

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL

D. A. R. WILL MEET NEXT WEDNESDAY

Christmas Songs and Stories; Report of Recent State Conference

A most interesting program has been arranged by the historian, Mrs. Charles J. Wood, Jr., for a meeting of Harrisburg Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, Wednesday afternoon, December 1, at 3 o'clock, in assembly hall of the Y. M. C. A.

Because of the rapidly approaching Christmas season the songs and stories will be suggestive of that time. A quartet of the Camp Hill Music Club will sing and Mrs. Harry Beck will have a vocal solo.

Mrs. Joseph Thompson, of Newville, has returned home after a two months' visit with relatives in this city.

SHEPHERDS OF BETHLEHEM WILL RECEIVE LARGE CLASS

Star of Harrisburg Lodge, No. 20, Shepherds of Bethlehem, will take in a large class on Thursday, December 2. The members of Lodge No. 20 extend an invitation to the members of all the Shepherd lodges of the city to be present at this meeting to see the initiation and other features of the degree work.

VISIT CITY CLERK

Prof. and Mrs. John E. Perry, Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y., have returned home after spending the Thanksgiving holidays with Mrs. Perry's father, Charles A. Miller, city clerk. The city clerk's tiny grandson, John Edwin Perry, Jr., was guest of honor.

Dressmaking--

A few more customers desired. Graduate of Potter School—workmanship guaranteed—terms reasonable.

Call or write for engagement.

Elsie Fox Rhawn 1231 Derry St.

C.M. Sigler, Inc. Pianos—Victrolas—30 N. 2nd St. HARRISBURG PENNA.

BEGAN LIFE AS COAL MINER

To-day Is Successful Clergyman

ground, in dampness and dust, causes many to become broken in health long before their time. These conditions cause wasting away of the body, miners' asthma, sore throat, bronchitis, and serious throat and lung troubles.

This old remedy soothes and heals the throat and lungs, and its food elements nourish the body, by enabling the stomach to assimilate food, and forcing nutrition into the blood, by which each organ of the body is strengthened and made to do its proper work.

Camp Hill High School Has Orchestra Concert

A musicale will be held in the Camp Hill High school auditorium under the auspices of the High School Orchestra on Monday evening, December 6. A large and brilliant audience is expected, as all music-lovers will be offered a treat such as is seldom accorded them in that community.

The following artists will offer selections: Violin, Sara Lemer; violin, Victor Bud Housknecht; reader, Mrs. Harry Koffer; vocalist, Gene Moses; Belle Middaugh, Mrs. Alice Myers Slinger; Lewis M. Mell; Clarence H. Slinger; piano, Miss Eunice Ingham and Miss Emma Bosshart, of York, Pa., and the two well-known organizations—the Camp Hill Quartet led by C. J. Baubach, and the Camp Hill Music Club, Mrs. Shope, director. The overture and finale will be played by the High school orchestra.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Barber and son, of Trenton, N. J., who had been guests of Mr. Barber's parents, Steward and Mrs. S. F. Barber, at the country almshouse over the Thanksgiving holidays, have returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. D. Barr, of 262 Herr street, have returned to their home after spending Thanksgiving with their son, Linn W. Barr, in Reading.

Dr. Fannie R. Stees, of 317 North Second street, has returned home after spending several days in Philadelphia. Miss Amy Louise Beck, of the Seller school faculty, is spending several days with her parents in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Carney and Miss Louise Carney were in New York City during the week.

Mrs. Frederick Herman Marsh, of State street, is spending a week with Mrs. Belle Cromie who is wintering in New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Drake and small daughter, Louise Drake, have come home to Albany, N. Y., after a little visit among Harrisburg friends.

Miss Louise Leonard, of Wilkes-Barre, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Leonard, of Conoverport, spent Thanksgiving with Miss Helen Armor, of State street, going to Mount Holly, for a students' conference to-day.

Mrs. Rufus Wood, of Sparrow's Point, Md., is visiting relatives in this city, where she formerly resided.

Mrs. Ralph W. Dowdell, of Whitehall street, is home after a pleasant visit at Columbus and other points in Ohio.

Miss Eleanor Neal Clark, of Rety street, has returned from Philadelphia where she witnessed the Penn-Cornell game on Thanksgiving Day.

Mrs. Richard Hall, of Bedford, is visiting Mrs. William O. Hickok, of 508 North Second street.

Miss Constancia, of 1200 Chestnut street, is spending the Thanksgiving holidays with her brother, the Rev. Harry Beideman, at Frostburg, Md.

Miss Edith Elshenhaus, of 2140 Green street, is spending the week in Norristown.

Y. W. C. A. CONFERENCE AT MOUNT HOLLY

VARIOUS STYLES OF COMPOSITIONS

Program Schedule For Working Musicales of the Wednesday Club

The program for a working musicale of the Wednesday Club, scheduled for next Wednesday morning in Fahnestock Hall, will have for a general subject "Style."

