school's history as in years when the wearers of the maroon and gray have won victories on the gridiron.

The loyalty of the members in turning out such a larse number of graduates last night was lauded by Dr. Charles B. Fager, the toastmaster, who extolled the Tech spirit as exhibited by the Alumni who were prominent in the parade on Thursday and at the game as in times past. He declared that the reverses of this season would be more than made up next year, and praised the fighting spirit displayed by the team on Thanksgiving day.

Coach Whitney related how the development of the team was held back in the early part of the season by injuries to star players, and the inability to use some good material from last year's squad, who became ineligible on account of scholastic standing until near the close of the season, when injuries to Britsch, Wier and others again handicapped the development. He gave great praise to Phillipelli, the fullback who exhibited unusual pluck in playing all through the Thanksgiving game with a torn shoulder ligament.

Speeches were made by Prof. Wallige, Trainer Kelley, Albert Pownets.

siving game with a torn shoulder ligament.

Speeches were made by Prof. Wailize, Trainer Kelley, Albert Poffenberger, 1908, and Prof. Percy L. Grubb, faculty athletic adviser. The latter made the gratifying announcement that the season just past was the most successful one financially since Tech was founded, and that sufficient funds were available to run athletic affairs for the next year in proper shape. The prospects for next year were sumarized in the statement that next Spring Tech will lose by graduation but two of the varsity squad. Beck, end, and McKay, tackle, and with the remaining seasoned material as a nucleus, a winning combination should result.

The election of officers for the association resulted in the selection of James Fitzpatrick, 1913, affectionately known as "Jimmy de Fitz," as president, and Frank Peters, 1911, hairback on the 1910 team, as secretary and treasurer, and the new president eppointed as a committee to audit the accounts of the football season. Prof. Wolfe, Frank Peters, 1911, and Stewart Kishpaugh, 1907.

The election was followed by addresses by Donald Cresswell, 1911, the retiring president, and the newly elected one.

MAJESTIC

To-day Ce-Dora wil cavort about her Golden Globe for the last time at the Majestic Theater. This daring young woman and her assistants who present the most thrilling act in the vaudeville world, should be witnessed by every theatergoer in Harrisburg before the act leaves the Walnut street playhouse. Grouped about the interesting act of Ce-Dora is a rattling good comedy show, calling in the forts of comedians who were popular at the Orpheum in past seasons. Most prominent of thees is Robert Henry Hodge, who with a splendid cast is offering a brand new comedy sketch called "Bill Blithers, Lawyer." Other important Keith names include Wood. Melville and Phillips, clever and breezy song and dance artists; Sandy Shaw, the popular Scotch comedian, and Moro and Barry offering a new routine of gymnastics.

Each Team Has Won Nine Victories; One Tie Score; Army Leads in Points

One hundred members of the Alumni Association of the Technical high school gathered last night at Menger's Cafe for their annual banquet in honor of the football team, and sang and cheered just as lustily for the worst defeated team in the school's history as in years when the wearers of the maroon and gray have won victories on the gridiron.

The loyalty of the members in turning out such a large number of graduates last night was lauded by Dr. Charles B. Fager, the toastmaster, who extolled the Tech spirit as exhibited by the Alumni who were prominent in ries additional interest this year owing to the fact a decisive result will break the tie existing at the present time between the Soldier and Sailor elevens. As the score stands each academy has won nine games with one ending in a tie score.

While neither combination has shown anything remarkable in the way of football ability this Fall the usual hard-fought gridiron struggle is expected since the rivalry is extremely keen and the players as individuals and the teams as units throw every particle of physical power and pigsikin training into the annual clash.

The records of the entire series to date show that during a period of more than twenty-five years, the two academies have been evenly matched. In total points scored the Army leads with 202 to the Navy's 139. The Soldiers also hold the honors of the largest score, West Point having defeated the Sailors 40 to 5 in 1903. To offset this the Middies have whitewashed the Army on six occasions while the Cadets have accomplished this feat against the Navy but twice.

BANQUET FOR CENTRAL TEAM Plans are under way for the annual banquet for the Central High school football players. It will be given next week, probably Friday night. The Alumni Association will be the host. Members of the faculty will attend. The election of a captain for next year will be a feature at this feast.

GUY BATES POST IN "OMAR, THE TENTMAKER"

There is every indication that a capacity audience will be in attendance to welcome Guy Eates Post in Richard Walton Tully's spectacular Persian romance, "Omar, the Tentmaker," at the Orpheum theater for two performances, Saturday, December 4. Pictorially, "Omar, the Tentmaker," is an epoch-making achievement and has established a new high water mark for lavish and picturesque stage adornment in this country. Nothing more beautiful could be imagined than the succession of magnificent Oriental pictures disclosed during the performance. The colored life of the narrow streets, with their huddled, silk laden bazars, quaint taverns and busy pôtters' shops, have been faithfully depicted, while by way of restful contrust a rosebowered, bird-filled garden at sunset is transferred to the stage intact. With the interest in Omar's love-life constantly maintained, Mr. Tully has also introduced a compact series of thrilling escapades, sudden deaths, high sacrifices, deep plottings and poetic reveries that are calculated to evoke enthusiasm from even the most casual theatergoer. It is worthy of note that the excellent company which supported him during his lengthy metropolitan triumph will be brought intact to the Orpheum.—Adv.

"THE MIRACLE OF LIFE," MARGARITA FISCHER AT THE REGENT TO-DAY ONLY

"The Miracle of Life," featuring Margaretta Fischer in her characterization of the young wife establishes herself as one of the world's greatest exponents of the silent drama, shown at the Regent to-day only. Miss Fischer, as the frivolous young society matron who plans to sacrifice her happiness and the joys of motherhood, delivers one of the most striking portrayals ever screened. "The Miracle of Life" cannot help affecting everyone who sees it. It is calculated to make people think. The picture that made New York think.
