

CATARRH CAUSED BY A GERM

Must Be Destroyed Before Catarrh Itself Can Destroy You
Results from Breathing Medicated Air

Medicine that acts on the blood alone will never cure catarrh. And neither will the sprays, douches, lotions, creams and other temporary remedies that so many catarrh victims make a habit of using. To cure catarrh so it won't come back you must first drive from your body the millions of germs that are flourishing in the inner recesses of your nose and throat and are causing the disease.

There is a preparation used to do this called Hyomei (pronounced High-oh-may). Hyomei is a germ-killing vaporized air formed from the purest oil of Eucalyptus combined with other healing and antiseptic ingredients. You breathe Hyomei through the mouth and nose by means of a little hard rubber inhaler which drugists furnish with it. This medicated germicidal air penetrates into every fold and crevice and throat, kills the catarrh germs that lodge there, soothes, reduces and stops the discharge and opens up the congested nose and air passages in a truly wonderful way. It gives blessed relief in five minutes from catarrhal distress of every kind and in a few days the offensive odor of catarrh is completely gone. Hyomei is very inexpensive and each bottle is guaranteed behind your purchase there is absolutely no reason why any sufferer from Catarrh should not give it a fair trial.—Advertisement.

HOSEA GREATEST ANCIENT LAYMAN

Only Prophet Who Came From Northern Kingdom of Israel

By William T. Ellis

Last night at a banquet I watched nearly three hundred strong men listening spellbound to one layman's story of his personal religious experience. Innocent of a theological training, and I suspect also of a college course, he used none of the tricks of the professional speaker, yet he thrilled his hearers as few skilled orators could do. That company of alert and discriminating men listened intently, as out of a full life the layman related the spiritual significance of his personal experience. It was really speaking to reality, life to life.

Something akin to that was the power of the ancient layman, who became an immortal voice: Hosea, the only prophet who was a native of the Northern Kingdom of Israel; and whose words are to-day's Sunday school lesson. We have no trace of Hosea's having ever attended a school of the prophets. He was merely a sensitive-souled layman who lived tremendously, and did not miss the spiritual significance of experiences that would have blighted a lesser man.

His very name links Hosea with the Greatest of Prophets, for at its root the word "Hosea" is the same as "Joshua" and "Jesus" and it means a savior. Both Hosea and Jesus are described by Isaiah in the picture of the suffering servant, "By the knowledge of himself shall my righteous servant justify many."

Jereboam sat on the tottering throne of Israel at this time, and Esauiah ruled in Judah, and doubtless neither of them reckoned seriously with the personal tragedy of this one man. Yet Hosea's life story is a deathless message to each new generation of humanity.

The Storm That Drives Home

The highest use of any life is as an interpretation of the mind of God. Find out what God means by what He is doing with you. Hosea's story is the value of discovering the spiritual significance of a personal experience. What says Browning?—"I count life just a stuff To try the soul's strength on."

Personal providences mean something as they enter every life. Let us not miss the message. "I am in the mills of God," said a man, who was passing through dark days; "I don't know what He is trying to make out of my life, but I want to find out. I should be sorry to have to undergo these experiences without catching their meaning and message." Every providence has a purpose. Hosea's domestic disaster made him a prophet. The story is told of a shepherd in the northwest whom a traveler saw driving his flock out into the teeth of a heavy wind; they faced the storm all the way to the pasture. "Why don't you drive a more sheltered feeding ground?" asked the traveler. "Don't you see," said the shepherd, "if a blizzard comes the storm will drive the sheep home?"

So it is with the storms of personal experience. They are meant to drive the spirit home to God.

How else can we interpret the world we live in? Is not the growth of the sacrificial spirit, which the whole world is learning in the red schoolhouse of war, but an education in the university of God? Humanity today is entering into a knowledge of Christ by a Gethsemane experience. The storm of war is driving the suffering sheep home to the Shepherd and His fold. We are unable to think of the war as undergoing the present, crucial experience

Why Boys Leave Home

The folly of Hosea's wife seems equal to her sin. Nobody has ever succeeded in proving that wickedness is wise. Every neighborhood wonders afresh over each new experience of the boy who plays the prodigal. It is the mystery of folly, why a young man should desert the full table of his father's house for the husks of a far country. Prudence, sagacity, self-interest, all must be flung to the winds before boys and girls can turn their backs on innocence and peace and pure love, and seek the painted imitations of life's good things beyond the pale of righteousness and law.

There is never a sinner who has sinned greatly who would not say with his dying breath that he had been a fool. There is never a man who has gone wrong himself who would advise his son to do the same. The pleasure of sin are "apples of Sodom" turning to ashes in the mouth. With all this misery, Hosea's life was happier than that of the faithless wife who had broken his heart. Would that there were words of sagacity to make clear to youth that, at their best, the pleasures of sin are "for a season." There is a way which seemeth right unto a man; but the end thereof are the ways of death.

