DRINK HOT TEA FOR A BAD COLD

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Thee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking a cold at once. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore harmless. — Advertisement.

TRAVELETTE

By NIKSAH SERBIA

Serbia is a mountainous country which stands up like a ruffled skirt from the bosom of the Balkans. It is about twice the size of Vermont. Although the Serbians can boast of a lineage back to the time of Ptolemy, they have no aristocracy and no hyphenated Serbians. Four-fifths of the population are peasants who own small farms, and have a communal way of living, known as the Zadruga, which dates back to prehistoric times. The food is prepared in one common kitchen, and in the evenings the families assemble in one great hall. Here the children play, the women knit and the men recite the folk lore of the race. The Serbians have sentiment, they are dreamers, and the warriors of their country are remembered in legend and poetry and song. They are fond of celebrations, and on the national fete days hundreds of young folks, dressed in picturesque and colorful costumes, trip gracefully through the serpentine kolo to the music of fiddles. When they are not dancing or spinning yarns, they till the soil in their fertile valleys and work mines of gold and silver that were originally developed by the Romans. To-day Serbia is sorely pressed. Bulgaria is kicking her in the ribs, and the two Emperors from the north are walking all over her. They don't want Serbia. They want only her spinal column, which is the Applan Way to the Dardanelles. Before they get it, they will have to defeat one of the pluckiest peoples in all Europe.

Emenheiser, will preach a special sermon. A fine musical program has been prepared. Truly goodness, purity and durability is characteristic in the Becker & Sons' piano. Spangler, Sixth, above Maclay.—Adv.

Zemo For Dandruff

You do not want a slow treatment when hair is falling and the dandruff germ is killing the hair roots. Delay means—no hair. Get, at any drug store, a bottle of zemo for 25c or $1.00 for extra large size. Use as directed, for it does the work quickly. It kills the dandruff germ, nourishes the hair roots and immediately stops itching scalp. It is sure and safe, is not greasy, is easy to use and will not stain. Soaps and shampoos are harmful, as they contain alkali. The best thing to use is zemo, for it is pure and also inexpensive. Zemo, Cleveland.
