"Wear-Ever"

Four-quart Aluminum Kettle

For ONLY 98c

on or before November 23, 1915.

Without grease and without water a delicious pot roast can be made in the Kettle.

Place the kettle empty over a low flame. In the heated kettle, sear the roast on all sides; then turn the fire down to a mere flicker. When half done turn the meat over. Thus cheaper cuts of meat may be made as palatable as more expensive cuts.

Windsor Kettle

The "Wear-Ever" Windsor Kettle may be used for many purposes every day in the year.

The steamer section—which regularly sells for $1.40—combined with the kettle may be used for all the purposes to which a steamer may be put. It is an excellent colander. The price of the Steamer alone—on or before November 23, 1915—is 98c.

Steamer Section

Kettle and Steamer Combined

The price of the Kettle and the Steamer ordinarily is $2.85. The special price for the limited time is $1.96.

You will get the Kettle—or the Steamer—at the special price, on or before November 23, 1915, at the following stores:

The best looking officer in the city is useless as a traffic man unless he knows his job. He can read the traffic regulations and use his head and eyes and some common sense. All of this brings the whole question down to the physical and mental fitness of the man for the city don't know, understand, whether it can be applied but I think it is worth looking into and I'm going to investigate. At any rate it will mean that it will be necessary for the city to employ as officers, men who are fit in every way to hold the job.

HOT TEA BREAKS A COLD—TRY THIS

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or, as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Thee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking a cold at once. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore harmless.—Adv.

GIRL DISAPPEARS FROM HER HOME

tumor at the Medico Chi hospital in Philadelphia, in 1912, and again this year she spent considerable time in the hospital undergoing treatment, but for at least five weeks before her disappearance was in excellent health. The last time her brother saw her was at noon on the day of her disappearance. She was in a highly nervous state. At 3 o'clock that afternoon she rose after a nap and left the house, carrying only a large coat. She boarded the 3:25 train for Philadelphia without a cent, having informed the ticket-taker that she had no money. The conductor allowed her to travel to Philadelphia on the assumption that her story was correct when she said she had forgotten her pocketbook, and was Miss Celeste Nyman, of Philadelphia.

Registers as "Celeste"

"Celeste" left the train at North Philadelphia and a short time later turned up at the Travelers' Aid Bureau in Broad Street Station and was taken to the Young Women's Christian Association, Eleventh and Arch streets, where she again registered as Celeste Nyman, this time of Altoona.

When in this state of mental depression she is said to be very cunning and employs a powerful imagination in the most unusual and crafty ways. At the time she left Harrisburg she carried no luggage, and was wearing a dark blue corduroy suit, large black velvet hat with pink rose, black cloth-topped button shoes, and carried over her arm a large, green-and-blue broken plaid coat. At the Y. W. C. A. she was given a room and breakfast Tuesday morning, after which she visited Medico Chi hospital, where she had made friends at the time of her stay there. Since leaving the hospital Tuesday afternoon nothing has been heard of her.

Miss Ramsay's mother who is employed in the Division of Public Records at the State Library, said her daughter had been for some time obsessed with the idea that she must get out and support herself and only a few days before her disappearance told acquaintances that she would like to run down to Philadelphia and see her friends at Medico Chi. The theory is that she has obtained some

LOOKING FOR WORK

Everywhere men complain about work; even boys and girls in school or business find work tedious and irksome, but it isn't the work half so much as their own lack of physical strength that makes it hard.

Rich blood, strong lungs and healthful digestion make work pleasurable in business, in school or even housework, and if those who are easily tired—who are not sick, but weak and nervous—would just take Scott's Emulsion for one month and let its pure concentrated food create richer blood to pulsate through every artery and vein—let it build a structure of healthy tissue and give you vigorous strength—you would find work easy and would look for more. Insist on Scott's.

HERSHEY SAYS HE DIDN'T GET RIGHT FOUNTAIN

morning—the fifth day, by the way—counsel for Hershey asked the court to dismiss the proceedings on the ground that the "chocolate king" never has received the fountain. The fountain has remained wrapped and crated in the little station at Hershey for more than two years.

The plaintiff and the county sheriff held that the fountain is and for more than two years, has been in Hershey's possession.

Hershey contends he never got it and doesn't want it anyway.

Hershey Has "Got" It

The court to-day decided that Hershey had legally and technically received the fountain when it refused to dismiss the proceedings by non-suit.

Hershey to Take Stand

Upon the refusal of the request for dismissal, Hershey this afternoon began his defense to prove that he never really got the fountain he had ordered. Furthermore he has asked the jury to direct Donato to repay him the $2,666.67 he received on account of a fountain—though not the fountain Donato sculpted. And Hershey wants interest to date.

The "chocolate king" is expected will take the stand himself late this afternoon or early to-morrow morning.

Meeting of the D. A. R. Wednesday, December 1

Poetz will give readings and the musical numbers will include a solo by Mrs. Harry Beck and a quartet from the Camp Hill Music Club. Mrs. Charles J. Wood, Jr., the chapter historian will present current events and Christmas souvenirs will be presented the members and their guests.

MEALS TO CHANGE TRAFFIC SYSTEM

a lapse of fifteen to twenty minutes when no officer at all is on duty. Often this occurs around 7 o'clock in the morning and about 5:30 or 6 o'clock in the evening—when Third and Market and Fourth and Market streets are probably congested to a worse degree than at any other time, according to the Mayor-elect. Furthermore no traffic policeman uses the same signals as his fellow-officer.

Dr. Meals said his idea is to keep a traffic officer on the corner all the time. When for "relief" comes around, the regular man should be given a "beat" that is in the immediate neighborhood of his corner.

"For instance," said the former Mayor, "the regular corner man who stands at Fourth and Market or Third and Market might well patrol the beat up and down both sides of Market street during his relief period. At all other times there should be another man pacing this beat and he can serve as the 'relief man' for the regular corner man. Thus you always will have two officers in position to handle the same situation. They will always be in the neighborhood and therefore should be able to solve the traffic problems because they will necessarily be constantly in touch with this work."

"However, any man who wants to be a good traffic officer must always use his 'head,' went on the mayor-elect, "and that's the kind we're zoing to have. The best looking officer in the city is useless as a traffic man unless he knows his job. He can read the traffic regulations and use his head and eyes and some common sense. All of this brings the whole question down to the physical and mental fitness of the man for the city don't know, understand, whether it can be applied but I think it is worth looking into and I'm going to investigate. At any rate it will mean that it will be necessary for the city to employ as officers, men who are fit in every way to hold the job.
