

A WELL KNOWN WOMAN SPEAKS.

In Every Town in Pennsylvania Neighbors Say the Same.

Bodines, Pa.—"I will drop you a few lines to let you know that your 'Favorite Prescription' has done me a wonderful lot of good. "Seven years ago when our first child was born I was left miserable. I doctored with two physicians without any relief. I then went to see one of the head doctors in Williamsport; he said I must have an operation at once and that I should quit work, but that was something I could not do. I then began taking your 'Favorite Prescription,' and it helped me so much. I always suffered so until our last child was born when I got along nicely. I shall never go through it again without your medicine."—Mrs. F. W. MYERS.

The mighty restorative power of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription speedily causes all womanly troubles to disappear—conceals the organs to properly perform their natural functions, corrects displacements, overcomes irregularities, removes pain and misery at certain times and brings back health and strength to nervous, irritable and exhausted women.

It is a wonderful prescription, prepared only from nature's roots and herbs, with no alcohol to falsely stimulate and no narcotics to wreck the system. It banishes pain, headache, backache, low spirits, hot flashes, dragging-down sensation, worry and sleeplessness surely.

Is Your Throat a Disease Incubator?

A Few Reasonable "Donts" to Prevent Coughs, Colds, Grippe and Pneumonia, Keep Infectious Germs From the System.

Most infectious germs of disease enter the body by way of the throat, and most of the Catarrh, Bronchitis, Grippe, Pneumonia and Lung Trouble that begin with simple coughs and colds can be easily prevented by following a few common-sense rules of health. Avoid mouth breathing. Breathe deeply through the nose. Get all the fresh air possible and leave the windows of your bedroom open at night. Don't inhale more than necessary the germ-laden air of crowded street cars and clean your throat and tonsils and make them antiseptic and germ-proof by allowing a little Oxidize in tablet form to slowly melt in the mouth a few times each day. Oxidize Tablets are a physician's prescription, are powerful but pleasant to taste, and their germ-killing juices find their way to every fold and crevice of the membranes where the germs are likely to lodge. They not only clear the throat and air passages of dangerous germ life, but act as an almost infallible preventive of Grippe, Pneumonia and other serious throat and lung affections and often will stop a bad cough and break up a cold over night. A package of Oxidize is the best possible safeguard against bad colds this winter. One or three of the tablets should be carried about all the time. Geo. A. Gorgas and other leading druggists sell them, ninety tablets to the package, on a positive guarantee of satisfaction, or money back. Be sure to get Oxidize, and take nothing else.—Advertisement.

Women and Their Interests

What Happened to Jane

By Virginia Terhune Van de Water

(Copyright, 1915, Star Company) "I shall try to make an opportunity to tell your father before I leave this evening," Ned Sanderson was saying as he and Jane strolled down the side of Collins Mountain—their favorite walk. "It's my duty and besides,"—with a tremulous laugh—"I am so happy that I wish I could let all the world know about it."

"Oh!" the girl ejaculated, "I am afraid to let anybody know." "Afraid!" her companion echoed. "What are you afraid of, darling?" "I don't know," she acknowledged. "Only this has been the happiest week of my life and I wish it could last forever. Our secret is all ours now—but when we share it with anybody else it will never be the same again."

"You know that nothing can ever change our love for each other, come," taking her hand in his, "and sit down here on this big rock and let me tell you the story of the last time during my vacation. Even he sighed as he spoke the words. The sunset hour is always the saddest of the day, and tonight these two could not forget that before the rise of to-morrow's sun the man would be back in the city and the girl must begin the waiting that is so often woman's part."

Don't Burn and Ruin The Hair With Hot Iron

Straight, lank hair is becoming to but few women and there's no excuse now for anyone looking homely and unkempt on that account. Those who have been suffering from the common cause of the damage it does by drying and breaking the hair, will be glad to know that a new hairdressing will produce a far better and prettier effect, without any injurious result whatever. It is just a matter of applying to the hair at night with a clean tooth brush, a lovely curliness and natural wave will be in evidence in the morning, and there will be nothing streaky, sticky or greasy about it. A few ounces of liquid silmerine, obtainable at any drug store, will prove a welcome addition to many a dressing table. It is best applied by dividing the hair into strands and moistening each of them separately from root to tip. The beautiful wavy effect will last for a considerable time.—Advertisement.

Never in the history of Pennsylvania has such a distinctive, dignified and high grade publicity contest been offered, especially emanating from one of the largest exclusive music houses in the East. The fact that this far-reaching publicity contest is launched by this old established concern stamps it immediately as one of the squarest propositions ever offered, and its magnitude precludes any possibility of legitimate criticism. It is a well-known fact that high-grade advertising is the life of up-to-date business methods in any line of commercialism. We want the good people of this vicinity to better know the WINTER PIANO CO., their fine pianos and their many saving facilities to the buyer. We want to increase our sales this year, and for this purpose we have set aside a large fund for advertising purposes, to bring this house to the attention of every home, old and new.

Absolutely without one cent of cost or expense, One $600 Rudolf 88-note Player Piano and One $450 Winter Upright Piano will be given to someone for just a little work. You have an equal chance and with a little pleasant diversion, may be the winner. Read slogan directions carefully on right side of number puzzle.

A Handsome Piece of Silver Will Be Given Free to Each and Every Person Sending the Correct Solution of the "33" Puzzle.

DIRECTIONS—Take the numbers from 7 to 15 inclusive, and arrange them so that when added to eleven (11) in the center, the sum will be 33—the same horizontally, diagonally, and perpendicularly. Use each number only once. You may use this paper or other material. Contest open to everybody—men, women, boys, girls. All contestants residing outside of Harrisburg will have the same chance as those living in the city.

DIRECTIONS—In advertising and in business literature, short catchy phrases and sentences are very valuable. We need them and will gladly pay for them. Most of the slogans that have brought fortunes to business houses were originated by some one not connected with the house. These are samples, "Always reliable," "The one you will eventually buy," "Eventually, why not now?" "Mr. Make It Right," "The Big, Friendly Store," "Get it at Evans'" and many more. You can think of dozens as good or better. It is worth trying for. Give us your best thought. A Beautiful $600 Rudolf Player Piano and a $450 Upright Winter Piano are surely going to be given to someone who least expects it. Coupon is only for convenience. Use it or any other piece of material. A representative from each of the Harrisburg Newspapers will act as judges and the prizes will be awarded by them absolutely. The best slogan secures the Player Piano, the next best the Upright Piano. Each contestant will be notified by mail.

Every one contesting for these prizes may also enter the competition for the other large prizes. Namely—The Player Piano and The Upright Piano, mentioned above.

- All prizes must be called for not later than ten days after the closing of the contest. All prizes in this great publicity contest will be given absolutely free. Remember this costs you nothing. To the next ten who do not participate in the distribution of the above piano prizes we will give a bonafide A. P. M. A. Check, for $125, which will be accepted absolutely the same as cash as part payment on any new piano in our wareroom. The next 25 an A. P. M. A. Check for $100. The next 50 an A. P. M. A. Check for $70. The next 75 an A. P. M. A. Check for $78. The next 100 an A. P. M. A. Check for $56. The next 200 an A. P. M. A. Check for $48.

All piano manufacturers and dealers have different ways of advertising. Some employ great artists, some use expensive magazine advertising, while others use teachers to persuade people to buy, paying them commissions. We, however, believe that the best advertising is a satisfied customer.
