is entifled to wear the belt as the champion weasel hunter. While hunt ing rabbits, along the Roadside road, he chased a weasel under a rock pile on the side of the hill. Believing that there was a weasel den under theses rockis, the boy came to town, and so-curing a steel trap, set it in front of the hole. Yesterday morning his efforts were rowarded when he went to his trap and found a pure white weasel dead in the trap. The animal was beau-iffully marked, the body being a creamy white, the feet and tip of the tail light brown, and a light brown spot on the head between the ears. It measured seventeen inches.

Preparedness The Vital Factor-

not alone in affairs of the Nation, but with the health of every citizen.

One seldom knows when the common enemy, sickness, in one form or another, is about to strike; and the best form of preparedness is to keep body and brain healthy.

Active brains and vigorous bodies are the result of right living-food plays a big part.

Grape-Nuts FOOD

made of whole wheat and malted barley, supplies all the bone and brain-building, nerveand muscle-making clements of the grains, including the vital salts, phosphate of potash, etc., often lacking in the diet of many, but imperative for bounding good health.

Grape-Nuts is easily digested—comes ready for table directly the germ-proof, moisture-and dust-proof packet is opened. With good milk or cream Grape-Nuts supplies complete nourishment.

A ration of Grape-Nuts each day is a safe play for health, and
