DR. CATON WEDS ON THANKSGIVING

Marriage Ceremony in Chambersburg Followed by Reception and Dinner Here

One of the prettiest of Thanksgiving weddings was that of Miss Emma Mae Owen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Owen, of New Bloomfield, to Dr. Clifford Irvin Caton, of this city, which took place at noon yesterday in the United Brethren Church of Chambersburg, with the Rev. William H. Washington, superintendent of the Pennsylvania State Conference and a lifelong friend of the bride, officiating.

The bride, who was unattended, wore a smart tailored suit of dark blue chiffon broadcloth with fur trimmings and velvet hat. Her corsage bouquet was of daybreak roses.

The young couple came to this city, where a wedding dinner of twenty-five covers was served at the bridegroom's home, 1428 North Second street, last evening. Palm, ferns and roses decorated the house, and the bride was lovely in a dinner gown of peach-colored satin with garnitures of lace and chiffon and wearing a corsage bouquet of sweet peas and lilies of the valley.

Dr. and Mrs. Caton are taking a short wedding trip to the western part of the state, the longer journey being deferred until midwinter because of the heavy practice of the doctor at this season. They will be "at home" at 1428 North Second street after December 1.

The bride, a native of Missouri, has been living at New Bloomfield for some time. Dr. Caton, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Caton, of this city, received his preliminary education in the city schools and specialized in music at the Harrisburg Conservatory and the Pittsburgh Academy of Music. Finally deciding to practice the healing art, Dr. Caton studied at the University of Pittsburgh and was graduated from a western college of mechano-therapy in 1911, immediately beginning practice in this city.

Later, Dr. Caton took several post-graduate courses and has since confined his growing practice to nervous diseases.

Miss Alice Funk and Miss Vera Seidle, of Mechanicsburg, left Thursday evening for a ten days' visit with friends in Philadelphia and Phoenixville.

Miss Elma Herring and Miss Ada Leach, who live near New Cumberland, were entertained at a Thanksgiving Day dinner in Mechanicsburg.

Luncheon Guests Meet Mrs. Emmons of Dover

Mrs. Arthur E. Emmons, of Dover, Mass., who is visiting her mother, Mrs. William O. Hickok, at 508 North Second street, being most entertained in an informal way during her stay in the city, her former home.

To-day Mrs. Hickok gave a luncheon for her daughter, with appointments of pink. The company was of pink roses and the guests included Mrs. Emmons, Mrs. William E. Wright, Miss Mary Robinson, Miss Anne McCormick, Mrs. James J. Bullitt, Mrs. Richard Hall of Bedford; Mrs. Orville Hickok, Mrs. Walter P. Maguire and Mrs. Ross A. Hickok.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Umberger of Lebanon spent Thanksgiving with the former's brother, John Umberger and wife, 426 South Fourteenth street.

Miss Pearl V. Goodhart of 1557 Walnut street, chief clerk for the Bradstreet company, spent Thanksgiving with her parents at Kersville, Pa.

Elmer Henderson of Newport is visiting among Harrisburg friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Emerick of Pittsburgh are spending some time with H. C. Quigley and wife, 357 South Eighteenth street.

James Askin and Harry Schreiber, Hummel street, are spending several days with Bloomfield friends.

Mrs. M. Elmer Stoner of 247 Hummel street, has returned from Middletown where she attended the wedding of her sister, Ellen Crawford Robison, to William F. Webery of Lewistown.

Miss Grace Lutz, 319 Hummel street, has returned from a visit to friends in Emigsville, York and Red Lion.

Mrs. John Craig of Steelton left today for an extended visit to Philadelphia relatives and friends.

Miss Estella Singer of Sault Ste. Marie, Can., is spending the week with her friend, Miss Anna Harr, Derry street.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Herbert Snow of the Riverside Apartments, arrived home this morning from Carlisle where they attended the dance given by Mr. and Mrs. Horace Sadler.

Mrs. J. H. McCulloh, of Bedford, and R. N. Harry, of Cincinnati, were Thanksgiving guests of Mr. and Mrs. George N. Harry, 1521 North Second street.

