

How To Make the Quickest, Simplest Cough Remedy

Much Better than the Ready-Made Kind and You Save $2. Fully Guaranteed

This home-made cough syrup is now used in more homes than any other cough remedy. Its promptness, ease and certainty in conquering distressing coughs, chest and throat colds, is really remarkable. You can actually feel it take hold. A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough—relieves even whooping cough quickly. Splendid, too, for bronchitis, spasmodic croup, bronchial asthma and winter coughs.

Get from any druggist 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth), pour it in a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. This gives you—at a cost of only 54 cents—a full pint of better cough syrup than you could buy for $2.50. Takes but a few minutes to prepare. Full directions with Pinex. Tastes good and never spoils.

You will be pleasantly surprised how quickly it loosens dry, hoarse or tight coughs, and heals the inflamed membranes in a painful cough. It also stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the persistent loose cough.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, rich in guaiacol, which is so healing to the membranes.

To avoid disappointment, be sure and ask your druggist for 2 1/2 ounces Pinex, and don't accept anything else.

A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., 24 Wayne, Ind.

A SPOONFUL OF SALTS RELIEVES ACHING KIDNEYS

We eat too much meat, which clogs kidneys says noted authority.

If back hurts or Bladder bothers, stop all meat for a while.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sore, paralyzed and leggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels; removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach grows tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness. Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, causes no injury and makes a delightful, refreshing lithia-water drink. — Advertisement.

DONATO SEEKS FOUNTAIN SITE

Council Places Selection in Hands of Committee; Jitney Measure Is In

Within an hour after City Council had formally accepted M. S. Hershey's gift of the "Dance of Eternal Springs" Giuseppe Donato, the sculptor made a tour of the various sites that have been spoken of for placing the statue, in order to consider intelligently the natural surroundings for the splendid fountain group.

He formally accepting the gift of the "chocolate king." Council, by resolution of Mayor John K. Royal, appointed a committee consisting of Park Commissioner M. Harvey Taylor, President E. S. Herman of the City Planning Commission, a member of the Municipal League, the Civic Club, and the Southern Chapter of the Pennsylvania Association of American Architects, to act with the sculptor in selecting a site.

City Commissioner Harry F. Bowman offered a resolution placing the fountain at the Twenty-first street entrance to Reservoir Park. After some little discussion Mr. Bowman permitted his measure to lay over for a week while Mayor Royal's resolution was adopted 4 to 1. Mr. Bowman alone voted against it. The Bowman resolution and the petitions will be filed with the committee.

Mr. Donato this afternoon made his personal tour of the points suggested, with several newspapermen.

The statue is expected to arrive tomorrow from the Hershey station.

Council heard the proposed jitney regulation ordinance read for the first time and decided to take it up for consideration and amendment after the regular session next Tuesday. Commissioner Lynch introduced the ordinance.

"By request," he said emphatically as he handed up the measure. Fellow-councilmen grinned.

The measure of Samuel Freedman that the electric light petitioned for at Penn and Peffer streets be not replaced at that point was referred to Commissioner Bowman.

The following ordinances were passed finally: Making appropriations for Royal tirehouse; reappropriating funds from the State tax fund to the bureau of fire; authorizing paving and curbing of streets fronting on park and playground properties from the park improvement loan.

The ordinance restricting the sale of newspapers, etc., on the streets by children in accordance with the child labor act was laid over.

City Planners and McCaleb to Confer on Market St. Subway

The question of widening the Market street subway will be considered tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, when the City Planning Commission and W. B. McCaleb, superintendent of the Philadelphia division of the Pennsylvania Railroad, will confer on the subject. President E. S. Herman of the planning commission, said the object of the conference is to explain to the railroad head just what Harrisburg would like to do and what it desires from the Penney by way of co-operation.

436 Hill Residents Want Fountain Placed at Reservoir Entrance

Twelve petitions bearing 436 signatures of residents in every walk of life from various sections of Allison's Hill were presented to City Council this afternoon asking that the Giuseppe Donato fountain, "The Dance of Eternal Springs," presented to the city by M. S. Hershey, the "chocolate king," be placed at the formal entrance to reservoir park, Twenty-first and Market street.

The formal tender of the splendid piece of statuary was embodied by Mr. Hershey in a letter to Mayor John K. Royal. The mayor read this to Council and followed it with a resolution accepting the gift on behalf of the city and expressing Harrisburg's official thanks.

New Walnut Street Bridge Ordinance Is Held Over For Week

Following an all morning conference with Commissioners Bowman, Lynch and City Engineer Cowden, City Solicitor D. S. Seitz announced at noon today that the proposed ordinance authorizing the preparation of plans and specifications for the new Walnut street viaduct across the Pennsylvania tracks would not be offered until next week.

"We've been working all morning on the data for the measure," said Mr. Seitz, "but we find that it cannot be collected in time to incorporate it. For that reason the ordinance will not be introduced until next Tuesday."

Samuel Bailey Heiges, Educator, Dies Here

Samuel Bailey Heiges, aged 73 years, of Keeseville, Va., died last evening at the home of his daughter, Mrs. S. L. Grosh, 403 South Thirteenth street, this city. The deceased, who has many relatives in Cumberland county, developed pneumonia last week and was sick but five days before his death. Funeral services will be conducted by the Rev. Dr. L. S. Mudge, of Pine Street Presbyterian Church, to-morrow evening at 7 o'clock, and the body will be taken to York for burial Thursday, where services will be held in the afternoon.

Mr. Heiges was born in Dillsburg on February 16, 1847. In 1862 he married Elizabeth Rupp, daughter of George Rupp, of Cumberland county. He taught school at Cottage Hill Seminary, in York, at the York Academy, York High School and at the York Collegiate Institute. He was later principal of the Shippensburg Normal School for four years, and held various governmental positions, including the prothonotaryship of York county, York county school superintendent, and pomologist at Washington under the second Cleveland administration. He was superintendent of the State experimental farm at Saxo, Va., in 1902. At the time of his death, he was a charter member and the oldest living past master of the York Lodge of Masonry, No.

256. He was also a member of the York Commandery. Mrs. Heiges died in 1910, and the deceased is survived by the following children: Mrs. S. L. Grosh, 403 South Thirteenth street, this city; Miss Elizabeth Heiges, same address; George R. Heiges, Boston, Mass.; Mrs. A. H. Caldwell, Washington, D. C.; and Mrs. J. E. Bailey, Keeseville, Va.
