

P. O. S. OF A. QUOIT LEAGUE HAS CLOSE RACE---HOPE FOR YALE PLAYERS

FOUR YALE MEN MAY BE FORGIVEN

Prof. R. N. Corwin, Athletic Chairman, Hands Out Some Encouragement

Special to The Telegraph New Haven, Conn., Dec. 7.—There is some hope for the reinstatement of Legore.

With regard to the possible reinstatement of Harry Legore, Spencer Pempely, William Easton, Robert Rhett and Arthur Milburn, Prof. Corwin indicated that one ruling will be adopted covering their case.

In connection with the revision of the rules and discussion concerning the attitude to be taken by the three universities with regard to summer baseball, the case of the five Yale players who withdrew from participation in intercollegiate athletics this Fall upon discovering that they had violated the Yale rule covering this matter, was considered informally.

FISHING CONTEST WINNERS Special to The Telegraph Annville, Pa., Dec. 7.—The fishing contest which was conducted the past summer season by Eugene H. Herr, in West Main street, has closed, and the following prizes awarded: Charles Pfeiffer was the winner in the bass contest, having caught one weighing 9 1/2 pounds and 9 3/4 ounces.

GOTHIC THE NEW ARROW 2 for 25c COLLAR IT FITS THE CRAVAT

HEADQUARTERS FOR SHIRTS SIDES & SIDES

Christmas Greetings Of distinctive design—beautiful workmanship.

TELEGRAPH PRINTING CO. Bell 4100 United 203

Charlie White Is Last of Old Guard

CHARLIE WHITE.

Charlie White, the best-known boxing referee in this country is the last of the old guard of ring judges who presided in the days of the Horton law.

White is one of the most curious figures in the boxing game. When he is not refereeing bouts in squared circles he is an art connoisseur and a politician.

McCall Ousted From N. Y. Service Board Special to The Telegraph Albany, N. Y., Dec. 7.—Edward E. McCall, of New York, a former justice of the Supreme Court, and once a candidate for Mayor of New York City, was last night removed from office as chairman of the Downstate Public Service Commission by Governor Whitman.

BRYAN SUMMONED TO TELL OF SHIP SALES TO GREECE New York, Dec. 7.—William Jennings Bryan, ex-Secretary of State, has been served here, it was announced yesterday, with an order signed by Supreme Court Justice Geigerich requiring him to appear Saturday for examination regarding the transaction connected with the sale by the United States Government of Greece of two battleships.

ENGINEERS LOSE Bowlers from the Draughting Room of the Pennsylvania Railroad Station last night defeated the Division Engineers, scores, 253 to 227.

RUNNING CLOSE IN QUOIT LEAGUE

Three Games on This Week's Schedule; Local Tossers Near Leaders

Only three games will be played this week in the P. O. S. of A. Quoit League. Enhaut's lead was cut down last week. Teams down in the list are showing improved form in every contest, and it looks like a close finish.

For third honors, Steelton, Highspire and Camp No. 746 for Harrisburg are running close. The games which start to-night include Camp No. 477 of Penbrook, at Camp No. 839 Harrisburg; Camp No. 506 Highspire, at Penbrook; and Camp No. 639 of Harrisburg at Enhaut. The standing of the teams to date follows:

Table with columns: Camp No., W., L., P. C. Rows include Enhaut, Harrisburg, Steelton, Highspire, Camp No. 746, Penbrook.

When Football Was Free Harvard Was Big Winner "Compared with the wonderful exhibition of team play given by the Harvard eleven of 1915 against Yale, the first meeting of these two universities would appear almost laughable if it could be staged again to-day," says the Pittsburgh Post.

Skippers Win Match in Which Teams Tie Up Total An exciting bowling contest last night was the match between the Skippers and Orpheums of the Casino League. Each team had a total of 2686. The match went to the Skippers, who won the second and third games, Jacoby had high scores, 231 and 574. The scores and standing follow:

Table with columns: SKIPPERS, VORPHEUMS, Ross, Zierr, Martin, Eisenhart, Bentz, Jacoby, Totals.

