DAVID McCORMICK TELLS ENGAGEMENT AT A LUNCHEON WEDS MISS EVANS

Grandson of Former Harrisburger Marries Clever Young Punxsutawney Girl

Harrisburgers, especially the older ones are interested in a wedding taking place at Punxsutawney a few days ago because the bridegroom is a son and grandson of former well-known residents of the city.

Miss Miriam May Evans, youngest daughter of J. Harry Evans, of Punxsutawney, and David Montgomery McCormick, Sr., were united in marriage last Thursday afternoon at 4.30 o'clock at the bride's home by the Rev. Benjamin A. Gnadler, pastor of the First Methodist Church of that city, in the presence of sixty guests. The service was performed in a bower of southern smilax and pink roses and followed by an informal reception and supper. The bride, who was unattended, wore a traveling costume of blue chiffon broadcloth, a toque to harmonize and a corsage bouquet of roses and valley lilies.

Following a wedding journey including New York, Washington and this city Mr. and Mrs. McCormick will make their home for the winter in Torrance street, Punxsutawney. The bride is an unusually attractive girl, a graduate of Bucknell and popular socially. Mr. McCormick, who has made his home since childhood with his uncle, Attorney Jacob L. Fisher, at Punxsutawney, is manager for the Jefferson Auto Company and a most successful young businessman. He enjoys a popular popularity among the young folks and with his bride received a large and valuable collection of wedding gifts.

Miss McCormick is a son of the late David M. McCormick, Jr., of this city, and the late Margaret Wilson McCormick. His father was associated in the hardware business here with his uncle, Harry W. Knight, for several years, and his grandfather, David M. McCormick, a coal magnate, resided here in State street, later building the residence now occupied by Mrs. John W. Smoot at 417 North Front street, where he died many years ago.

SUNSHINERS PLAN LITTLE OPERETTA

Will Present 'The Magic Wheel' With a Large Cast at the Orpheum

MISS MELLIE L. REIGLE

At a meeting of the Roberta Disbrow Lloyd Sunshine Society held this afternoon at the Y. W. C. A. hall, Mrs. Homer Black, the president presided, and plans were discussed for the presentation of the sparkling little operetta, "The Magic Wheel," at the Orpheum on the evenings of January 28 and 29, with a special matinee.

This beautiful musical production will be in charge of Mrs. June Lytle Lake, who has been here twice in the interests of the Sunshine Society, which comes before the public but once in two years. The operetta with music by Jessie Gaynor is fully as attractive as "The House That Jack Built" and "The Lost Princess," both of which drew crowded houses here, and the cast will be fully as large and handsomely costumed. Further details will be announced later, and after a meeting of Mrs. Lake with the committee on Wednesday of this week, the dates for after holiday rehearsals will be stated.

Reports from various committees on the society's Christmas work were made to-day, and everyone is delighted to know that many of the old, the sick and shut-ins will receive just the things they so much desire, as Christmas gifts. One old lady said she is now over sixty and never had a white bedspread in her life. Another has always wished for a pretty bureau cover and another longed for a warm sweater and cap. All these will be gladly furnished by the Sunshiners with many gifts for children and warm clothing and underwear.

After the meeting during the sewing hour, chocolate and wafers were served.

Dr. Shaw Is Invited to Occupy Speaker's Gallery

Washington, Dec. 6.—Speaker and Mrs. Champ Clark to-day invited Dr. Anna Howard Shaw and the officers of the National American Woman Suffrage Association to occupy the speaker's gallery in the House of Representatives on the opening day of Congress, Monday, December 6, to watch the introduction by Representative Mondell of the Susan B. Anthony Resolution which the National American Woman Suffrage Association has introduced for forty-seven years.

Dr. Shaw, from the national headquarters in New York, replied by wire accepting the invitation on behalf of the national association, and thanking the speaker and his wife for the extraordinary courtesy shown. With seats for the opening session in terrific demand—the doorkeeper of the House having already received several thousand applications for the few hundred seats available—the action of the speaker in thus conspicuously favoring the suffragists made a deep impression upon the women gathered at the headquarters of the national association in Washington. The speaker's gallery is the only reserved section in the entire House. The arrangement made therefore insures the presence of the national suffrage leader in the gallery when Congressman Mondell, of Wyoming, who has been chosen by the national association to sponsor the federal suffrage amendment, rises in his seat to introduce "joint resolution No. 1."

FLOOD OF BILLS FLOWS IN DURING SESSIONS

In his opening address to the House Speaker Clark paid tribute to Republican Leader Bryan and predicted a practically continuous session hereafter.

"I am profoundly grateful to you at the high honor of the speakership, thrice conferred by your friendship and partiality," he said. "By reason of the amazing growth of our beloved country and the bewildering increase of business the time is in sight when the Congress will remain practically in perpetual session. I hope this Congress will go into history as a working Congress."

James M. Baker, the Secretary, called the session to order and the chaplain prayed for divine guidance for preservation of peace at home and its restoration abroad.

Thirty-two newly-elected senators were sworn in.

After swearing in the new members the Senate recessed until 2:30 o'clock.

Defense Measures In the House, meanwhile, bills and resolution were pouring into the hopper at the clerk's desk. National defense measures predominated, and there were many proposals for various investigations. There were many bills for rural credits, and charter improvements, extension of the rural mail service, and a large number of the so-called private bills.

The business of introducing bills did not deter some of the returning old-timers from holding receptions. Former Speaker Cannon, Representative Hill, Longworth and McKinley and others, as well as the leaders of both parties, were centers of groups of the latest arrivals.

Detroit Electric World's Leading Enclosed Car

$2175 This car costs least to keep

The monthly bills of cars of similar size and power run nearly twice as high as those of the Detroit Electric. If you own another type of automobile just total up what you pay year in and year out for replacements and adjustments, count the cost of oil, gasoline, and repairs—then add a fair amount for the time your car is in the repair shop—and out of service. These are items that scarcely ever figure in the maintenance of a Detroit Electric. Let us arrange a demonstration at your convenience.
