Independents Expect a Hard Game With Garnets; Strong Thanksgiving Game

The Harrisburg Independents will have one of their hardest games of the season Thanksgiving night, when they line up against the Philadelphia Gar-nets. Fans will remember that last season the Garnets defeated the Independents by one point in a game that went three extra five-minute periods.

This season the Garnets have the 1906. Faga same line-up which they used last high scores. year and already have been winning Among other teams they have

Harvard's Profits Large

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 23.—The Harvard football team attracted nearly $225,000 in gate receipts during its season of nine weeks, it was estimated yesterday, and the gross returns to the close to $125,000. The expenses of the football team will amount to $20,000 or $35,000, leaving a net profit from this year's team of more than $55,000. More than $65,000 persons saw the Harvard team in action this season. The record crowd was at the Yalgame last Saturday, when 49,000 persons paid $98,000 to attend the game. The second largest crowd was at the Princeton-Harvard game, at Princeton, N. J., when 20,000 persons paid $60,000 to witness the contest. The Harvard-Brown game attracted 20,000 and the Cornell and Penn State both a gate of 15,000.

Myerstown, Pa., Nov. 23.—"Haps' Benfer, the big Red and White star fullback, has played his last game of football for Albright. This annoucement was made this morning by Coach Charlie S. Kelchner, who declared that the recurrence of an old injury makes it impossible for Benfer to get into the game for Albright against Muhlenberg on Thanksgiving Day at Allentown. The Muhlenberg game is Albright's last contest of the season and this year completes Benfer's fourth year of football for all time and it is not likely that he will play professionally. Lancaster. Pa., Nov. 23.—Football authorities at Franklin and Marshall are somewhat perturbed over the report that Gettysburg may not be able to play here on Thursday owing to the fever epidemic at the latter institution. The Gettysburg contest is the big game of the local schedule and there will be disappointment if the game is not played. News is anxiously awaited from the Gettysburg authorities.

WILLIE RITCHIE WINNER

Special to The Telegraph

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 23.—Willie Ritchie outboxed Eddie McAndrews in the wind-up at Olympia, last night, before a big crowd, in one of the fastest bouts seen in that arena this season. Ritchie clearly demonstrated his superiority as a boxer over the Manayunk lad, and won by a safe margin, although he did not seem to overever thimself and there were times when he might have fought faster than he did.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE HAS YOUNG GREEK WRESTLER

Annyille, Pa., Nov. 23.—Lebanon Valley College will be represented on the mat for the first time in its history, Jack Ozar, Greek wrestler and middleweight champion wrestler of America volunteering to coach a team. A call was issued two weeks ago and twelve candidates have appeared in the gymnasium three times a week for instruction. The first bout will be held after the Thanksgiving vacation to determine the best material in the school. A manager will be elected to look after the sport and arrange a schedule,

Ozar is a Greek and has never been thrown. He is a member of Coach Guyer's fast varsity squad and is known for his strong work on the line. He has accepted the challenge issued by a Dickinson College man to wrestle for the championship of the institutions.

In the Pigskin Camps

Dickinson.—The Dickinson College football squad is now preparing for the final game of the season against Lafayette on Thanksgiving Day. This game has been the wind-up of the local team for the past ten years and the Red and White eleven has always made the Eastonians hustle. Coach Dunn did not risk any scrimmage on Biddle Field this afternoon, but pointed out the mistakes made in the contest against Susquehanna Saturday, after which he put the varsity through a snappy signal drill, changing the substitutes, if they should be called on, will not interfere with the teamwork. Bucknell.—Darkness stopped the Bucknell practice this evening after Coaches Johnson and Cockill had given the team a long drill on dropkicking and forward passing. Very little tackling was indulged in, but the cold weather added lots of snap to the playing of both regulars and substitutes. The result was one of the best drills of the year. Dent, Banks and Lawrence worked out on the varsity ends with Yarnell, the former end, working in the back field.

Lebanon Valley.—Coach Guyer cut down his Lebanon Valley varsity football squad this afternoon to twenty members. As the scrub eleven closed ing the choice for the varsity tenno firm practice who would be taken to Lewisburg on Thanksgiving Day.

In the opinion of many local businessmen who subscribed for coupon books, President Barrow has treated Harrisburg very shabbily. He quit the city without thanking the fans and those who helped him out of a big hole. He left unpaid bills amounting to $450, and it is said carried out of the city at the close of the season no less than $750 in cash. When the official scorer filed his claim for services he was informed that the league was bankrupt. One week later President Barrow went to San Francisco as the representative of the alleged bankrupt league, incurring a large expense.