Annville High Tossers Arrange Season's Schedule Special to The Telegraph Annville, Pa., Dec. 7.—Under the captaincy of Luther Berry, the local high school will be represented with a strong basketball five. Manager John Gantz has obtained the services of Pfeffer, former Albright star, to coach the quintet.

Hollenback Is Applicant For Head Coach at Penn Philadelphia, Dec. 7.—William Hollenback, former captain of the 1908 football team of the University of Pennsylvania, who played with such men as Folwell, Eddie Greene, Vincent Stevenson, when Old Penn met Columbia and Harvard on the gridiron, and who is a candidate for election as a graduate director of the board of directors of the athletic association, came out definitely yesterday afternoon as a candidate for football coach at Penn next season.

Bitters Trim Bankers in Academy Duckpin Match In the Harrisburg Academy duckpin series the Bitters last night won three games from the Bankers, margin, 92 pins. Colvaris and O'Leary were even in high score honors, 243, and Colvaris had high individual score, 131. The scores follow:

Table with columns: BANKERS, Totals, Julius, Clancy, Farm, Leisman, O'Leary, Fox, Herbert, Bellas, Peffer, Colvaris, Totals.

'JOE' WOOD LEADS IN MOUND WORK

Walter Johnson Is Close Second For Season's Honors; Three Other Winners

The question "Has 'Smoky Joe' Wood gone back?" asked so often last season, is apparently answered by the official American League pitching records made public to-day. The Boston speed monarch led all the hurlers of his league with an average of 1.49 runs per nine-inning game.

Shore, Foster and Leonard, world's series stars of the Red Sox, are found among the leaders, but their averages for the season in the regular pennant race do not compare with the effectiveness they showed when pitted against the Phillies in the blue ribbon event of baseball, Shore is third, Foster eighth and Leonard fifteenth.

Another Jim Thorpe; Must Return Trophies The sensational action of the board of managers of the Central District Amateur Athletic Union, in declaring Alvah Richards, who gained international fame by winning the high jump at the 1912 Olympic games, ineligible to compete in any games under the auspices of the Central A. A. U., has caused much comment in amateur circles here.

SEE DOCTOR FIRST ADVISES DR. DIXON Some Remarks by the Commissioner of Health on the Subject of Overeating Don't overeat at Christmastime just because it is the holiday season is the warning given by Dr. Samuel G. Dixon, the State Commissioner of Health, in his ninety-seventh cautionary article to the people of Pennsylvania. Dr. Dixon calls attention to the fact that the strain of getting ready for Christmas is very hard on people and that often when people are tired and worn out they go to the table and give rein to appetites.

PLUMBERS FIVE LOST OUT The Holtzman All-Stars were winners last night in a match with the Plumbers five; scores, 2318 to 2095, Shellheimer had high individual score, 184, and Klitch high total, 498.

DYE WORKS TEAM WINS The New Idea duckpin team last night lost to the Pennsylvania Dye Works winners. Geiswhite made 126 and 322 for high scores. The winners had a margin of 586 pins.

HARRISBURG CORNER Between now and April 1 many thousand dollars will be paid out by fight fans in the United States, to see contenders for various titles in championship battles. Few knockouts are anticipated. As long as the public is willing to pay, fighters will continue to dance around the ring, tap each other occasionally, and let the public do the talking as to results.

Teachers From All Over Country to Attend Penna. Educators' Annual Meeting President Wilson or some member of his Cabinet, governors of several States, and leading educators from Washington and universities throughout the country, will make addresses on pertinent educational topics at the annual meeting of the Pennsylvania Educational Association, which convenes at Scranton, December 28-30. The program is said to be the most interesting ever prepared for such a convention.

