MR. STROUP GIVES GAME DINNER

District Attorney Michael E. Stroup returned the other day from a very successful hunting trip in the wilds of Lycoming county, bringing with him as fine a lot of pheasants as have been bagged by any Harrisburg hunter this autumn. Last evening he entertained a party of his friends at the Harrisburg Club with a pheasant dinner.

The tables were laid in the form of a square in the large banquet hall and the center was decorated to resemble a huge spruce thicket, with moss banks and forest foliage at intervals about the board. The walls and the gallery were hung with wild vines and potted pine trees beautified the corners. The flowers were chrysanthemums for the tables and white carnations for boutonniers. Pheasants brought down by Mr. Stroup's guests were Judge George Kunkel, James Stranahan. Edw. S. Herman, Al. S. Cooper, William B. McCaleb, H. M. Stine, ex-Senator John E. Fox, Robert T. Fox, Harry C. Ross, John R. Geyer, E. J. Stackpole, Senator E. E. Beidleman, Mercer B. Tate, John T. Brady, J. P. Doboney, Mayor-elect E. S. Meals, F. B. Wickersham, Stanley Ray, Representative J. W. Swartz, W. H. Metzgar, Harvey O. Miller, Frank O. Horting, William Seel, Edw. F. Dunlap and Gus M. Steinmetz.
