Tech's Showing This Year Not Nearly Up to Standard of the Blue and Gray, but Then the "Dope" Has Been All Wrong This Year

EXPECT 7,000 TO SEE THE STRUGGLE

Oh, Yes, the Annual Fashion Show Will Be a Feature of the Afternoon! Grim Warriors in Last Secret Practice This Afternoon

In and about the corridors of the two city high schools to-day there was a strained hush. Somehow or other the boys did not talk quite so loudly as they usually do and the girls—of the one school—failed to giggle their usual giggles. It was the same hush that falls when two grim, low-lying battleships strip for action on a dull gray sea; the same hush that falls when armies face each other, waiting for the word to fire; the same hush that falls every year on the day before Thanksgiving in and about the Central and Technical High schools.

To Decide That Question

For to-morrow the football warriors of the two schools—one eleven, the Blue and the Gray; the other, the Ma-Park to decide that momentous question of the year.

Not, will the Germans or Allies win? Not, shall the nation prepare for de fense? Not, will the Latin teacher "flunk"

No, none of these-but,

Tech or Central Which?

And so in and about the corridors of the two city high schools to-day there was a strained hush.

But To-morrow, Bedlam

But To-morrow, Bedlam
But to-morrow bedlam will break loose. The hosts of the rival institutions will make up for that strained hush of to-day—and don't you forget it! Instead it'll be strained throats and strained relations between Sister Sue and Brother Bill whose sympathles lie in opposite directions. Fully 7,000 cheering, football mad. Thanksgiving bay celebrators are expected at Island Park when the whistle blows for the kickoff at 2.30 in the afternoon.

Quite a Fashion Show, You Know

Quite a Fashion Show, You Know Perhaps nearly as interesting as the game itself, wfil be those 7,000 people.
For many and many a one of those thousands will wear the season's regulation short skirt and fur trimined garments—and what could be more interesting than this? Especially when blue sweaters, and red, decorated with the gray letters of the two schools are wrapped snugly about pretty chins that peek out above the upper rim of fur, ch?
The odds to-day were in favor of Central's winning the big battle. Central has walloped Steelton all over the lot, and Tech hasn't. Central has won all but one of the games it played this year—and Tech hasn't. Central has Harry Rote—and Tech hasn't.
Rote, with his clever running and punting and handling of the team is expected to lead his team to victory by the football dopesters. But doesn't it seem to you that the "dope" has been wrong several times this year?

What the Teams Have Done
Harry Rote, captain of the Central;
High football team scored 144 points

the Thanksgiving game with Tech.
Rote tallied these points for his team in the first nine games by making 19 touchdowns, a goal from field, and by kicking 27 goals after touchdown. His all-around playing stamps him as the best offensive as well as defensive player in this part of the State.
While Rote was doing this, his team mates added 110 more points, while but 7 points were made against the team during the season. In the first contest of the season, J. Swank, right end on the Lancaster High team, scored a touchdown on a forward pass,
and Dudley kicked the goal.

Coal Operations Below Capacity

The coal situation is becoming more and more serious as cold weather approaches.

Mine owners are prevented from running their mines to capacity for the following reasons:

First, the railroads are not furnishing enough cars.

Second, the labor situation is far from satisfactory. No one is willing to predict what will happen in the coal regions when it gets real cold.

On thing is sure—poorly prepared coal will be put on the market in an effort to fill all orders as fast as they are received.

If you want to burn good, satisfactory coal you should have your bins filled without further delay.