The numbers are to include: "Prelude to the Mere, Etude Lyrique," Arensky, a Russian composer, Miss Bennethum; under the head of "Styles of Compositions" and in "Styles of Songs," "Eminent Locking," Dessard, Dr. Miss Belle Middaugh; "Nocturne in Flat," Chopin, Miss Whitman; "Widmung," Schumann, Mrs. Arthur H. Hull; "La Gondole," Hensel, Miss Fleming; "The Magic Song, die Zauberland," Meyer-Helmud, Mrs. William K. Bum-baugh, with violin obligato by Miss Sara Lemer; "Polchenelle," Rach-dany, Miss Martha Snavely; "Come Forth, Hinaus," F. Ries, Miss Kende; "El Pele, Goyesca," Spanish dance, Grandos, Mrs. Martin Cumber; "Come Unto These Yellow Sands," La Forge, Miss Edith Elshenhaus; "Music," Zoellner, Wednesday Club chorus, conducted by Miss Conkling.

An evening concert of Christmas music will be given by the club Thursday, December 18, the program to include chorus and various selections by the club members.

POWDEN-MARSHALL BRIDAL

Miss Martha Marshall, of South Cameron street, and Harry Powden, of Harrisburg street, Steelton, were quietly married last evening at the parsonage of the Steelton Church of God, by the Rev. Dr. Shope officiating.

ON FOOTBALL TEAM

Thomas J. S. Kishpaugh, of 409 South Sixth street, attended the football game between Johns Hopkins and Maryland Agricultural College at Baltimore, Thursday, William M. Kishpaugh, his brother, is a member of the Maryland Agricultural College team.

Mrs. H. A. Eisenhart, of Second and Cumberland streets, has returned after a visit with Philadelphia friends.

Miss Mary Sponsler, a student at Smith College, is spending the Thanksgiving vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Sponsler, 105 Chestnut street.

Miss Mary C. Leib has returned after a visit with Mrs. Edward A. Trego, of Bryn Athlyn.

Albert Rhoads, of Buffalo, N. Y., is spending some time at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Rhoads, Sixteenth and Swatara streets.

Miss Ellen S. Boyd, of Philadelphia, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Truman D. Boyd, of 709 North Second street.

Miss Ethel Baldwin, of 1625 Market street, has returned after a visit with friends in Philadelphia, where she spent Thanksgiving.

Miss Edith Elshenhaus, of 2140 Green street, is spending the week in Norristown.

Y. W. C. A. CONFERENCE AT MOUNT HOLLY

Miss Mary Edna McCreary has returned to her home, 408 South Cameron street, after a several days' visit with her mother, Mrs. Mary Bryan, of 438 Wood street, Middletown.

Thanksgiving Cantata at Market Square Church

The cantata, "Seed-Time and Harvest" by John E. Weaf which will be sung on Sunday evening by the choir at Market Square Presbyterian church is one of rare beauty. The solos are full of melody and the choruses are rich and harmonious.

The Sara Lemer Orchestra Makes Its Formal Debut

"The Sara Lemer Orchestra," which made its formal debut last evening at the dance following Miss Sarah Cooper's presentations at the Harrisburg Club, delighted every one with its stirring dance music.

The orchestra is comprised of violins, banjos, drums and piano, a combination used at many of the smart dances in larger cities and proved most successful.

Miss Lemer, who has organized and directs this orchestra, needs no introduction to Harrisburg music lovers. She is a finished artist and her violin work in recitals, musicales and various other entertainments, together with her earnest efforts to give out the Harrisburg, through her violin, the best she is capable of, has won for her the sincere appreciation and favorable comment she so well deserves.

Miss Elizabeth B. Hurlock, a student at Bryn Mawr college is spending the Thanksgiving recess at her home, 1714 North Front street.

Mrs. Frank Miller and daughter Frances of Hagerstown, Maryland, are visiting Mrs. J. Newton Herb of 1307 Derry street.

Mrs. Howard Wickensham of Camp Hill was a Harrisburg visitor yesterday.

Mrs. J. C. Liebendorfer of New Castle, is spending some time with her sister, Mrs. William B. Kay of Market street.

James R. Stewart, John Q. Stewart, Evan Miller, William Spry Hurlock, students at Princeton University are home over the Thanksgiving holidays.

Mrs. Agnes Hilgertner of Carlisle is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Lescure of 517 South Fourteenth street.

Paul Laudenslager and George Shillinger, students at Gettysburg college are spending Thanksgiving vacation at their homes.

Mrs. George Smith and children of York are visiting at the home of her brother, the Rev. Dr. Lewis C. Manges of 1451 Walnut street.

Miss Anna Lehman of Swatara Hill, Middletown, was a Harrisburg visitor yesterday.

Norman C. Miller of Fort Tice, Florida, spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Ainsworth of Camp Hill.

Miss Sara Parker of Mexico, Pa., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. George Parker of 1403 Bumbaugh street.

Miss Genevieve Kelley, of Laning, and Benjamin M. Need, of the Donaldson Apartments, has returned after a visit to Philadelphia.

Y. W. C. A. CONFERENCE AT MOUNT HOLLY

The Sara Lemer Orchestra Makes Its Formal Debut

"The Sara Lemer Orchestra," which made its formal debut last evening at the dance following Miss Sarah Cooper's presentations at the Harrisburg Club, delighted every one with its stirring dance music.

