

Peruna

is an excellent stomachic. It stimulates the stomach in its natural functions. It acts as a gentle laxative also, and in this way enables the stomach and digestive organs to rise to the emergency of the extra work thrown upon them during the month of November.

A few doses of Peruna during the early days of November would undoubtedly save a great many people from the horrors of dyspepsia. It is an excellent remedy. It should be in every home, in order to enable the digestive organs to adjust themselves to the differences of diet.

BULLER ORDERS FILTERS PUT IN

Commissioner of Fisheries Secures Patents For State on the Newest Device

All of the State's fish wardens have been summoned to Harrisburg by Commissioner of Fisheries N. R. Buller for special instructions in the campaign to check pollution of the streams by manufacturing plants and the results of the systematic inspection of streams which has been under way in the Susquehanna and Juniata valleys will be gone over. The State authorities will insist upon the installation of filters and is offering the use of a device made by Warden W. L. Albert, who designed it after years of practical experience and who has turned the patent rights over to the State.

The wardens will be given instructions relative to this system which anyone can build and plans for which we are ready to furnish. We think it will end the pollution and intend to make our campaign to stop pollution of streams educational and to ask the public, the mine operators and the manufacturers to co-operate with us," said Commissioner N. R. Buller to-day. "Where it is necessary we will bring prosecutions and enforce the law to the letter, but we hope to get results without that."

FRANCIS X. BUSHMAN AND MARGUERITE SNOW AT THE VICTORIA

In "The Silent Voice," just produced and shown for the first time in this city yesterday, Francis X. Bushman finds a vehicle for the notable dramatic gifts which have won for him the title of "sovereign of the screen" among photoplaygoers everywhere, that gives unusual range to his splendid artistic powers. In the role of the talented young musician, whom blind fate seemingly seeks to crush under a weight of affliction, he achieves a success which equals and in some respects surpasses, all of his previous efforts. Mr. Bushman is ably supported by Marguerite Snow, the brilliant screen star; Frank Bacon, and an exceptionally well selected cast of screen artists. "The Silent Voice" is based on the play of the same name in which Otis Skinner gave the Liberty Theater in New York last season. Don't fail to see this wonderful production to-day. To-morrow we present William Farnum, the highest-salaried film star in the world, in a superlative photoplay of love, sentiment and conquest—"The Broken Law." In the matter of artistry, Mr. Farnum has risen to unforeseen heights in his direction of the principle role of this remarkable silent drama—a drama that is big in theme, big in talent and big in settings. Its breadth of appeal is greater than any romance yet produced.—Advertisement.
