LIGHTNER SAYS STATE WILL HELP

Director of Employment Bureau Discusses the Way It Will Operate Now

"If an able-bodied man stops you in the street to negotiate a ten-cent loan or applies at your kitchen door for food with a hard luck story that he cannot get a job give him the address of the nearest State Employment Agency."

That is the advice of Jacob Lightner, director of the State Employment Bureau of the Department of Labor and Industry, who declares that orders for war equipment from European countries have caused a dearth of laborers for metal and munition plants.

"It is mainly a matter of geography, if an able-bodied man, who is willing to do any kind of work cannot find employment," said Director Lightner today. "If there is no work in his immediate locality, a postal card to the State Bureau of Employment, Masonic Temple, Harrisburg, will bring a reply that will outline definitely where he can find a job."

MILLIONS WORTH OF EGGS ARE DUE

Must Come Out of Storage in December or Be "Outlawed" by the State Agents

Millions of dozens of eggs now in cold storage in the seventy cold storage plants of the State will be placed on the market in December, and the prices, which are now on a war basis, will probably drop unless the eggs are sent out of the bounds of Pennsylvania, according to agents of the State Department of Agriculture. The men at the office of the Dairy and Food Division have been keeping tabs on the supply of eggs through the quarterly reports filed at the Capitol by each cold storage house and by inspection of books and have been instructed by Commissioner James Fournier to "outlaw" every egg that stays longer than the time limit of the act of 1912.

The reports filed as of June 30 showed 15,000,000 dozens of eggs, in round numbers, a decline of 3,000,000 dozens from March 31. It is figured out that about 12,000,000 dozens of the eggs now in storage were stored in April, when the Spring egg crop is at its highest, and they must be sent out of storage in December. The May eggs must be sent in January and the June eggs in February. However, the bulk of the eggs now in storage are April eggs, and the expectations at the Capitol are that the December 31 reports will show warehouses cleared of eggs to a great extent. Just what the price may be because of the turning over of the supply no one pretends to say, but if all of the eggs are put on the market in December, Philadelphia has by far most of the April eggs.

Orders to the agents are to inspect books of every cold storage plant and the contents of the same, and to order eggs on which the time limit expires to be put on the red tag that declares them outlawed. Eggs so placarded can not be sold.

DONALD BRIAN, IN "THE VOICE IN THE FOG" AT THE REGENT TO-DAY AND TO-MORROW

"The Voice in the Fog" with the most popular star of the American stage, Donald Brian, is the chief attraction at the Regent to-day and tomorrow on the Paramount program. Mr. Brian appears as Thomas Webb, a young Englishman who inherits a title, but who transfers its use to a professional crook for three months, in payment of a gambling debt. Webb becomes steward on a liner and meets a young American girl from whom the professional crook previously had stolen a valuable necklace. The theft occurred in a London fog and the girl recognizes Webb's voice, as having heard it the night the necklace was stolen. Webb did not know of the theft, however. In order to keep watch on the young man, the girl employs him as a private secretary. As the climax of a melodramatic situation, Webb is able to explain himself and claim the love of the girl when he reveals his true identity at the expiration of the three months' period.—Adv.

TO-NIGHT—"SOME BABY" AT THE ORPHEUM

At the Orpheum to-night the Estate of Henry B. Harris will present "Some Baby," a new three-act farce by Zillah Sweeney and Jules Simonson, revised and directed by Percy Knight. "Some Baby" deals with the supposed discovery of the real elixir of youth by an old scientist who, like Ponce de Leon, has set out to find the universal restorer. The application of this elixir to an old general and to the scientist's young daughter is followed by so many remarkable happenings that the amazed and incredulous general believes that his compound is indeed working wonders. Through the maze of ingenious comedy situations run two main threads of interest. One is a dramatic elixir composed of love and laughter, spiced with a dash of danger and making what is promised to be a most seductive potion.—Adv.

"HAVE YOU SEEN STELLA?"

The most startling surprise of the current season comes to the Orpheum Saturday, matinee and night. It is Gus Hill's latest musical comedy innovation, "Have You Seen Stella?" was designed with the idea of combining all of the essential features and most satisfying entertaining qualities of modern theatricality into an evening's enjoyment. The laughter comes in every line, solid enjoyment in every song and real pleasure in the chorus of Winter Garden girls who will accompany the cast in their "topical" and extend to you a world of pleasure.—Adv.
