REGENT RETIRES AFTER LONG TERM

Mrs. Jones Has Headed Daughters of 1812 For Over Fourteen Years

MRS. MABEL CRONISE JONES

Just sixteen years ago to-day Keystone Chapter, United States Daughters of 1812, was organized at the home of Mrs. Louis W. Hall, the first regent, who held that office until her death in 1901. Since then Mrs. Mabel Cronise Jones has been regent of the chapter with the exception of one year, when out of the city, Miss Fanny M. Eby served as regent.

To-day, at a meeting held at the home of Mrs. Charles Slough Rebeck, North Third street, Mrs. Jones presided for the last time, having refused a re-election, to the regret of all the members, who feel that she has been at all times the life of the chapter. Mrs. Jones thanked the members for their loyal support and turned over the gavel to Mrs. James B. Mersecau, who was appointed regent for the coming year.

The other officers on the ticket, presented by the nominating committee in October, were: First vice-regent, Mrs. Charles J. Wood, Jr.; second vice-regent, Mrs. Sarah J. Kister, of Carlisle; recording secretary, Miss May Fox; corresponding secretary, Miss Matilda Hester; treasurer, Mrs. James Edward Dickinson; historian, Mrs. Douglas E. Dismukes; registrar, Mrs. Frederick A. Whittaker.

There was no opposition to any of these nominees and the tellers declared them elected at the close of the meeting. During an interesting program reports from officers were presented and announcement made of the informal state conference to be held in Philadelphia on December 16, to which all members are invited. Luncheon will be served by the Philadelphia chapters.

Dr. Thomas S. Blair gave an address on "Patent Medicines," which proved both enjoyable and instructive, and Mrs. Wilbur F. Harris sang two solos. The chapter was glad to endorse the movement now being urged by the telegraph of following the quaint and beautiful old custom of placing lighted candles in the windows on Christmas Eve to greet the passers-by with good wishes. After singing "Star-Spangled Banner" the meeting adjourned for a social hour with the hostess.

Mrs. Theresa K. Saltsman, of 2514 North Sixth street, is home after a ten days' visit in Baltimore. Miss Marie Johnson, of Loch Willow Farm, Paxtonia, is taking a trip through Southern Canada and the West. Mr. and Mrs. Ellis French and small daughter, Harriet French, of Cleveland, Ohio, are guests for a week of their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin K. Fuhrman, of Market street.

Miss Nora Petrow and Miss Lucy Fetrow have returned home to Jersey City after a brief stay with their cousin, Miss Nellie Blayne, of State street. Mrs. Sarah A. Brady and her family will shortly remove from 1618 North second street to the residence at 2027 North Second street, recently occupied by the Baldwins.

Mrs. Richard Strook and her daughter, Miss Marie F. Strook, are going home to New York on Monday following a brief visit with friends in this vicinity. Miss Hazel Roberts, of Market street, was hostess last evening for a meeting of the K. L. R. Club of girls.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse E. B. Cunningham, who have occupied apartments for a number of years at 511 North Second street, are removing early in the new year to the Riverside Apartments, North Front street.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Bryson, of Chicago, will be week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford D. Coe at 2017 North Second street. Mrs. Samuel C. Todd and her guests, Miss Lucy Todd, of Brownsville, are home after a little trip to Philadelphia.
