serge dresses that are not up to the standard of the other higher priced models; mostly light shades we might add; and all those have been set apart, and an exceptionally low price placed upon them—$5.00, which is one-half and three-fourths less than the original price.

BOWMAN'S—Third Floor.

On Sale For the First Time in Harrisburg Wirthmor Waists at $1.00

The "Wirthmor" is a revelation in waist manufacturing—the "Wirthmor" will find among women of fashion a prominent place in every wardrobe.

We have brought these famous waists to Harrisburg solely for the purpose of giving to those same women, who have been wanting good, well-made, well-wearing waists at a low price; and one that is dependably stylish.

Worth More in Quality and Workmanship

All "Wirthmor" Waists sell for $1.00. True to their name they are worth more, and it is our belief that "Wirthmor" Waists are in many occasions worth more in consideration of style, fit and workmanship than higher priced grades.

But one thing is certain, you are going to agree that never has a more thoroughly good waist been offered to sell at $1.00.

Four New Models Each Week

It will only be a short time until women will look eagerly forward to the day each week when they will be placed on sale. We have made arrangements to show four new models—four different styles—each week, in a complete range of sizes.

There is so much that is good and different about these waists that we will not describe the particular four styles that are now on sale (on the main floor) except to call your attention to the illustration which shows the models exactly as they are.

Fabrics are of a sturdiness not usually found in women's waists—they are built for service and warmth in a certain measure. Collars are convertible, and may be worn high or low just as you choose.

Each waist comes neatly packed in an envelope for your convenience.

And here's just a passing thought that Thanksgiving is only two days hence. Why not to-morrow to see them? BOWMAN'S—Main Floor.

East End Republican Club Taking Lead

President Smouse, of the East End Republican Club, has had his ear to the ground and heard the marching of the hosts of the G. O. P., as they are training for 1916, the big Republican year, and he is bound that the East End Club will cut some swath in this locality in helping to make the victory complete, so that when the great war is over and the "war brides" have established their elusiveness, and when the inevitable storm of industrial reaction is imminent, the ship of state will be in the hands of a party tried and true to pilot it.

For a beginning the club will hold a series of big weekly meetings. On the coming Wednesday evening there will be an important business meeting, preceded and followed by sociability and conferences of committees for new ventures proposed. It is expected that the quarters of the club will be enlarged in the near future. It is also proposed that the East End club shall have the banner uniformed marching club of Harrisburg and Central Pennsylvania in the coming campaign and that the club shall take a large part generally in the civic affairs of the section of the city "East of the Creek." Early in December there will be a "club night" which will be marked by a general gathering and getting-together of the members. During Christmas week there will be a delightful celebration at the club one of the features of which will be a large tree trimmed with presents for every member of the club, and there will also be some dark corners brightened with Christmas cheer.

All members are expected to be on hand on Wednesday evening, next, November 24. At the last meeting the club adopted the slogan "Everyone Get One" and new members are being proposed regularly.

Says Democracy Will Suffer if Germans Win

Philadelphia, Nov. 22.—A solid-looking German, for twenty years editor and London correspondent of two of the largest and most influential Socialist dailies in Europe, on a stage here yesterday afternoon shook his finger at the audience that filled the house and shouted: "Democracy will suffer if Germany wins the war." The speaker, J. Koettgen—ridiculed the idea of a "chosen people" bossing the world, declaring that this idea came from an insane national spirit inspired by militarism. Referring to the German crown prince, who had expressed a desire for a "jolly war," Mr. Koettgen said he had got it and the "probable result is that he will lose his crown about it."

CAKE OF SOAP AND BOX OF OINTMENT

"My little boy was one sore eruption all over his throat and chest, and extending the full length of his little arms. "My mother had used Cuticura Soap and Ointment so I purchased a cake of soap and a box of Ointment. He was well before they were used up." (Signed) Mrs. Roy O. Chapman, Towanda, Pa., Jan. 28, 1915.