A Nation as a Prodigal

Out of all the bitterness of his own woe Hosea extracted comfort for his nation. He had learned in his own great and furnace-purified soul the possibility of forgiveness, and of the love that never faileth. In that crucible he saw mirrored the supreme truth of the love of God. So he prophesied to Israel in the figure of his own sorrow; for Israel had been faithless to Jehovah, who had loved her with an everlasting love. Again without the prospect of learning from it the supreme lesson of God as a refuge and a Father.

The Faithless Wife

No bitterer experience can come to a man than that which befell Hosea. His wife was faithless; yet he remained faithful. The earlier chapters of the Book of Hosea tell the tremendous story. We should read in its tragic light the flippant tales of marital infidelity which are daily aired in our divorce courts. In some circles all sense of the heinousness of adultery has been lost. The Book of Hosea reveals it as it is.

Dean Stanley has, with great delicacy, recounted the life tragedy of Hosea.

"In his own personal history, he shared in the misery brought on his country by the profligacy of the age. In early youth he had been united in marriage with a woman who had fallen into the vices which surrounded her. He had loved her with a tender love. She had borne to him two sons and a daughter; she had then deserted him, wandered from her home, fallen again into wild licentiousness, and had been carried off as a slave. From this wretched state, with all the tenderness of his nature, he bought her and gave her one more chance of recovery by living with him, though apart. In his own grief for his own great calamity—the greatest that can befall a tender human soul—he was taught to feel for the Divine grief over the lost opportunities of the nation, once so full of hope."

and again the nation had committed the folly of going after strange gods. The drear monotony of her backsliding had nevertheless not shaken the steadfast devotion of the Friend who "loveth at all times."

This was Hosea's message to his time, and to ours. Of God, in His Son, it is written "Having loved His own, He loved them to the end." The record is written beyond obliteration that "His mercy is from everlasting to everlasting." As the good shepherd seeks the wandering sheep, so God yearns over His erring people. Often Israel forsook Jehovah, but Jehovah never forsook Israel. Hear the heart-break in the cry, "I drew them with the cords of a man, with bands of love. How shall I give thee up, Ephraim? How shall I cast thee off, Israel? The cry of Hosea went forth when the nation was facing exile; yet beyond the desert wastes, beyond harpoons were required to kill the big period of punishment, the Prophet said.

foresaw the better day for the Chosen People:—"For the love of God is broader Than the measure of man's mind; And the heart of the Eternal Is most wonderfully kind."

SPEAKING OF BIG FISH

The largest fish ever caught was a whale shark taken last year off the coast of Florida. It occupied an important place among the fish exhibits at the San Francisco Exposition. This giant weighed over 30,000 pounds when caught. It is forty-five feet long and a full grown man could stand upright in its stomach. The mouth of this whale shark is over three feet wide and forty-five inches deep. It has several thousand teeth. The skin is three inches thick and has no scales.

The monster was captured after a fight lasting forty hours. A hundred and fifty bullets and five whale harpoons were required to kill the big fish.

SUDDEN DEATH
 Caused by Disease of the Kidneys

The close connection which exists between the heart and the kidneys is well known nowadays. As soon as kidneys are diseased, arterial tension is increased and the heart functions are attacked. When the kidneys no longer pour forth waste, uric acid poisoning occurs, and the person dies and the cause is often given as heart disease, or disease of brain or lungs.

It is a good insurance against such a risk to send 10 cents for a large trial package of "Anuric"—the latest discovery of Dr. Pierce. Also send a sample of your water. This will be examined without charge by expert chemists at Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y. When you suffer from backache, frequent or scanty urine, rheumatic pains here or there, or that constant tired, worn-out feeling, it's a sign to write Dr. Pierce, describe your symptoms and get his medical opinion—without charge and absolutely free. This "Anuric" of Dr. Pierce's is 37 times more active than lithia, for it dissolves uric acid in the system, as hot water does sugar.

Simply ask for Dr. Pierce's Anuric Tablets. There can be no imitation. Every package of "Anuric" is sure to be Dr. Pierce's. You will find the signature on the package just as you do on Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, the ever-famous friend to ailing women.

Worry, Despondency

Kidney Disease is suspected by medical men when patients complain of backache or suffer with irregular urination, disturbed, too frequent, scanty or painful passage. The general symptoms are rheumatic pains or neuralgia, headaches, dizzy spells, irritability, despondency, weakness and general misery. Worry is a frequent cause and sometimes a symptom of kidney disease. Thousands have testified to immediate relief from these symptoms after using Dr. Pierce's Anuric Kidney Tablets.—Advertisement.
