A Busy Man's Store

Gift Pieces That Are Bound to Please the Man Who Makes Christmas Glad For Others

Price is not the only measure of the worth of a thing-

Take our men's store, for instance, it is a conceded fact that more furnishings for men move out of this men's store in a day's time than from any two or three men's shops in Harrisburg. And we shall always try to keep just that far ahead in this race for success.

We are in touch, through our men's store, with most of the live men in Harrisburg. We know that men of this type know the value of merchandise, and they know that littleness of price in our men's store is not a sign of disregard of quality.