WELLY'S CORNER

WELLY'S CORNER

SEE DOCTOR FIRST ADVISES DR. DIXON Some Remarks by the Commissioner of Health on the Subject of Overeating Don't overeat at Christmastime just because it is the holiday season is the warning given by Dr. Samuel G. Dixon, the State Commissioner of Health, in his ninety-seventh cautionary article to the people of Pennsylvania. Dr. Dixon calls attention to the fact that the strain of getting ready for Christmas is very hard on people and that often when people are tired and worn out they go to the table and give rein to appetites.

PLUMBERS FIVE LOST OUT The Holtzman All-Stars were winners last night in a match with the Plumbers five; scores, 2318 to 2095, Shellheimer had high individual score, 184, and Klitch high total, 498.

DYE WORKS TEAM WINS The New Idea duckpin team last night lost to the Pennsylvania Dye Works winners. Geiswhite made 126 and 322 for high scores. The winners had a margin of 586 pins.

HARRISBURG CORNER Between now and April 1 many thousand dollars will be paid out by fight fans in the United States, to see contenders for various titles in championship battles. Few knockouts are anticipated. As long as the public is willing to pay, fighters will continue to dance around the ring, tap each other occasionally, and let the public do the talking as to results.

Teachers From All Over Country to Attend Penna. Educators' Annual Meeting President Wilson or some member of his Cabinet, governors of several States, and leading educators from Washington and universities throughout the country, will make addresses on pertinent educational topics at the annual meeting of the Pennsylvania Educational Association, which convenes at Scranton, December 28-30. The program is said to be the most interesting ever prepared for such a convention.

WELLY'S CORNER

WELLY'S CORNER Between now and April 1 many thousand dollars will be paid out by fight fans in the United States, to see contenders for various titles in championship battles. Few knockouts are anticipated. As long as the public is willing to pay, fighters will continue to dance around the ring, tap each other occasionally, and let the public do the talking as to results.

SEE DOCTOR FIRST ADVISES DR. DIXON Some Remarks by the Commissioner of Health on the Subject of Overeating Don't overeat at Christmastime just because it is the holiday season is the warning given by Dr. Samuel G. Dixon, the State Commissioner of Health, in his ninety-seventh cautionary article to the people of Pennsylvania. Dr. Dixon calls attention to the fact that the strain of getting ready for Christmas is very hard on people and that often when people are tired and worn out they go to the table and give rein to appetites.

PLUMBERS FIVE LOST OUT The Holtzman All-Stars were winners last night in a match with the Plumbers five; scores, 2318 to 2095, Shellheimer had high individual score, 184, and Klitch high total, 498.

DYE WORKS TEAM WINS The New Idea duckpin team last night lost to the Pennsylvania Dye Works winners. Geiswhite made 126 and 322 for high scores. The winners had a margin of 586 pins.

HARRISBURG CORNER Between now and April 1 many thousand dollars will be paid out by fight fans in the United States, to see contenders for various titles in championship battles. Few knockouts are anticipated. As long as the public is willing to pay, fighters will continue to dance around the ring, tap each other occasionally, and let the public do the talking as to results.

Teachers From All Over Country to Attend Penna. Educators' Annual Meeting President Wilson or some member of his Cabinet, governors of several States, and leading educators from Washington and universities throughout the country, will make addresses on pertinent educational topics at the annual meeting of the Pennsylvania Educational Association, which convenes at Scranton, December 28-30. The program is said to be the most interesting ever prepared for such a convention.

Pretty Teeth Add to the Natural Beauty of All Faces. DR. PHILLIPS, Painless Dentist, 320 Market Street, HARRISBURG, PA.

Hollenback Is Applicant For Head Coach at Penn. Philadelphia, Dec. 7.—William Hollenback, former captain of the 1908 football team of the University of Pennsylvania...

RECRUITS Little Cigars. You Will Find RECRUITS Everywhere. RECruITS are in a class by themselves for quality. Don't take our word for it. And don't take the word of the thousands of men who smoke RECruITS every day.