SPEND HONEYMOON IN WESTERN PART OF STATE

DR. & MRS. CLIFFORD IRVIN CATON

DANCE TO FOLLOW THE FEHL-HOYLER DEBUTANTE'S TEA IN ST. MICHAEL'S

Miss Sarah Elizabeth Cooper Is Young Couple Spending Honeymoon in New York, Baltimore and Washington

Miss Sarah Elizabeth Cooper, daughter of Frank Marcus Cooper of Camp Hill, was introduced at a tea this afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock at the Harrisburg club, by her father.

In addition to the welcome extended to Miss Cooper by her own circle of friends and the older society folks of the city, she has the distinction of being the only debutante of the season. She was educated at the Selter school of this city, at Geneva, Switzerland, and at the famous Castle school on the Hudson.

The walls of the newly decorated banquet hall of the club have been hung with Alabama smilax and Christmas wreaths by Little and symmetrical little pine trees with touches of holly in holiday effects. Masses of lovely blossoms sent to the attractive "bugs" were arranged artistically about the room.

In the receiving line were Mr. Cooper, Miss Cooper wearing a dainty frock of white soiree silk with draperies of sequin lace and carrying a round bouquet of carnec roses tied with silver ribbons and lace; Mrs. Edward N. Cooper in white satin and silver lace; Mrs. Thomas E. Ertle wearing blue chiffon tulle with garnitures of silver and Mrs. John Hill of New York city, in pink soiree silk and silver lace.

In the team room where pink roses peeped in the decorations carrying out a color scheme of pink and white, Mrs. Frank D. Carney, Mrs. George Kunkel, Miss Mary Robinson and Mrs. William B. McCaleb, presided, assisted by Miss Helen King, Miss Josephine Schwarz, Miss Grace Post of Hartford, Conn., Miss Alice Simpson of New York; Mrs. Walter P. Maguire, Mrs. Robert M. Rutherford, Mrs. Solomon Hines, Jr., Mrs. Philip T. Meredith and Miss Minster.

Following the tea, the receiving and assisting parties will enjoy a dinner, with this evening's dancing. Santa Lerner's orchestra will play, using all the up-to-date selections as well as many of the older popular dances.

The guests for the evening's festivities will include: Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Carney, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Earle, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Payne, Mr. and Mrs. Philip T. Meredith, Mr. and Mrs. Walter P. Maguire, Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. McKay, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. W. Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. W. Walley Davis, Mr. and Mrs. A. Reeder Periday, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. age of St. Michael's German Lutheran Church by the Rev. Reinhold Schmidt. The bride was attended in a navy blue traveling suit with hat to match and wore a corsage bouquet of violets, lilies of the valley and orchids. Miss Minnie Deller, who was maid of honor, wore an African brown cloth suit with hat to match. Joseph Wagner was best man. A wedding dinner was served at the bride's home to the immediate families, after which Mr. and Mrs. Fehl left for a wedding trip to Baltimore, Washington and New York city. After December 1 they will be "at home" to their friends at 639 Oxford street.

Found Simple Remedy That Relieved Child

Mild Laxative Compound Corrects Stubborn Case of Constipation.

HARLEY BUREN BULLS

An important duty that devolves on parents is the regulation of their children's bowels. Health in later life depends in large measure on early training and a child should be taught from infancy to regular habits.

When from any cause the bowels become congested with stomach waste a mild laxative should be employed to open up the passage gently and carry off the congested mass. A most effective remedy for this purpose is the combination of simple laxative herbs known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Mrs. W. D. Bulls, of Reed, Okla., used Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin for her baby boy, Harley Buren Bulls, and says "It did him more good than anything we have given him. His bowels are very stubborn about acting, but they act easily every time I give him Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin."

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin contains no opiate or narcotic drug and is a splendid remedy for children and older people as well. It has been on the market for more than twenty-five years and is the family standby in thousands of homes. Druggists everywhere sell it for fifty cents a bottle. A trial bottle, free of charge, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 454 Washington street, Monticello, Ill.
