thought it great fun, and kept up the fun every day. When grown up this boy neglected his invalid mother, shamefully. She could not understand his ingratitude, failing to realize that to stand over the flames. The poor beast was badly burned and not able to work for several weeks. And yet there are people in this city who ask: "What's the use of the S. P. C. A.? I'm sure much of this cruelty is all talk."

Horses have starved to death from trouble with their teeth. If a horse does not eat well have him examined by a veterinary. His teeth may need filing or there may be trouble at the root of a tooth.

Equally important is the shoeing of a horse. Have a good blacksmith and remove the shoes of your horses every four or five weeks. When roads are icy keep sharp calks on the horse's