The orchestra is comprised of violins, banjos, drums and piano, a combination used at many of the smart dances in larger cities and proved most successful.

Miss Lemer, who has organized and directs this orchestra, needs no introduction to Harrisburg music lovers. She is a finished artist and her violin work in recitals, musicales and various other entertainments, together with her earnest efforts to give out the Harrisburg, through her violin, the best she is capable of, has won for her the sincere appreciation and favorable comment she so well deserves.

Miss Elizabeth B. Hurlock, a student at Bryn Mawr college is spending the Thanksgiving recess at her home, 1714 North Front street.

Mrs. Frank Miller and daughter Frances of Hagerstown, Maryland, are visiting Mrs. J. Newton Herb of 1307 Derry street.

Mrs. Howard Wickensham of Camp Hill was a Harrisburg visitor yesterday.

Mrs. J. C. Liebendorfer of New Castle, is spending some time with her sister, Mrs. William B. Kay of Market street.

James R. Stewart, John Q. Stewart, Evan Miller, William Spry Hurlock, students at Princeton University are home over the Thanksgiving holidays.

Mrs. Agnes Hilgertner of Carlisle is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Lescure of 517 South Fourteenth street.

Paul Laudenslager and George Shillinger, students at Gettysburg college are spending Thanksgiving vacation at their homes.

Mrs. George Smith and children of York are visiting at the home of her brother, the Rev. Dr. Lewis C. Manges of 1451 Walnut street.

Miss Anna Lehman of Swatara Hill, Middletown, was a Harrisburg visitor yesterday.

Norman C. Miller of Fort Tice, Florida, spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Ainsworth of Camp Hill.

Miss Sara Parker of Mexico, Pa., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. George Parker of 1403 Bumbaugh street.

Miss Genevieve Kelley, of Laning, and Benjamin M. Need, of the Donaldson Apartments, has returned after a visit to Philadelphia.

Y. W. C. A. CONFERENCE AT MOUNT HOLLY

Miss Mary Edna McCreary has returned to her home, 408 South Cameron street, after a several days' visit with her mother, Mrs. Mary Bryan, of 438 Wood street, Middletown.

Miss Edith Elshenhaus, of 2140 Green street, is spending the week in Norristown.

Witmer, Bair and Witmer Announcement NEXT TUESDAY, NOV. 30TH Exhibition of Fine Furs FOR ONE DAY ONLY

49c Astrich's $1.44 At Your Disposal This Monday YOUR UNRESTRICTED CHOICE OF OUR STOCK OF Black and Colored Silk Velvet and Plush Hats—including all the very newest ideas for midwinter wear (our own handmade hats excepted)—formerly sold up to $2.98—thus giving you hundreds of the latest shapes to select from at these low prices which are half and in many cases less than half their original prices—

Sale Starts 9:30 49c $1.44 Image of hats

VELVET SAILORS, 49c Medium and large shapes; actual value to $1.50. Monday... Small Close-fitting Turbans, 49c In black velvet; values to $1.00. Monday... Small and Medium Black Velvet Shapes for middle-aged women; values to $1.50. Monday... Large Broad Brim Velvet Hats, 49c Pokes with grosgrain binding; value $2.00. Monday... Large White Velvet Sailors, 49c Newest shapes; a limited quantity. Monday... Colored Silk Velvet Hats, 49c A small lot; assorted colors Monday... GIRLS' VELVET HATS, 49c Shirred brims; a limited quantity; value $1.25. Monday... Girls' Velvet and Plush Hats, 49c Soft finish; stitch brim and crown. All colors; value $1.50. Monday... FELT OUTING HATS, 49c Large and small sailors; roll brim; values up to $2.00. Monday

Large Silk Hatter's Plush Hats $1.44 Sailors and Pokes; values to $3.98. Monday... Hatter's Plush Turbans, Tricornes and Colonials, latest shapes; values to $2.00. Monday, $1.44... Latest Close-fitting Turbans, All the new fancy fads as well as plain styles; values to $3.00... Zyboline Plush Hats, Velvet or plush brims, small and medium shapes; large variety; value to $3.50; Monday... Large Finest Black Silk Velvet Sailors, Plain or ribbon bindings, including hat worth $4.00... Large White Zyboline Plush Sailors, Velvet facings; worth $3.00. Monday... PURITAN SAILORS $1.44 In silk, velvet or Hatter's plush; plain or trimmed; values to $3.00... French Black Silk Velvet Turbans & Tricornes, with silk ribbon bindings; values to $3.50... Large Black Silk Velvet Pokes $1.44 Plain or ribbon bound; the very latest; values to $3.50

Combination Corduroy Skating Hats and Scarfs $1.44 VELOUR OUTING HATS $1.44 LARGE BLACK MOSCOW BEAVER SAILORS $1.44 In Our Suit Department Our HALF-PRICE SUIT SALE Now at Its Height Every Suit Up to $45 Exactly Half Their Former Prices Come Before Your Size Is Sold Out All Suits Above $45 10% Off the Regular Price